114 No cooperative may sell, lease or dispose of ~~any~~ all or substantially all of its property (other than 115 property which, in the judgment of the board, is neither necessary nor useful in operating and 116 maintaining the cooperative's system and which in any one year shall not exceed ~~ten~~ fifty percent in 117 value of the value of all the property of the cooperative, or merchandise), unless authorized to do so by 118 the votes of at least a two-thirds majority of its members; however, a cooperative (i) may mortgage,
119 finance (including, without limitation, pursuant to a sale and leaseback or lease and leaseback 120 transaction), or otherwise encumber its assets by a vote of at least two-thirds of its board of directors;
121 (ii) may sell or transfer its assets to another cooperative upon the vote of a majority of its members at any regular or special meeting if the notice of such meeting contains a copy of the terms of the proposed sale or transfer; ~~or~~ (iii) may sell or transfer distribution system facilities to a city or town at any time following the annexation of additional territory pursuant to § 56-265.4:2 by a vote of at least two-thirds of its board of directors; or (iv) may sell, lease or dispose of its property to an affiliate pursuant to a plan approved by the Commission in accordance with subsection B of § 56-590 by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the Board.

§ 56-231.25. Power to issue obligations.

A cooperative shall have power and is hereby authorized, from time to time, to issue its obligations ~~in anticipation of its revenues~~ for any corporate purpose. Such obligations may be authorized by resolution of the board, and may bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, ~~not exceeding fifty years from their respective date,~~ bear such interest, be payable at such times, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution may provide. Such obligations may be sold in such manner and upon such terms as the board may determine. Pending the preparation or execution of definitive bonds, or obligations, interim receipts or certificates of temporary bonds may be delivered to the purchaser of such obligations.

§ 56-231.27. Power to purchase its own obligations.

A cooperative ~~shall have power out of any funds available therefor to~~ may purchase any obligation issued by it at a price ~~not exceeding the principal amount thereof and accrued interest thereon.~~ All bonds so purchased shall be canceled.

§ 56-231.28. Board of directors of cooperatives.

Each cooperative shall have a board of directors of five or more members, which board shall constitute the governing body of the cooperative. Only members and the officers, directors or employees of any member shall be eligible for election to the board of directors. The directors, other than those named in the articles of incorporation, shall be elected annually by the members entitled to vote, unless the bylaws provide that, in lieu of electing the whole number of directors annually, the directors shall be divided into two, three or four classes at the first or any subsequent annual meeting. If the bylaws so provide, each class shall be as nearly equal in number as possible, with the term of office of one class to expire every year. If the number of classes changes, then the board of directors shall have authority to determine how directors will be allocated among the new number of classes, provided that no director's term will exceed, without reelection, a number of years equal to the number of classes of directors. The board of directors shall have authority to fix the compensation of directors. The directors shall elect annually from their own number a president of the board or a chairman of the board; and one or more vice presidents of the board, vice-chairmen of the board or both. They may also elect or appoint annually (i) a president of the cooperative, (ii) one or more vice presidents of the cooperative, (iii) a secretary, (iv) a treasurer, and (v) such other officers as the board deems necessary. No person shall hold any office unless that person is a director or employee of the cooperative. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person.

§ 56-231.30. Rights and liabilities of members.

A. A cooperative may have one or more classes of members. If the cooperative has more than one class of members, the designation of each class and the qualifications and rights of the members of each class shall be set forth in the bylaws of the cooperative.

B. A cooperative shall issue to its members certificates of membership and each member shall be entitled to only one vote at the meetings of the members of the cooperative. The liability of each member shall be limited to the unpaid portion of his membership fee or subscription to capital stock, and any unpaid bills for utility services or other services, commodities or merchandise purchased from the cooperative, provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the exposure of any unrefunded patronage capital to the lawful creditors of a cooperative. The equity of members of a nonstock cooperative shall be set by the board ~~and be in proportion to the revenue or patronage capital paid to the cooperative in accordance with cooperative principles.~~ A cooperative shall be operated on a not-for-profit basis for the mutual benefit of the members. The bylaws of a cooperative or its contract with the members shall contain such provisions relative to the disposition of ~~revenues and receipts~~ margins as may be necessary and appropriate to establish and maintain its nonprofit and cooperative character.

