HOUSE BILL NO. 1044

House Amendments in [] — February 14, 2000

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 58.1-302 and 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia, relating to subtractions from individual income taxes for reparation payments to victims or targets of Nazi persecution.

Patrons—Cantor, Baskerville, Bryant, Cox, Devolites, Diamonstein, Drake, Grayson, Hall, Harris, Katzen, Kilgore, Landes, Louderback, May, McClure, McDonnell, McEachin, Melvin, Moss, Nixon, O'Brien, Plum, Purkey, Reid, Rhodes, Sherwood, Suit, Wagner, Wardrup and Ware; Senators: Barry and Martin

Referred to Committee on Finance

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That §§ 58.1-302 and 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:*§ 58.1-302. Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter and unless otherwise required by the context:

"Affiliated" means two or more corporations subject to Virginia income taxes whose relationship to each other is such that (i) one corporation owns at least eighty percent of the voting stock of the other or others or (ii) at least eighty percent of the voting stock of two or more corporations is owned by the same interests.

"Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid or accrued to employees for personal services.

"Corporation" includes associations, joint stock companies and insurance companies.

"Domicile" means the permanent place of residence of a taxpayer and the place to which he intends to return even though he may actually reside elsewhere. In determining domicile, consideration may be given to the applicant's expressed intent, conduct, and all attendant circumstances including, but not limited to, financial independence, business pursuits, employment, income sources, residence for federal income tax purposes, marital status, residence of parents, spouse and children, if any, leasehold, sites of personal and real property owned by the applicant, motor vehicle and other personal property registration, residence for purposes of voting as proven by registration to vote, if any, and such other factors as may reasonably be deemed necessary to determine the person's domicile.

"Foreign source income" means:

1. Interest, other than interest derived from sources within the United States;
2. Dividends, other than dividends derived from sources within the United States;
3. Rents, royalties, license, and technical fees from property located or services performed without the United States or from any interest in such property, including rents, royalties, or fees for the use of or the privilege of using without the United States any patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, trademarks, trade brands, franchises, and other like properties;
4. Gains, profits, or other income from the sale of intangible or real property located without the United States; and

5. The amount of an individual's share of net income attributable to a foreign source qualified business unit of an electing small business corporation (S corporation). For purposes of this subsection, qualified business unit shall be defined by § 989 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the source of such income shall be determined in accordance with §§ 861, 862 and 987 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In determining the source of "foreign source income," the provisions of §§ 861, 862, and 863 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applied except as specifically provided in ~~subsection~~ subdivision 5 above.

"Income and deductions from Virginia sources" includes:

1. Items of income, gain, loss and deduction attributable to:
 - a. The ownership of any interest in real or tangible personal property in Virginia;
 - b. A business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in Virginia; or
 - c. Prizes paid by the Virginia Lottery Department, and gambling winnings from wagers placed or paid at a location in Virginia.
 2. Income from intangible personal property, including annuities, dividends, interest, royalties and gains from the disposition of intangible personal property to the extent that such income is from property employed by the taxpayer in a business, trade, profession, or occupation carried on in Virginia.
- "Individual" means all natural persons whether married or unmarried and fiduciaries acting for natural persons, but not fiduciaries acting for trusts or estates.

ENGROSSED

HB1044E

56 "Nonresident estate or trust" means an estate or trust which is not a resident estate or trust.

57 "Resident" applies only to natural persons and includes, for the purpose of determining liability for 58 the taxes imposed by this chapter upon the income of any taxable year every person domiciled in 59 Virginia at any time during the taxable year and every other person who, for an aggregate of more than 60 183 days of the taxable year, maintained his place of abode within Virginia, whether domiciled in 61 Virginia or not. The word "resident" shall not include any member of the United States Congress who is 62 domiciled in another state.

63 "Resident estate or trust" means:

- 64 1. The estate of a decedent who at his death was domiciled in the Commonwealth;
- 65 2. A trust created by will of a decedent who at his death was domiciled in the Commonwealth;
- 66 3. A trust created by or consisting of property of a person domiciled in the Commonwealth; or
- 67 4. A trust or estate which is being administered in the Commonwealth.

