6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 16.1-309.3 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 16.1-309.3. Establishment of a community-based system of services; biennial local plan; quarterly 9 report.

10 A. Any county, city or combination thereof may establish a community-based system pursuant to this 11 article, which shall provide, or arrange to have accessible, a variety of predispositional and 12 postdispositional services. These services may include, but are not limited to, diversion, community 13 service, restitution, house arrest, intensive juvenile supervision, substance abuse assessment and testing, 14 first-time offender programs, intensive individual and family treatment, structured day treatment and 15 structured residential programs, aftercare/parole community supervision and residential and nonresidential 16 services for juvenile offenders who are before intake on complaints or the court on petitions alleging 17 that the juvenile is delinquent, in need of services or in need of supervision but shall not include secure 18 detention for the purposes of this article. Such community-based systems shall be developed after 19 consultation with the judge or judges of the juvenile and domestic relations district court, the director of 20 the court services unit and the community policy and management team established under § 2.1-751.

21 B. Community-based services instituted pursuant to this article shall be administered by a county, 22 city or combination thereof, and may be administered through a community policy and management 23 team established under § 2.1-750 or a commission established under § 16.1-315. Such programs and 24 services may be provided by qualified public or private agencies, pursuant to appropriate contracts. Any 25 commission established under § 16.1-315 providing predispositional and postdispositional services prior 26 to the enactment of this article which serves a member jurisdiction that is a city having a population 27 between 135,000 and 165,000 shall directly receive, ~~during the period fiscal year 1995 through fiscal~~ 28 ~~year 2000,~~ the proportion of funds calculated under § 16.1-309.7 on behalf of the owner localities.
29 ~~During the period fiscal year 1995 through fiscal year 2000,~~ The funds received shall be allocated
30 directly to the member localities. Any member locality which elects to withdraw from the commission 31 shall be entitled to its full allocation as provided in §§ 16.1-309.6 and 16.1-309.7. The Department of 32 Juvenile Justice shall provide technical assistance to localities, upon request, for establishing or 33 expanding programs or services pursuant to this article.

34 C. Funds provided to implement the provisions of this article shall not be used to supplant funds 35 established as the state pool of funds under § 2.1-757.

36 D. Any county, city or combination thereof which establishes a community-based system pursuant to 37 this article shall biennially submit to the State Board for approval a local plan for the development, 38 implementation and operation of such services, programs and facilities pursuant to this article. The State 39 Board shall solicit written comments on the plan from the judge or judges of the juvenile and domestic 40 relations court and the director of the court services unit. Prior to the initiation of any new services, the 41 plan shall also include a cost comparison for the private operation of such services.

42 E. Each locality shall report quarterly to the Director the number of child-care days registered during 43 the preceding quarter by each juvenile correctional program or facility operated within such locality's 44 plan.
