

2000 SESSION

ENROLLED

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 392

Commending Christine Capaci.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 4, 2000
Agreed to by the Senate, February 10, 2000

WHEREAS, Christine Capaci received her bachelor of science and her master of science degrees from Old Dominion University; and

WHEREAS, Christine Capaci has taught with distinction in the Norfolk public schools since 1992; and

WHEREAS, while at Northside Middle School, Christine Capaci has been a leader in interdisciplinary education; and

WHEREAS, Christine Capaci has been intimately involved in the development of the Maritime Pathways Project at Northside Middle School in Norfolk, where the Walker-Heilig Aqua Lab is located; and

WHEREAS, a co-teacher in the Pennywinkle Project, Christine Capaci led her students through literary and scientific exploration to develop Pennywinkle, a student-produced oral history of the Chesapeake Bay islands; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly commend and congratulate Christine Capaci on her role in the production of Pennywinkle, an outstanding student project; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Christine Capaci as an expression of the General Assembly's gratitude for her dedication to the education of the young people of Norfolk.

ENROLLED

HJ392ER