§ 56-231.33. Adequate service; rates.

Regulated utility services offered by a cooperative shall be reasonably adequate, subject to the regulations of the ~~State Corporation~~ Commission, as provided in § 56-231.34. The charge made by any such cooperative for any regulated utility service rendered or to be rendered, either directly or in connection therewith, shall be nondiscriminatory, reasonable and just, and every discriminatory, unjust or unreasonable charge for such regulated utility service is prohibited and declared unlawful. Reasonable

183 and just charges for service within the meaning of this section shall be such charges as shall produce
184 sufficient revenue to pay all legal and other necessary expenses incident to the operation of the system,
185 and shall include but not be limited to maintenance cost, operating charges, interest charges on bonds or 186 other obligations, to recover such stranded costs and transition costs as may be authorized in this title, to 187 provide for the liquidation of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, to provide adequate funds to be 188 used as working capital, as well as reasonable reserves and funds for making replacements and also for 189 the payment of any taxes that may be assessed against such cooperative or its property, it being the 190 intent and purpose hereof that such charges shall produce an income sufficient to maintain such 191 cooperative property in a sound physical and financial condition to render adequate and efficient service
192 and additional amounts that must be realized by the cooperative to meet the requirement of any rate
193 covenant with respect to coverage of principal of and interest on its debt contained in any indenture,
194 mortgage, or other contract with holders of its debt, provided that any such indenture, mortgage or 195 other contract must have been approved by the Commission pursuant to Chapter 3 (§ 56-55 et seq.) of 196 this title. Any rate for regulated utility services that is too low to meet the foregoing requirements shall 197 be unlawful.

198 § 56-231.34:1. Separation of regulated and unregulated businesses.

199 A. ~~Any business of a~~ No cooperative that is ~~not~~ engages in a regulated utility service shall ~~be~~
200 ~~conducted solely by~~ conduct any unregulated business activity, other than traditional cooperative
201 activities, except in or through one or more affiliates of such cooperative, provided that a cooperative
202 that provides regulated utility services shall have the right to offer and make unregulated sales of 203 electric power to its members within its certificated service territory. No such affiliates, formed to
204 engage in any business that is not a regulated utility service, shall engage in regulated utility services.

205 B. The Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations, governing the conduct of the 206 cooperatives, to promote effective and fair competition between (i) affiliates of cooperatives that are 207 engaged in business activities which are not regulated utility services and (ii) other persons engaged in 208 the same or similar businesses. The rules and regulations shall be effective by July 1, 2000, and shall 209 include provisions:

210 1. Prohibiting cost-shifting or cross-subsidies between a cooperative and its affiliates;
211 2. Prohibiting anticompetitive behavior or self-dealing between a cooperative and its affiliates;
212 3. Prohibiting a cooperative from engaging in discriminatory behavior towards nonaffiliated entities;
213 and

214 4. Establishing codes of conduct detailing permissible relations between a cooperative and its
215 affiliates. In establishing such codes, the Commission shall consider, among other things, whether and, if
216 so, under what circumstances and conditions (i) a cooperative may provide its affiliates with customer
217 lists or other customer information, sales leads, procurement advice, joint promotions, and access to
218 billing or mailing systems unless such information or services are made available to third parties under
219 the same terms and conditions, (ii) the cooperative's name, logos or trademarks may be used in
220 promotional, advertising or sales activities conducted by its affiliates, and (iii) the cooperative's vehicles,
221 equipment, office space and employees may be used by its affiliates.

222 C. Nothing in this article shall be deemed to abrogate or modify the Commission's authority under 223 Chapter 4 (§ 56-76 et seq.) of ~~Title 56~~ this title.

