SENATE BILL NO. 652

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the House Committee on Education on March 1, 2000)

(Patron Prior to Substitute—Senator Marsh)

*A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 22.1-212.2:1 and 23-38.10:1 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the Virginia Teaching Scholarship Loan Program.Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That §§ 22.1-212.2:1 and 23-38.10:1 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 22.1-212.2:1. Virginia Teaching Scholarship Loan Program established; purpose; Board of Education to administer Program; eligibility requirements for scholarship and awards; collaboration and consultation with State Council of Higher Education; repayment of scholarship required.

A. With such funds as may be appropriated for this purpose and any gifts, donations, grants, bequests, and other funds that may be received on behalf of the Program by the Board of Education, there is hereby established the Virginia Teaching Scholarship Loan Program, hereinafter referred to as the "Program," to: (i) increase the number of students pursuing careers in teaching; (ii) increase the number of teachers in the critical teacher shortage disciplines, including special education, as established by the Board; ~~to~~ (iii) assist paraprofessionals in the classroom in becoming enrolled as full-time or part-time students in an approved teacher education program in completing the program to become fully licensed teachers; (iv) expand eligibility to sophomores, and to students enrolled full-time or part-time in an approved teacher education program; and (v) ~~to~~ increase the diversity of persons pursuing careers in teaching.

The Program shall consist of ~~three~~ five components: (i) awards to students pursuing teaching degrees teacher licensure; (ii) awards to students pursuing teacher licensure in critical teacher shortage areas disciplines; ~~(ii)~~ (iii) awards to assist paraprofessionals in becoming completing an approved teacher education program to become fully licensed teachers; and ~~(iii)~~ (iv) awards to at-risk sophomores and full-time and part-time students enrolled in an approved teacher education program; and (v) awards to students of diverse backgrounds, pursuant to subsection B.

B. ~~There~~ In addition, there is hereby established, within the Virginia Teaching Scholarship Loan Program, a program component focused solely on increasing diversity among teachers by providing incentives for at-risk students of diverse backgrounds to pursue careers in teaching, which shall be known as the Diversity in Teaching Program Initiative. The Diversity in Teaching Program Initiative shall provide scholarships to at-risk students of diverse backgrounds enrolled in approved undergraduate and graduate teacher education programs and shall be funded with such moneys as may be appropriated for this purpose, and any gifts, donations, grants, bequests, and other funds as may be received on its behalf by the Board of Education and deposited in the Diversity in Teaching Virginia Teaching Scholarship Loan Fund pursuant to subsection G. The Board shall establish a procedure and criteria, in consultation with the Office of the Attorney General, for awarding the Diversity in Teaching Initiative scholarships.

C. The Board of Education shall establish, in regulation, criteria for determining, biennially, critical teacher shortage areas for awarding scholarships pursuant to this section, and for defining "high concentrations" of at-risk students. The criteria shall include such factors as the needs in teacher endorsement areas and among the several school divisions of the Commonwealth, teacher shortages at the elementary and secondary grade levels, underserved and teacher shortages in geographical rural and urban regions of the Commonwealth, and school divisions with high concentrations of at-risk students. The Program shall be administered by the Board of Education, which shall promulgate such regulations as may be necessary for the implementation of the Program. The Board shall, before implementing the Program, document in writing the basis for any preferences for at-risk students in any component of the Program, or in the regulations and policies governing such Program, and, upon making awards, that scholarships have been awarded in accordance with constitutional principles. The Board shall consult with the State Council of Higher Education in the development and implementation of the Program.

D. The Program shall consist of scholarships awarded annually to undergraduate students in the sophomore, junior, or senior year of college, and to graduate students at an accredited public or private four-year institution of higher education in the Commonwealth, who (i) are enrolled full time or part time in an approved teacher education program, or in a critical teacher shortage area discipline, as may be determined by the Board of Education biennially; (ii) are employed as paraprofessionals and are enrolled full time or part time to complete an approved teacher education program to become fully licensed teachers; (iii) have and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.7 on a 4.0 scale

60 or its equivalent; and (iii) (iv) are nominated for such scholarship by the institution where they are 61 enrolled.

