SENATE BILL NO. 249

Senate Amendments in [ ] — February 7, 2000

A BILL to amend and reenact § 17.1-207 of the Code of Virginia, relating to days of operation of clerks' offices.

Patrons—Houck; Delegates: Dickinson and Orrock

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 17.1-207 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 17.1-207. Days of operation of clerks' offices.

A. ~~[ The judge of the Circuit Court of the County of Spotsylvania may authorize the clerk of such court to keep the clerk's office open on Saturdays, for such hours as the judge may determine, for the sole purposes of receiving applications for and granting licenses, and for the examination and copying of records; for all other purposes, such clerk's office shall be closed with the force and effect of a statutory closing as provided in § 1-13.3:1. If such clerk's office opens on Saturdays for the limited purposes set out in this subsection, it may thereafter be fully closed on Saturdays if the judge of that circuit court so requires. ]~~

[ B. ] The clerk's office of every court shall be kept open on every day except Saturday, except as provided in subsection [ A B ], and Sunday, and the days provided for in § 2.1-21, for the transaction of business; provided that:

1. The clerk's office of the circuit court of any county or city may be closed on any day which is established as a general holiday for the employees of such county or city by a resolution duly adopted by the governing body of such county or city and approved by the judge or judges of the circuit court and filed in the office of the clerk; provided that such general holiday shall have the same force and effect as a legal holiday as set forth in § 1-13.3:1;

2. The judge or judges of any circuit court in any county or city may authorize the clerk of such court to close the clerk's office on Christmas Eve; provided that the closing of any clerk's office as provided by this subdivision shall have the same force and effect as a legal holiday as set forth in § 1-13.3:1;

3. The chief judge or presiding judge of any circuit court may authorize the clerk of the court to close the clerk's office on any day when the chief judge or presiding judge determines that operation of the clerk's office, under prevailing conditions, would constitute a threat to the health and safety of the clerk's office personnel or the general public. Closing of the clerk's office pursuant to this subdivision shall have the same effect as provided in § 1-13.3:1;

4. The judge or judges of the circuit court of any county or city may authorize the clerk of such court to close the clerk's office on any day or portion of a day which the Governor declares as a holiday for state employees, or on any day or portion of a day on which the Governor authorizes state offices to be closed; provided that such closing of any clerk's office shall have the same force and effect as a legal holiday as set forth in § 1-13.3:1.

Except for closings pursuant to subdivision 3, whenever the authorization of the judge is necessary to close a clerk's office and a court has more than one judge, the authorization of all such judges shall be necessary.

The judge of the circuit court of any county or city may require the clerk's office to be kept open continuously for the transaction of business during convenient hours on all the days on which it is required by this section to be kept open.

[ B. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the clerk, with the approval of the chief judge, to open the clerk's office on Saturdays, during such hours as the chief judge may authorize, solely for the purposes of (i) permitting examination and copying of court records, and (ii) accepting applications for and granting licenses pursuant to applicable law. For all other purposes, including without limitation the recordation of instruments and the filing of actions at law and suits in equity and all pleadings, pleas and motions therein, such clerk's office shall be closed with the force and effect of a statutory closing as provided in §1-13.3:1. ]
