Introduced at the request of Governor

_____
Referred to Committee on Privileges and Elections

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That § 24.2-106 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 24.2-106. Appointment and terms; vacancies; chairman and secretary; certain prohibitions.

There shall be in each county and city an electoral board composed of three members who shall be appointed by a majority of the circuit judges of the judicial circuit for the county or city. If a majority of the judges cannot agree, the senior judge shall make the appointment. Any vacancy occurring on a board shall be filled by the same authority for the unexpired term. The clerk of the circuit court shall send to the State Board a copy of each order making an appointment to an electoral board by the duly constituted authorities of the political party committees of the county or city as provided in this section.

In the appointment of the electoral board, representation shall be given to each of the two political parties having the highest and next highest number of votes in the Commonwealth for Governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election. Two electoral board members shall be of the political party which cast the highest number of votes for Governor at that election. When the Governor was not elected as the candidate of a political party, representation shall be given to each of the political parties having the highest and next highest number of members of the General Assembly at the time of the appointment and two board members shall be of the political party having the highest number of members in the General Assembly.

The State Board of Elections shall notify the chairman of any county or city political party committee entitled to make an appointment to an electoral board of its duty to make the appointment. The State Board shall give such notice (i) by January 10 in the case of a full term beginning the following March 1 or (ii) in the case of an appointment to fill a vacancy, within fifteen days of the date of death or notice of resignation of the member being replaced. The chairman of the county or city political party committee entitled to make the appointment shall make and file recommendations with the judges for the appointment the name of its appointee with the State Board of Elections not later than January 15 25 of the year of an appointment to a full term or, in the case of an appointment to fill a vacancy, within thirty days of the date of death or notice of resignation of the member being replaced. Its recommendations shall contain the names of at least three qualified voters of the county or city for each appointment. The judges shall promptly make such appointment (i) after receipt of the political party's recommendation or (ii) after January 15 for a full term or after the thirty-day period expires for a vacancy appointment, whichever of the events described in clause (i) or (ii) first occurs. If the political party committee chairman fails to file the name of its appointee with the State Board by the stated deadline, the State Board shall make the appointment.

~~The circuit judges of the judicial circuit for~~ Neither the political party committee of the county or city, nor the State Board, shall ~~not~~ appoint to the electoral board (i) any person who is the spouse of an electoral board member or the general registrar for the county or city or (ii) any person, or the spouse of any person, who is the parent, grandparent, sibling, child, or grandchild of an electoral board member or the general registrar of the county or city.

Electoral board members shall serve three-year terms and be appointed to staggered terms, one term to expire at midnight on the last day of February each year. No three-year term shall be shortened to comply with the political party representation requirements of this section.

The board shall elect one of its members as chairman and another as secretary. The chairman and the secretary shall represent different political parties, unless the representative of the second-ranked political party declines in writing to accept the unfilled office.

The secretary of the electoral board shall immediately notify the State Board of any change in the membership or officers of the electoral board and shall keep the Board informed of the name, residence and mailing addresses, and home and business telephone numbers of each electoral board member.

No member of an electoral board shall be eligible to offer for or hold an office to be filled in whole or in part by qualified voters of his jurisdiction. If a member resigns to offer for or hold such office, the