68 "Sales" means all gross receipts of the corporation not allocated under § 58.1-407, except the sale or 69 other disposition of intangible property shall include only the net gain realized from the transaction.

70 "State" means for purposes of Article 10 of this chapter any state of the United States, the District of 71 Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any 72 foreign country.

73 "Trust" or "estate" means a trust or estate, or a fiduciary thereof, which is required to file a fiduciary
74 income tax return under the laws of the United States.

75 "Victim or target of Nazi persecution" means any individual persecuted or targeted for persecution
76 by the Nazi regime because of race, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, national origin, or physical 77 or mental disability or handicap, whether or not such person was actually a member of any of the 78 foregoing enumerated groups or because such person assisted or allegedly assisted any of the foregoing
79 groups, who had assets stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost as a result of any act or omission in 80 any way relating to (i) the Holocaust; (ii) World War II and its prelude and direct aftermath; (iii)
81 transactions with or actions of the Nazi regime; (iv) treatment of refugees fleeing Nazi persecution; or
82 (v) the holding of such assets by entities or persons in the Swiss Confederation during World War II
83 and its prelude and aftermath. A victim or target of Nazi persecution shall also include any individual
84 forced into labor against his will, under the threat of death, during World War II and its prelude and 85 direct aftermath. As used in this section, "Nazi regime" means the country of Nazi Germany, areas
86 occupied by Nazi Germany, those European countries allied with Nazi Germany, or any other neutral
87 European country or area in Europe under the influence or threat of Nazi invasion.

88 "Virginia fiduciary adjustment" means the net amount of the applicable modifications described in
89 § 58.1-322 (including subsection E thereof if the estate or trust is a beneficiary of another estate or trust)
90 which relate to items of income, gain, loss or deduction of an estate or trust. The fiduciary adjustment
91 shall not include the modification in subsection D of § 58.1-322, except that the amount of state income
92 taxes excluded from federal taxable income shall be included.

93 § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents.

94 A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income for 95 the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the United 96 States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifications
97 specified in this section.

98 B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added:

99 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income, on 100 obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state unless 101 created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party;

102 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal 103 taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the 104 United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from state
105 income taxes;

106 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code;

107 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minimum
108 distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes which is excluded
109 from federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging 110 provisions under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code;

111 5. through 7. [Repealed.]

112 8. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, and before January 1, 1994, any amount 113 of self-employment tax deduction under § 164 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code; and

114 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax on an 115 accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code.

116 C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted:

117 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United States and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not limited to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal taxes, interest on equipment purchase contracts, or interest on other normal business transactions.

2. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations of this Commonwealth or of any political subdivision or instrumentality of this Commonwealth.

3. [Repealed.]

4. Benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act and other benefits subject to federal income taxation solely pursuant to § 86 of the Internal Revenue Code.

4a. A deduction equal to the amount used in computing the federal credit allowed under § 22 of the Internal Revenue Code by a retiree under age sixty-five who qualified for such retirement on the basis of permanent and total disability and who is a qualified individual as defined in § 22 (b) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code; however, any person who claims a subtraction under subdivision 5 of subsection D of this section may not also claim a deduction under this subdivision.

5. The amount of any refund or credit for overpayment of income taxes imposed by the Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction.

6. The amount of wages or salaries eligible for the federal Targeted Jobs Credit which was not deducted for federal purposes on account of the provisions of § 280 C (a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

7. Any amount included therein which is foreign source income as defined in § 58.1-302.

8. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1983, the available portion of total excess cost recovery as defined in former § 58.1-323 B and for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1987, the excess cost recovery amount specified in § 58.1-323.1 B.

9. [Expired.]

10. Any amount included therein less than $600 from a prize awarded by the State Lottery Department.

11. The wages or salaries received by any person for active and inactive service in the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Virginia, not to exceed the amount of income derived from thirty-nine calendar days of such service or $3,000, whichever amount is less; however, only those persons in the ranks of O3 and below shall be entitled to the deductions specified herein.