62 ~~At-risk students~~ Students enrolled in any area of an approved teacher education program who are 63 seeking endorsements in elementary or middle school education who meet the program requirements
64 may be eligible for such award. ~~Paraprofessionals who are enrolled or accepted as part-time or full-time~~ 65 ~~undergraduate students in an accredited institution of higher education shall be eligible to compete for~~ 66 ~~and receive such awards.~~

67 E. Before any teaching scholarship is awarded in accordance with the provisions of this section, the 68 scholarship recipient shall sign a promissory note under which he agrees (i) to pursue an approved 69 teacher education or graduate education program full time or part time at an accredited public or 70 private four-year institution of higher education in Virginia until his graduation and (ii) upon 71 graduation, to begin teaching in the public schools of the Commonwealth in a critical teaching shortage
72 discipline or, regardless of teaching discipline, in a school with a high concentration of students eligible
73 for free or reduced lunch or in a rural or urban region of the Commonwealth with a teacher shortage.

74 An eligible paraprofessional shall sign a promissory note under which he agrees to pursue an 75 approved teacher education program either part time or full time. Upon graduation, the scholarship
76 recipient shall begin teaching in the public schools of the Commonwealth in the first full academic year
77 after graduating from college and becoming eligible for a teaching license, and shall thereafter teach 78 continuously in Virginia for the same number of years that he was the beneficiary of such scholarship.
79 Such scholarship recipient may fulfill the teaching obligation by accepting a teaching position (i) in one
80 of the critical teacher shortage areas disciplines as determined by the Board of Education; or (ii)
81 regardless of teaching discipline, in a school division with a high concentrations concentration of at-risk 82 students eligible for free or reduced lunch; or (iii) at grade levels with a shortage of teachers; or (iv) in 83 a geographical rural or urban region of the state where teachers who have been at-risk students are 84 under-represented with a teacher shortage. The Board of Education may recover the total amount of 85 funds awarded as a scholarship, or the appropriate proportion thereof, including any accrued interest, if 86 the scholarship recipient fails to honor the teaching obligation.

87 F. To ensure a more diverse representation among classroom teachers, particularly especially at the 88 elementary and middle grade level levels, the ~~Program~~ Diversity in Teaching Initiative shall consist of no
89 more than five pilot projects, geographically distributed across the Commonwealth, and shall be 90 designed to attract and encourage elementary and secondary school students, particularly at-risk students 91 of diverse backgrounds, to pursue an approved teacher education program a career in teaching. The 92 ~~Program~~ pilot projects shall be developed in accordance with the provisions of the appropriation act
93 governing the administration of the Better Information Project within the Pre-Collegiate Program under 94 the Virginia Plan for Equal Educational Opportunity in Higher Education. The ~~Program~~ pilot projects
95 may include outreach activities such as ~~student-teacher~~ mentorship programs, linkages between public 96 schools and institutions of higher education, and other programs and activities designed to generate
97 interest in the teaching profession. The Board may provide for shall require the evaluation of each pilot 98 ~~programs project~~ before statewide implementation implementing this component of the Diversity in 99 Teaching Initiative statewide.

100 G. There is hereby created in the Department of the Treasury a special nonreverting fund known as 101 the ~~Diversity in Teaching~~ Virginia Teaching Scholarship Loan Fund, hereinafter referred to as the 102 "Fund." The Fund shall be established on the books of the Comptroller, and any moneys remaining in 103 the Fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the general fund but shall remain in the Fund.
104 The Fund shall consist of such moneys as may be appropriated for the ~~Diversity in Teaching~~ Virginia
105 Teaching Scholarship Loan Program and such gifts, donations, grants, bequests, and other funds as may 106 be received on its behalf by the Board of Education. The Fund shall be used solely to fund the ~~Diversity~~
107 ~~in Teaching~~ Virginia Teaching Scholarship Loan Program for the purpose of increasing diversity in 108 teaching by providing incentives for at-risk students to pursue careers as teachers. Interest earned on 109 such moneys shall remain in the Fund and be credited to it. Moneys in the Fund shall be used solely to 110 award scholarships pursuant to the ~~Diversity in Teaching~~ Virginia Teaching Scholarship Loan Program
111 as provided in this section. Disbursements from the Fund for such scholarships shall be made by the 112 State Treasurer on warrants issued by the Comptroller upon written request of the President of the Board
113 of Education. The State Treasurer shall ensure that any moneys appropriated or provided to the Fund
114 for the Diversity in Teaching Initiative through appropriations, gifts, donations, grants, and bequests 115 shall be accounted for separately and distributed only for scholarships awarded pursuant to the 116 Diversity in Teaching Initiative.

117 H. For the purposes of this section, "paraprofessional" means a full-time member of a school staff
118 whose primary responsibility is to support instructional programs under the direction of licensed
