HOUSE BILL NO. 677

Offered January 21, 2000

A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 54.1-2400.4, relating to certain duty of mental health service providers; immunity.

Patrons—Weatherholtz, Darner, Landes, Louderback and Sherwood; Senators: Hanger and Miller, K.G.

Referred to Committee on Health, Welfare and Institutions

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 54.1-2400.4 as follows:

§ 54.1-2400.4. Mental health service providers duty to inform; immunity.

A. Any mental health service provider, as defined in § 54.1-2400.1, shall, upon learning of evidence of misconduct by another licensed mental health service provider, advise his patient of his right to report such misconduct to the Department of Health Professions, hereinafter referred to as the "Department."

B. The mental health service provider shall provide relevant information to the patient, including, but not limited to, the Department's toll-free complaint hotline number for consumer complaints and written information, published by the Department of Health Professions, explaining how to file a report. The mental health service provider shall document in the patient's record the alleged misconduct, the name of the mental health service provider who will be the subject of the report, and the action taken by the mental health service provider to inform the patient of his right to file a complaint with the Department of Health Professions.

C. Any mental health service provider informing a patient of his right to file a complaint against a regulated person and providing the information required by this section shall be immune from any civil liability or criminal prosecution resulting therefrom unless such person acted in bad faith or with malicious intent.