12. Amounts received by an individual, not to exceed $1,000 in any taxable year, as a reward for information provided to a law-enforcement official or agency, or to a nonprofit corporation created exclusively to assist such law-enforcement official or agency, in the apprehension and conviction of perpetrators of crimes. This provision shall not apply to the following: an individual who is an employee of, or under contract with, a law-enforcement agency, a victim or the perpetrator of the crime for which the reward was paid, or any person who is compensated for the investigation of crimes or accidents.

13. [Repealed.]

14. (Expires for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2004.) The amount of any qualified agricultural contribution as determined in § 58.1-322.2.

15. [Repealed.]

16. The amounts of self-employment tax required to be added in computing Virginia taxable income for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, but before January 1, 1994, pursuant to subdivision B 8 of this section, as follows:

a. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1994, and before January 1, 1995, the amount of self-employment tax added to federal adjusted gross income in taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, and before January 1, 1991;

b. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 1996, the amount of self-employment tax added to federal adjusted gross income in taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1992;

c. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 1997, the amount of self-employment tax added to federal adjusted gross income in taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1993;

d. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997, and before January 1, 1998, the amount of self-employment tax added to federal adjusted gross income in taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1993, and before January 1, 1994, and any amount of self-employment tax required to be added back for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, and before January 1, 1994, which was not subtracted in those taxable years.

17. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1995, the amount of "qualified research expenses" or "basic research expenses" eligible for deduction for federal purposes, but which were not deducted, on account of the provisions of § 280 C (c) of the Internal Revenue Code and which shall be available to partners, shareholders of S corporations, and members of limited liability companies to the extent and in the same manner as other deductions may pass through to such partners, shareholders, and 179 members.

180 18. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1995, all military pay and allowances, not 181 otherwise subtracted under this subsection, earned for any month during any part of which such member
182 performed military service in any part of the former Yugoslavia, including the air space above such 183 location or any waters subject to related naval operations, in support of Operation JOINT ENDEAVOR
184 as part of the NATO Peace Keeping Force. Such subtraction shall be available until the taxpayer
185 completes such service.

186 19. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, any income received during the taxable 187 year derived from a qualified pension, profit-sharing, or stock bonus plan as described by § 401 of the 188 Internal Revenue Code, an individual retirement account or annuity established under § 408 of the 189 Internal Revenue Code, a deferred compensation plan as defined by § 457 of the Internal Revenue Code, 190 or any federal government retirement program, the contributions to which were deductible from the 191 taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, but only to the extent the contributions to such plan or 192 program were subject to taxation under the income tax in another state.

193 20. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997, any income attributable to a 194 distribution of benefits or a refund from a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account with the 195 Virginia Higher Education Tuition Trust Fund, created pursuant to Chapter 4.9 (§ 23-38.75 et seq.) of 196 Title 23. The subtraction for any income attributable to a refund shall be limited to income attributable 197 to a refund in the event of a beneficiary's death, disability, or receipt of a scholarship.

198 21. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, all military pay and allowances, to the 199 extent included in federal adjusted gross income and not otherwise subtracted, deducted or exempted
200 under this section, earned by military personnel while serving by order of the President of the United 201 States with the consent of Congress in a combat zone or qualified hazardous duty area which is treated 202 as a combat zone for federal tax purposes pursuant to § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code.

203 22. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000, the gain derived from the sale or 204 exchange of real property or the sale or exchange of an easement to real property which results in the 205 real property or the easement thereto being devoted to open-space use, as that term is defined in 206 § 58.1-3230, for a period of time not less than thirty years. To the extent a subtraction is taken in 207 accordance with this subdivision, no tax credit under this chapter for donating land for its preservation
208 shall be allowed for three years following the year in which the subtraction is taken.

209 23. (Delayed effective date) Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000,
210 $15,000 of military basic pay for military service personnel on extended active duty for periods in 211 excess of ninety days; however, the subtraction amount shall be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount
212 which the taxpayer's military basic pay exceeds $15,000 and shall be reduced to zero if such military 213 basic pay amount is equal to or exceeds $30,000.

