HOUSE BILL NO. 2004AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE(Proposed by the Senate Committee on Finance on February 13, 2001)

(Patrons Prior to Substitute—Delegates Parrish [HB 2004], [HB 2003]; Sherwood [HB 1796]; Pollard [HB 1815]; Hull [HB 1945]; and Moss [HB 2742])

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 15.2-1104.1, 30-19.05, 30-19.1:3, 58.1-601, 58.1-608.2, 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9, 58.1-609.10, 58.1-609.13, 58.1-610, 58.1-629, 58.1-3510.1, and 58.1-3818, as it is currently effective and as it may become effective, of the Code of Virginia, and to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 58.1-622.1, relating to refund of sales and use tax paid by certain educational, medical-related, nonprofit civic and community service, nonprofit cultural, and miscellaneous organizations.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 15.2-1104.1, 30-19.05, 30-19.1:3, 58.1-601, 58.1-608.2, 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9, 58.1-609.10, 58.1-609.13, 58.1-610, 58.1-629, 58.1-3510.1, and 58.1-3818, as it is currently effective and as it may become effective, of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted, and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 58.1-622.1 as follows:

§ 15.2-1104.1. Tax on admissions to charitable events.

A municipal corporation that generally levies an admissions tax may, by ordinance, elect not to levy an admissions tax on admission to an event, provided that the purpose of the event is solely to raise money for charitable purposes and that the net proceeds derived from the event will be transferred to an entity or entities that are exempt from sales and use tax, or eligible for a refund of retail sales and use tax, pursuant to §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9, and 58.1-609.10.

§ 30-19.05. Legislative consideration of certain exemptions from the retail sales and use tax.

A. When any bill establishing or expanding an exemption or exclusion from the retail sales and use tax under the categories of educational (§ 58.1-609.4), medical-related (§ 58.1-609.7), civic and community service (§ 58.1-609.8), cultural (§ 58.1-609.9), and miscellaneous (§ 58.1-609.10) is referred to a committee of the General Assembly, the chairman of the committee shall require, prior to consideration by the committee of the bill, a determination in writing by the Department of Taxation that the information required by this section has been provided and, if applicable, that the Department has determined that the requirements of subsection C have been satisfied. The Department of Taxation shall issue a preliminary determination, by January 5 prior to the session of the General Assembly in which such bill may to be considered, of such matters. If such information is incomplete, the Department shall explain the nature of the deficiencies. A copy of the preliminary determination shall be provided to the Division of Legislative Services as provided in subsection B of § 30-19.1:3.

B. A member of the General Assembly intending to patron a bill applicable to a nonprofit organization which establishes or expands an exemption or exclusion from the retail sales and use tax under the categories of educational (§ 58.1-609.4), medical-related (§ 58.1-609.7), civic and community service (§ 58.1-609.8), cultural (§ 58.1-609.9), and miscellaneous (§ 58.1-609.10) shall by the November 1 preceding the next regular session during which such bill may be considered, submit to the Department of Taxation the following information:

1. Estimate of state and local revenues which will be foregone as a direct result of the exemption;
2. Beneficiaries of the exemption;
3. Direct or indirect local, state or federal government assistance received by the person seeking exemption;
4. The extent to which the person, property, service or industry is exempt from the retail sales and use tax in other states;
5. Any external statutory, constitutional or judicial mandates in favor of the exemption;
6. Other state taxes to which the person, property, service or industry is subject;
7. Similar taxpayers who are not entitled to a retail sales and use tax exemption;
8. Other criteria, facts or circumstances which may be relevant to the request for exemption;
9. Exemption from federal income taxation under either § 501 (c) (3) or § 501 (c) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code, as evidenced by a ruling or other such documentation;
10. The purpose or purposes for which the entity is organized and operated, and the functions and services it exists to deliver, provided to Virginia citizens, along with an explanation of such services;
11. Proof that no more than forty percent of the organization's gross annual revenue, under generally accepted accounting principles, is spent on general administration, including salaries and fundraising;
12. The location of the organization's financial records available for public inspection and certification that such records are true, accurate, and complete. Salaries, including all benefits, of the 60 five most highly compensated employees shall be specifically disclosed. Organizations whose gross 61 annual revenue is $250,000 or greater shall be subject to an annual financial audit performed by an 62 independent certified public accountant. Such audit report or reports shall be attached to the 63 organization's application for tax exempt status;

64 13. Proof of compliance with Chapter 5 (§ 57-48 et seq.) of Title 57 from organizations subject to it;
65 and

66 14. A volunteer board of directors with names and addresses provided.

