8 § 8.01-4. District courts and circuit courts may prescribe certain rules.

9 The district courts and circuit courts may, from time to time, prescribe rules for their respective 10 districts and circuits. Such rules shall be ~~strictly~~ limited to ~~only~~ those rules ~~absolutely~~ necessary to 11 promote proper order and decorum and the efficient and safe use of courthouse facilities and clerks'

13 or any other statutory provision, or the Rules of Supreme Court or contrary to the decided cases, or 14 which has the effect of abridging substantive rights of persons before such Court. Any rule of court

16 The courts may prescribe certain docket control procedures which shall not abridge the substantive