"Traditional cooperative activity" means any business, service or activity in which cooperatives in Virginia have traditionally engaged and that is incidental to and substantially related to the electric utility business conducted by a cooperative on or before January 1, 1999; provided, however, that traditional cooperative activity does not include any program (i) to buy or maintain an inventory of HVACR equipment or household appliances; (ii) to install or service any such equipment or household appliances for customers, unless such service is not provided by the cooperative but by a third party individual, firm or corporation licensed to perform such service; (iii) to sell HVACR equipment or household appliances to customers metered and billed on residential rates; (iv) to sell HVACR equipment to customers other than those metered and billed on residential rates except where such sale is an incidental part of providing other energy services or providing other traditional cooperative activities; (v) to sell or distribute propane or fuel oil; sell, install or service propane or fuel oil equipment; or maintain or buy an inventory of propane or fuel oil equipment for resale; or (vi) to serve as a coordinator of nonelectric energy services or provide engineering consulting services except when such energy or engineering services are an incidental part of a marketing effort to provide other energy or engineering services or as a part of providing services that are other traditional cooperative activities.

"Utility services" means any products, services, and equipment related to energy, telecommunications, water and sewerage.

§ 56-231.40. Names.

The words "electric cooperative" or "utility aggregation cooperative" shall not be used in the corporate name of any corporation other than those ~~formed under or~~ subject to this chapter, or their wholly owned subsidiaries.

§ 56-231.43. Powers.

A. Each cooperative formed under this article shall have power to do any and all lawful acts or things, including, but not limited to the power:

1. To purchase, sell, generate, store, transport or transmit energy, energy services, products and equipment.

2. To sue and be sued.

3. To have a seal and alter the same at pleasure.

4. To acquire, hold and dispose of property, real and personal, tangible and intangible, or interests therein and to pay in cash or property or on credit, and to secure and procure payment of all or any part of the purchase price thereof on such terms and conditions as the board shall determine.

5. To render service and to acquire, own, operate, maintain and improve a system or systems.

6. To accept gifts or grants of money or of property, real or personal, and to accept voluntary and uncompensated services.

7. To sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber or dispose of all or any parts of its property.

8. To contract debts, borrow money and to issue or assume the payment of bonds and other obligations.

9. To fix, maintain and collect reasonable fees, rents, tolls and other charges for service rendered.

10. To exercise, with respect to its construction of regulated transmission facilities as a power supply cooperative, all the powers set forth in § 56-49, including the power of eminent domain as prescribed for other public service corporations by general law.

11. To assist its members, by loans or otherwise, in the acquisition by them of energy and electrical, technological and other equipment related to the business of the cooperative.

12. To issue nonassessable nonvoting common and preferred capital stock or similar securities and pay ~~noncumulative~~ dividends thereon.

13. To perform any and all of the foregoing acts through or by means of its own officers, agents and employees, or by contract.

B. A cooperative shall have the power and is authorized, from time to time, to issue its obligations ~~in anticipation of its revenues~~ for any corporate purpose.

1. The obligations may be authorized by resolution of the board, and may bear any date or dates, mature at any time or times, bear any interest, be payable at any times, be in any denominations, be in any form, either coupon or registered, carry any registration privileges, be executed in any manner, be payable in any medium of payment, at any place or places, and be subject to any terms of redemption, as provided by the resolution.

2. These obligations may be sold in the manner and upon the terms as the board may determine. Pending the preparation or execution of definitive bonds or obligations, interim receipts or certificates of 306 temporary bonds may be delivered to the purchaser of such obligations.

307 C. A cooperative ~~shall have the power, out of any funds available, to~~ may purchase any of its own

310 by a cooperative or its cooperative affiliates, or subsidiaries organized prior to January 1, 1999.

311 § 56-231.44. Board of directors.