67 C. An organization for which the information described in subsection B is required to be submitted
68 shall not be eligible for exemption from the retail sales and use tax unless the Department of Taxation 69 has determined that:

70 1. The organization is exempt from federal income taxation under either § 501 (c) (3) or § 501 (c)
71 (4) of the Internal Revenue Code;

72 2. No more than forty percent of the organization's gross annual revenue, under generally accepted
73 accounting principles, is spent on general administration, including salaries and fundraising;

74 3. If applicable, the organization is in compliance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (§ 57-48 et seq.)
75 of Title 57; and

76 4. The requested exemption is applicable only to purchases by the organization of tangible personal 77 property; however, this provision shall not apply with respect to the extension or renewal of an existing 78 sales and use tax exemption.

79 The failure of such an organization to maintain compliance with the provisions of this subsection
80 shall constitute grounds for revocation by the Department of its exemption from the retail sales and use
81 tax pursuant to §§ 58.1-608.2 and 58.1-623.1. Under circumstances evidencing a willful disregard or 82 misuse of such tax exempt status, the Tax Commissioner may revoke an organization's exemption back
83 to the date of noncompliance, subject to the applicable statute of limitations. No such retroactive
84 revocation shall be implemented unless the Tax Commissioner has first utilized the procedure prescribed
85 in subsection A of § 58.1-623.1.

86 D. By July 1, 2000, any nonprofit organization, other than a nonprofit church, that has qualified for a
87 sales and use tax exemption under §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9 or § 58.1-609.10,
88 shall submit to the Department of Taxation the information set forth in subsections B and C, for 89 consideration of the extension of such exemption during the 2001 Session of the General Assembly.
90 Such organizations shall thereafter update such information in accordance with the following schedule:
91 (i) organizations exempt under § 58.1-609.4 shall submit updated information by July 1, 2001, for
92 consideration of the extension of such exemption during the 2002 Session of the General Assembly; (ii)
93 organizations exempt under § 58.1-609.7 shall submit updated information by July 1, 2002, for
94 consideration of the extension of such exemption during the 2003 Session of the General Assembly; (iii)
95 the first half of organizations exempt under § 58.1-609.8, as determined by the Department, shall submit 96 updated information by July 1, 2003, for consideration of the extension of such exemption during the 97 2004 Session of the General Assembly; (iv) the second half of organizations exempt under § 58.1-609.8,
98 as determined by the Department, shall submit updated information by July 1, 2004, for consideration of 99 the extension of such exemption during the 2005 Session of the General Assembly; and (v)
100 organizations exempt under §§ 58.1-609.9 and 58.1-609.10 shall submit updated information by July 1,
101 2005, for consideration of the extension of such exemption during the 2006 Session of the General
102 Assembly. Each organization shall submit updated information every five years after this initial update.
103 Failure to make a complete and timely submission of the required information shall constitute grounds
104 for revocation by the Department of the organization's exemption from the retail sales and use tax.

105 E. Any nonprofit organization, other than a nonprofit church, that has qualified for a sales and use 106 tax exemption under §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9 or § 58.1-609.10, and which has 107 been determined by the Department of Taxation to have provided the information required by subsection
108 B and, if applicable, to have satisfied the requirements of subsection C, shall be issued a numbered 109 exemption certificate or certificate of registration pursuant to § 58.1-623. The exemption certificate or 110 certificate of registration shall expire upon the scheduled expiration of the subdivision of the section
111 under which the organization has qualified for the exemption, and a new certificate thereafter shall be 112 issued to each organization which submits the required updated information and has been determined to 113 have met the requirements of this section.

114 F. For purposes of this section, the Department of Taxation and the Department of Agriculture and 115 Consumer Services shall be allowed to share information when necessary to supplement the information 116 required.

117 G. The provisions of this section, except for the issuance of a numbered exemption certificate, shall 118 also apply to any organization eligible for a refund of retail sales and use tax pursuant to 119 §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9, and 58.1-609.10.

120 § 30-19.1:3. Limiting time for introduction and consideration of retail sales and use tax exemption
121 bills.

A. Any bill establishing or expanding an exemption or exclusion from the retail sales and use tax, or eligibility for a refund of retail sales and use tax, pursuant to Chapter 6 (§ 58.1-600 et seq.) of Title 58.1 shall be introduced for consideration by the General Assembly no later than the first calendar day of any regular session of the General Assembly.

B. No bill described in subsection A of this section shall be drafted or otherwise prepared by the Division of Legislative Services until the Division has received the Department of Taxation's preliminary determination as provided by subsection A of § 30-19.05.

