3 duration of conservation easements.

4 [H 1326]

5 Approved

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 10.1-1010 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 10.1-1010. Creation, acceptance and duration.

9 A. A holder may acquire a conservation easement by gift, purchase, devise or bequest.

10 B. No right or duty in favor of or against a holder and no right in favor of a person having a 11 third-party right of enforcement arises under a conservation easement before its acceptance by the holder
12 and a recordation of the acceptance.13 C. A conservation easement shall be perpetual in duration unless the instrument creating it otherwise 14 provides a specific time. ~~Where an easement is perpetual,~~ For all easements, the holder shall (i) meet
15 the criteria in § 10.1-1009 and (ii) have had a principal office in the Commonwealth for at least five 16 years. Until a holder has met these requirements, the holder may cohold a conservation easement with 17 *another holder that meets the requirements.*18 D. An interest in real property in existence at the time a conservation easement is created is not 19 impaired by it unless the owner of the interest is a party to the conservation easement or consents to it
20 in writing.21 E. No conservation easement shall be valid and enforceable unless the limitations or obligations 22 created thereby conform in all respects to the comprehensive plan at the time the easement is granted for 23 the area in which the real property is located.24 F. This chapter does not affect the power of the court to modify or terminate a conservation 25 easement in accordance with the principles of law and equity, or in any way limit the power of eminent 26 domain as possessed by any public body. In any such proceeding the holder of the conservation 27 easement shall be compensated for the value of the easement.
