

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY -- 2000 SESSION

CHAPTER 126

An Act to amend and reenact § 46.2-726 of the Code of Virginia, relating to license plates with reserved numbers or letters.

[H 658]

Approved March 17, 2000

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 46.2-726 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 46.2-726. License plates with reserved numbers or letters; fees.

The Commissioner may, in his discretion, reserve license plates with certain registration numbers or letters or combinations thereof for issuance to persons requesting license plates so numbered and lettered.

License plates with reserved numbers or letters may be issued for and displayed on vehicles operated as ambulances by private ambulance services.

The annual fee or, in the case of permanent license plates for trailers and semitrailers, the one-time fee, for the issuance of any license plates with reserved numbers or letters shall be ten dollars plus the prescribed fee for state license plates. If those license plates with reserved numbers or letters are subject to an additional fee beyond the prescribed fee for state license plates, the fee for such special license plates with reserved numbers or letters shall be ten dollars plus the additional fee for the special license plates plus the prescribed fee for state license plates.

The annual fee for reissuing license plates with the same combination of letters and numbers as license plates that were previously issued but not renewed shall be ten dollars plus the prescribed fee for state license plates. If those license plates are special license plates subject to an additional fee beyond the prescribed fee for state license plates, the fee shall be ten dollars plus the additional fee for the special license plates plus the prescribed fee for state license plates.

License plates with reserved numbers or letters or combinations thereof shall have at least one number or letter and may have as many as eight numbers, letters, or numbers and letters, but no more.
