§ 8.01-465.4. Stay of enforcement.

If the judgment debtor shows the circuit court that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated, upon proof that the judgment debtor has furnished the security for the satisfaction of the judgment required by the state in which it was rendered.

If the judgment debtor shows the circuit court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of any court of this Commonwealth would be stayed, including the ground that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that the time for taking such an appeal has not expired, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment for an appropriate period until all available appeals are concluded or the time for taking all appeals has expired, upon requiring the same security for satisfaction of the judgment which is required in this Commonwealth, subject to the provisions of subsections J and K of § 8.01-676.1.

If the appellant wishes suspension of execution, the security shall also be conditioned as provided in subsection C and shall be in such sum as the trial court may require.

B. Security for costs on petition for appeal to Court of Appeals or Supreme Court. - An appellant whose petition for appeal is granted by the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court shall (if he has not done so) within fifteen days from the date of the Certificate of Appeal file an appeal bond or irrevocable letter of credit in the same penalty as provided in subsection A, conditioned on the payment of all damages, costs, and fees incurred in the Court of Appeals and in the Supreme Court.

C. Security for suspension of execution. - An appellant who wishes execution of the judgment or award from which an appeal is sought to be suspended during the appeal shall, subject to the provisions of subsection J, file an appeal bond or irrevocable letter of credit conditioned upon the performance or satisfaction of the judgment and payment of all damages incurred in consequence of such suspension, and except as provided in subsection D, execution shall be suspended upon the filing of such security and the timely prosecution of such appeal. Such security shall be continuing and additional security shall not be necessary except as to any additional amount which may be added by the courts.

D. Suspension of execution in decrees for support and custody; injunctions. - The court from which an appeal is sought may refuse to suspend the execution of decrees for support and custody, and may also refuse suspension when a judgment refuses, grants, modifies, or dissolves an injunction.

E. Increase or decrease in penalty of security. - The Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court, when it considers a petition for appeal, may order that the penalty of the security for the appeal be decreased or increased if such request is made in the brief of any party filed in the Court of Appeals, or in the Petition for Appeal or the appellee's Brief in Opposition filed in the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals. Affidavits and counter-affidavits may be filed by the parties containing facts pertinent to such request. Any increase or decrease in the amount of the security so ordered shall be effected in the clerk's office of the trial court within fifteen days of the order of the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court. If an increase so ordered is not effected within fifteen days, the appeal shall be dismissed. 123 A and B is not jurisdictional and the time for filing such security in cases before the Court of Appeals
124 or the Supreme Court may be extended by a judge or justice of the court before which the case is 125 pending on motion for good cause shown and to attain the ends of justice.
126 ~~MQ.~~ Consideration of appeal bond or letter of credit by Court of Appeals. - A determination on an 127 issue affecting an appeal bond or letter of credit in a case before the Court of Appeals may be