C. The provisions of this section shall not apply with respect to any bill delaying the effective date of any retail sales and use tax exemption or the effective date of eligibility for a refund of retail sales and use tax.

§ 58.1-601. Administration of chapter.

A. The Tax Commissioner shall administer and enforce the assessment and collection of the taxes and penalties imposed by this chapter.

B. For purposes of evaluating the fiscal, economic and policy impact of sales and use tax exemptions, the Tax Commissioner may require from any person information relating to the evaluation of exempt purchases or sales, information relating to the qualification for exempt purchases, and information relating to direct or indirect government financial assistance which the person receives. Such information shall be filed on forms prescribed by the Tax Commissioner.

C. The provisions of subsection B shall also apply to entities eligible for a refund of sales and use tax as provided in this chapter. The request for information from such entities may include information relating to the evaluation of refunds of such tax paid to such entities and information relating to an entity's eligibility for a refund of such tax.

§ 58.1-608.2. Additional requirements applicable to certain of the nonprofit exemptions.

A. On and after July 1, 1994, in addition to the requirements set forth in §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9, and 58.1-609.10, any nonprofit organization that has qualified for a sales and use tax exemption, or is eligible for a refund of sales and use tax, under any of such sections and is required to submit to the Department of Taxation the information required by subsection C of § 30-19.05 shall also remain in compliance with the provisions of subsection D of § 30-19.05, and the failure to do so shall constitute grounds for the revocation of exempt status.

B. Organizations which seek exempt status with the Department of Taxation after an exemption category or classification under §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9 or § 58.1-609.10 has been enacted shall qualify for exempt status if the Department of Taxation issues, in addition to an exemption certificate or certificate of registration as provided in subsection F of § 30-19.05, a determination letter which states that such organization satisfies the requirements of subsections B, C, and D of § 30-19.05. In addition, organizations that seek a refund of sales and use tax from the Department of Taxation pursuant to §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9, or 58.1-609.10 shall be eligible for a refund of sales and use tax if the Department of Taxation issues a determination letter that states that such organization satisfies the requirements of subsections B, C, and D of § 30-19.05. No further action by the General Assembly shall be required until such time as the exemption or refund category or classification may be the subject of a bill seeking renewal, extension, or further amendment.

§ 58.1-609.4. Educational exemptions.

A. The tax imposed by this chapter or pursuant to the authority granted in §§ 58.1-605 and 58.1-606 shall not apply to the following:

1. School lunches sold and served to pupils and employees of schools and subsidized by government; school textbooks sold by a local board or authorized agency thereof; and school textbooks sold for use by students attending a nonprofit college or other institution of learning, when sold (i) by such institution of learning or (ii) by any other dealer, when such textbooks have been certified by a department or instructor of such institution of learning as required textbooks for students attending courses at such institution.

2. (i) Tangible personal property for use or consumption by a college or other institution of learning, including food purchased for free distribution at the facilities of the college or other institution of learning, and (ii) tangible personal property for use or consumption by, sold by, or donated to a noncommercial educational telecommunications entity, said exemption to apply to each transaction in the chain of commerce from manufacture to final disposition, provided that such college, institution of learning, or telecommunications entity is nonprofit.

3. ~~Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased by an organization exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and organized exclusively for the purpose of providing education, training and services to retarded citizens of the Commonwealth, provided that such property is used exclusively for the purpose set forth herein and that such organization receives more than fifty percent of its total funding from federal, state, or local governments.~~

4. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property and services purchased by an educational institution doing business in the Commonwealth which (i) admits regularly enrolled high school and college students and (ii) provides a face-to-face educational experience in American government, a program which leads towards the successful completion of United States history, civics, and problems in democracy courses in high school, or which is acceptable for full credit towards an undergraduate or graduate level college degree, provided such institution is nonprofit.

53. Through Ending June 30, 2001, books and other reading materials for use by nonprofit organizations organized solely to distribute such books and reading materials to school-age children.

6. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use by a nonprofit, nonstock corporation which receives no financial aid from the Commonwealth or the federal government and is organized exclusively for the purpose of operating, at no charge to the pupils, a combination boarding and day school for the severely physically handicapped children and young adults of the Commonwealth.

7. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property sold or leased to a foundation which exclusively provides either training and education of any type or duration for employees of governmental law-enforcement and corrections agencies or education of the public in citizen cooperation with public authorities in crime prevention and solution, provided such foundation is nonprofit.

