PUBLIC COMMENT: During each of the six taskforce meetings, the second hour will be reserved for public comment. In order to ensure that all perspectives are given the opportunity to be heard, please coordinate and collaborate your comments with other similar, vested partners, where plausible and possible. The process to sign up for public comment follows:

- Signups will be on a first come, first serve basis (maximum of 20 speakers).
- By 9:00 am on October 19, 2009 there will be a sign-up sheet at the entrance of DMAS conference rooms 7A/B. The sign-up sheets will be taken up each afternoon upon the adjournment of the last meeting and will be available by 9:00 am the following morning.
- We will limit each public comment to 3 minutes (There will be a digital clock in the room to ensure comments are kept to the appropriate time length)
- Those providing comment will be responsible for bringing copies of any supporting documents for the taskforce members. A minimum of 20 copies will be needed.

At any time, additional public comments can be sent to VHRI@governor.virginia.gov
