6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 24.2-544 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 24.2-544. Time presidential primaries to be held; age qualifications for participation.

9 A. Primaries for the nomination of candidates for the office of President of the United States to be 10 voted on at the November 2000 general election, and the November general election in each presidential
11 election year thereafter, shall be held on the last Tuesday in February preceding the November general
12 election. Primaries for the nomination of candidates for all offices to be voted on at the May 2000
13 general election, and the May general election in each presidential election year thereafter, shall be held
14 on the last Tuesday in February preceding the May general election.

15 B. The provisions of this title shall apply to the conduct of presidential year primaries including the 16 time limits applicable to notices and candidate filing deadlines and the closing of registration records
17 before the primary. The State Board shall provide a schedule for the notices and filing deadlines by the 18 August 1 prior to the February primary including a campaign finance disclosure report filing schedule
19 adjusted to reflect the difference between the June date for other primaries and the February date for the 20 presidential primary, and the March and February primary dates.

21 C. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any person who is otherwise qualified
22 and will be eighteen years of age at the next November general election shall be permitted to register in 23 advance of and also vote in any presidential primary and any other primary or special election held on 24 the same day.