214 24. (Delayed effective date) Effective for all taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000,
215 the first $15,000 of salary for each federal and state employee whose annual salary is $15,000 or less.

216 25. (Delayed effective date) Unemployment benefits taxable pursuant to § 85 of the Internal Revenue
217 Code.

218 26. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, items of income attributable to,
219 derived from or in any way related to (i) assets stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost by an 220 individual who was a victim or target of Nazi persecution; or (ii) damages, reparations, or other 221 considerations received by a victim or target of Nazi persecution to compensate such individual for 222 performing labor against his will under the threat of death, during World War II and its prelude and 223 direct aftermath. This subtraction shall not apply to assets acquired with such items of income or with 224 the proceeds from the sale of assets stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost to, during World War II
225 and its prelude and direct aftermath, a victim or target of Nazi persecution. The provisions of this 226 subdivision shall only apply to an individual who was the first recipient of such items of income and 227 who was a victim or target of Nazi persecution, or a spouse [~~or a descendant~~ , child or stepchild] of 228 such victim.

229 D. In computing Virginia taxable income there shall be deducted from federal adjusted gross income:

230 1. a. The amount allowable for itemized deductions for federal income tax purposes where the 231 taxpayer has elected for the taxable year to itemize deductions on his federal return, but reduced by the 232 amount of income taxes imposed by the Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction and deducted 233 on such federal return and increased by an amount which, when added to the amount deducted under 234 § 170 of the Internal Revenue Code for mileage, results in a mileage deduction at the state level for 235 such purposes at a rate of eighteen cents per mile; or

236 b. Two thousand dollars for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987, through December 31, 1987;
237 $2,700 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1988, through December 31, 1988; and $5,000 for 238 married persons (one-half of such amounts in the case of a married individual filing a separate return);
239 and $3,000 for single individuals for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1989; provided that 240 the taxpayer has not itemized deductions for the taxable year on his federal income tax return. For purposes of this section, any person who may be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's return for the taxable year may compute the deduction only with respect to earned income.

2. a. A deduction in the amount of $700 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987, through December 31, 1987, and $800 for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1988, for each personal exemption allowable to the taxpayer for federal income tax purposes. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1987, each blind or aged taxpayer as defined under § 63 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be entitled to an additional personal exemption.

b. An additional deduction of $200 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987, through December 31, 1987, for each blind or aged taxpayer as defined under § 63 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code. The additional deduction for blind or aged taxpayers allowed under this subdivision and the additional personal exemption allowed to blind or aged taxpayers under subdivision 2 a of this subsection shall be allowable regardless of whether the taxpayer itemizes deductions for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes.

3. A deduction equal to the amount of employment-related expenses upon which the federal credit is based under § 21 of the Internal Revenue Code for expenses for household and dependent care services necessary for gainful employment.

4. An additional $1,000 deduction for each child residing for the entire taxable year in a home under permanent foster care placement as defined in Chapter 10 (§ 63.1-195 et seq.) of Title 63.1, provided the taxpayer can also claim the child as a personal exemption under § 151 of the Internal Revenue Code.

5. Effective for all taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, a deduction in the amount of $12,000 for taxpayers age sixty-five or older, or $6,000 for taxpayers age sixty-two through sixty-four, less any amount received pursuant to the (i) Social Security Act or (ii) Railroad Retirement Act and treated for federal income tax purposes as equivalent to social security. Beginning in taxable year 1992 through taxable year 1993, the $12,000 and $6,000 deduction amounts shall be indexed annually in each such taxable year by an amount equivalent to the most recent percentage increase in the social security wage base.

Effective for the taxable year beginning January 1, 1994, a deduction in the amount of $12,944 for taxpayers age sixty-five or older, or $6,472 for taxpayers age sixty-two through sixty-four. Effective for the taxable year beginning January 1, 1995, a deduction in the amount of $10,000 for taxpayers age sixty-five or older, or $5,000 for taxpayers age sixty-two through sixty-four. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, a deduction in the amount of $12,000 for taxpayers age sixty-five or older, or $6,000 for taxpayers age sixty-two through sixty-four.

