6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 26-17.10 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 26-17.10. Miscellaneous.

9 A. The commissioner shall state, settle and report to the court an account of the transactions of such 10 fiduciary, as provided by law. Every such fiduciary shall also, at the request of the commissioner, 11 exhibit (i) the securities held by the fiduciary together with a statement from every bank in which cash
12 is held at the terminal date of the account and (ii) proof that all premiums due upon any required surety
13 bond have been paid.

14 B. If a personal representative of a decedent's estate, a testamentary trustee, a guardian, conservator 15 or a committee dies prior to the filing and settlement of such fiduciary's account, the personal 16 representative of the fiduciary's estate shall have the obligation to make the requisite filing and 17 settlement through the date of death unless any successor fiduciary makes the requisite filing.

18 C. For fiduciaries acting on behalf of social security, supplemental security income, veteran's or other 19 federal benefits recipients, no accounting to the commissioner shall be required of benefits paid to a 20 designated representative on behalf of the recipient if the representative is otherwise required to account 21 for such benefits. However, any such fiduciary otherwise required to make an accounting to the 22 commissioner shall disclose thereon the total amount of such benefits received during the accounting 23 period for which no incremental fee shall be charged by the commissioner.