312 A. Each cooperative shall have a board of directors consisting of at least five directors, which shall 313 constitute the governing body of such cooperative. The board, other than those named in the articles of 314 incorporation, shall be elected annually by the members. The bylaws may provide in lieu of electing the 315 whole number of directors annually, that the directors may be divided into classes and that the terms of 316 office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which 317 he or she is elected and until his or her successor is elected except in cases of ex officio directors.

318 The directors shall be elected by the members of the cooperative. At a minimum, there shall be at 319 least one director elected from the membership, officers, directors or employees of each member of the 320 cooperative that is itself a cooperative subject to any article of this chapter. Additional directors may be 321 elected from the membership, from the members, officers, directors or employees of any member of the 322 cooperative, or from employees of the cooperative. The board of directors shall have the authority to fix
323 the compensation of the directors.

324 B. The board of directors of a cooperative shall have the power to do all things necessary or 325 incidental in conducting the business of such cooperative, including, but not limited to the power:

326 1. To adopt and amend bylaws for the management and regulation of the affairs of such cooperative
327 unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, subject to the rights of the members
328 to alter or repeal such bylaws. The bylaws of a cooperative may make provisions not inconsistent with 329 law or its articles of incorporation, regulating:

330 a. The admission, suspension or expulsion of members;

331 b. The transfer or classification of membership;

332 c. The fees and dues of members and the termination of membership on nonpayment of dues;

333 d. The number, times and manner of choosing or electing, qualifications, terms of office, official
334 designations, powers, duties and compensation of its directors and officers;

335 e. The filling of a vacancy in the board or in any office;

336 f. The number of board members or member-delegates constituting a quorum at meetings;

337 g. The date of the annual meeting and the giving of notice thereof and the holding of special
338 meetings and the giving of notice thereof;

339 h. The terms and conditions upon which such cooperative is to render service to its members;

340 i. The disposition of capital contributions; and

341 j. The establishment of classes of membership, the qualifications therefor and the rights and 342 obligations thereof.

343 2. To appoint agents and employees and to fix their compensation and the compensation of the 344 officers of the cooperative.

345 3. To execute all instruments.

346 4. To make its own rules and regulations as to its procedure.

347 § 56-231.50:1. Separation of regulated and unregulated businesses.

348 A. ~~Any business of a~~ No cooperative that is ~~not engages in~~ a regulated utility service shall be
349 ~~conducted solely by~~ conduct any unregulated business activity, other than traditional cooperative
350 activities, except in or through one or more affiliates of such cooperative. No such affiliates, formed to
351 engage in any business that is not a regulated utility service, shall engage in regulated utility services.

352 B. The Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations to promote effective and fair competition
353 between (i) affiliates of cooperatives that are engaged in business activities which are not regulated
354 utility services and (ii) other persons engaged in the same or similar businesses. The rules and 355 regulations shall be effective by July 1, 2000, and shall include provisions:

356 1. Prohibiting cost-shifting or cross-subsidies between a cooperative and its affiliates;

357 2. Prohibiting anticompetitive behavior or self-dealing between a cooperative and its affiliates;

358 3. Prohibiting a cooperative from engaging in discriminatory behavior towards nonaffiliated entities;
359 and

360 4. Establishing codes of conduct detailing permissible relations between a cooperative and its
361 affiliates. In establishing such codes, the Commission shall consider, among other things, whether and, if
362 so, under what circumstances and conditions (i) a cooperative may provide its affiliates with customer
363 lists or other customer information, sales leads, procurement advice, joint promotions, and access to
364 billing or mailing systems unless such information or services are made available to third parties under
365 the same terms and conditions, (ii) the cooperative's name, logos or trademarks may be used in
366 promotional, advertising or sales activities conducted by its affiliates, and (iii) the cooperative's vehicles,
367 equipment, office space and employees may be used by its affiliates.

368 C. Nothing in this article shall be deemed to abrogate or modify the Commission's authority under 369 Chapter 4 (§ 56-76 et seq.) of this title.
370 2. That § 56-231.20 of the Code of Virginia is repealed.