Beginning in taxable year 1995, the deductions under this subdivision shall not be reduced by any amount received pursuant to the (i) Social Security Act or (ii) Railroad Retirement Act and treated for federal income tax purposes as equivalent to social security.

6. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997, the amount an individual pays as a fee for an initial screening to become a possible bone marrow donor, if (i) the individual is not reimbursed for such fee or (ii) the individual has not claimed a deduction for the payment of such fee on his federal income tax return.

7. a. (Effective for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1996.) A deduction shall be allowed to the purchaser or contributor for the amount paid or contributed during the taxable year for a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account entered into with the Virginia Higher Education Tuition Trust Fund, pursuant to Chapter 4.9 (§ 23-38.75 et seq.) of Title 23. Except as provided in subdivision 7 c, the amount deducted on any individual income tax return in any taxable year shall be limited to $2,000 per prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account. No deduction shall be allowed pursuant to this section if such payments or contributions are deducted on the purchaser's or contributor's federal income tax return. If the purchase price or annual contribution to a savings trust account exceeds $2,000, the remainder may be carried forward and subtracted in future taxable years until the purchase price or savings trust contribution has been fully deducted; however, except as provided in subdivision 7 c, in no event shall the amount deducted in any taxable year exceed $2,000 per contract or savings trust account. Notwithstanding the statute of limitations on assessments contained in § 58.1-312, any deduction taken hereunder shall be subject to recapture in the taxable year or years in which distributions or refunds are made for any reason other than (i) to pay qualified higher education expenses, as defined in § 529 of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) the beneficiary's death, disability, or receipt of a scholarship. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "purchaser" or "contributor" means the person shown as such on the records of the Virginia Higher Education Tuition Trust Fund as of December 31 of the taxable year. In the case of a transfer of ownership of a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account, the transferee shall succeed to the transferor's tax attributes associated with a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account, including, but not limited to, carryover and recapture of deductions.

b. (Effective for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1996.) The amount paid for a

302 prepaid tuition contract during taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, but before January
303 1, 1998, shall be deducted in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, and shall be subject
304 to the limitations set out in subdivision 7 a.

305 c. (Effective for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1998.) A purchaser of a prepaid
306 tuition contract who has attained age seventy shall not be subject to the limitation that the amount of the 307 deduction not exceed $2,000 per contract in any taxable year. Such taxpayer shall be allowed a
308 deduction for the full amount paid for the contract, less any amounts previously deducted. If a prepaid
309 tuition contract was purchased by such taxpayer during taxable years beginning on or after January 1,
310 1996, but before January 1, 1998, such taxpayer may take the deduction for the full amount paid during 311 such years, less any amounts previously deducted with respect to such payments, in taxable year 1999 or 312 by filing an amended return for taxable year 1998.

313 8. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, the total amount an individual actually 314 contributed in funds to the Virginia Public School Construction Grants Program and Fund, established in 315 Chapter 11.1 (§ 22.1-175.1 et seq.) of Title 22.1, provided the individual has not claimed a deduction for 316 such amount on his federal income tax return.

317 9. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1999, an amount equal to twenty percent of 318 the tuition costs incurred by an individual employed as a primary or secondary school teacher licensed
319 pursuant to Chapter 15 (§ 22.1-289.1 et seq.) of Title 22.1 to attend continuing teacher education courses
320 that are required as a condition of employment; however, the deduction provided by this subsection shall 321 be available only if (i) the individual is not reimbursed for such tuition costs and (ii) the individual has 322 not claimed a deduction for the payment of such tuition costs on his federal income tax return.

323 10. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, the amount an individual pays
324 annually in premiums for long term health care insurance, provided the individual has not claimed a 325 deduction for federal income tax purposes.

326 E. There shall be added to or subtracted from federal adjusted gross income, as the case may be, the 327 individual's share, as beneficiary of an estate or trust, of the Virginia fiduciary adjustment determined 328 under § 58.1-361.

329 F. There shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the amounts provided in § 58.1-315 as 330 transitional modifications.