84. Through Ending June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use, consumption, or sale at retail by a nonprofit elementary or secondary school, or Parent Teacher Association or other group associated with a nonprofit elementary or secondary school for use in fund-raising activities, the net proceeds (gross receipts less direct expenses) of which are contributed directly to the school or used to purchase certified school equipment, and certified school equipment purchased by such groups for contribution directly to the school. For the purposes of this subdivision, "certified school equipment" means equipment for which the Parent Teacher Association or other group has received certification from the school that it will accept as a donation of equipment. The certification provided by the school shall be in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Tax Commissioner. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this subdivision, the tax shall not apply to the sale of class rings, school photographs, and other fund-raising programs from which a nonprofit elementary or secondary school receives a commission or the net proceeds after the payment of vendors and other direct expenses.

B. The following subdivisions provide a limited exemption from the tax imposed by this chapter or pursuant to the authority granted in §§ 58.1-605 and 58.1-606. Such tax shall apply to sales for use or sales for consumption or sales of taxable services, made to the entities described in the following subdivisions on the earlier of the day following the expiration date applicable to the entity or January 1, 2002. Such entities in the following subdivisions with an expiration date after June 30, 2001, may apply for a refund of the tax paid on such sales made on and after January 1, 2002, through the expiration date applicable to such entity. Refunds may be paid as provided in § 58.1-622.1. Nothing in this subsection shall grant an exemption from, or expand an existing exemption of, such tax that is not otherwise specifically provided in the applicable subdivision.

1. Ending June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased by an organization exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and organized exclusively for the purpose of providing education, training and services to retarded citizens of the Commonwealth, provided that such property is used exclusively for the purpose set forth herein and that such organization receives more than fifty percent of its total funding from federal, state, or local governments.

2. Ending July 1, 2002, tangible personal property and services purchased by an educational institution doing business in the Commonwealth which (i) admits regularly enrolled high school and college students and (ii) provides a face-to-face educational experience in American government, a program which leads towards the successful completion of United States history, civics, and problems in democracy courses in high school, or which is acceptable for full credit towards an undergraduate or graduate level college degree, provided such institution is nonprofit.

3. Ending June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use by a nonprofit, nonstock corporation which receives no financial aid from the Commonwealth or the federal government and is organized exclusively for the purpose of operating, at no charge to the pupils, a combination boarding and day school for the severely physically handicapped children and young adults of the Commonwealth.

4. Ending July 1, 2002, tangible personal property sold or leased to a foundation which exclusively provides either training and education of any type or duration for employees of governmental law-enforcement and corrections agencies or education of the public in citizen cooperation with public authorities in crime prevention and solution, provided such foundation is nonprofit.

95. a. From July 1, 1989, through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use or consumption by an organization exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and organized primarily for the purpose of operating a state-licensed day-care center or a preschool that hires only certified public school teachers and which has a regularly prescribed curriculum.

§ 58.1-609.13. Exceptions to § 58.1-609.10.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision A. 1. of § 58.1-609.10, the tax imposed by a county, city or town pursuant to §§ 58.1-605 and 58.1-606 shall apply to artificial or propane gas, firewood, coal or home heating oil used for domestic consumption as defined in subdivision A. 1. of § 58.1-609.10, unless exempted by a duly adopted ordinance of the local governing body of a county, city or town. The provisions of this section shall not apply to fuel for domestic consumption purchased by churches organized not for profit and (i) which are exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) whose real property is exempt from local taxation pursuant to the provisions of § 58.1-3606.

§ 58.1-610. Contractors.

A. Any person who contracts orally, in writing, or by purchase order, to perform construction, reconstruction, installation, repair, or any other service with respect to real estate or fixtures thereon, and in connection therewith to furnish tangible personal property, shall be deemed to have purchased such tangible personal property for use or consumption. Any sale, distribution, or lease to or storage for such person shall be deemed a sale, distribution, or lease to or storage for the ultimate consumer and not for resale, and the dealer making the sale, distribution, or lease to or storage for such person shall be obligated to collect the tax to the extent required by this chapter.

B. Any person who contracts to perform services in this Commonwealth and is furnished tangible personal property for use under the contract by the person, or his agent or representative, for whom the contract is performed, and a sales or use tax has not been paid to this Commonwealth by the person supplying the tangible personal property, shall be deemed to be the consumer of the tangible personal property so used, and shall pay a use tax based on the fair market value of the tangible personal property so used, irrespective of whether or not any right, title or interest in the tangible personal property becomes vested in the contractor. This subsection, however, shall not apply to the industrial materials exclusion or the other industrial exclusions set out in § 58.1-609.3, including those set out in subdivisions 2, 3 and 4 thereof; the media-related exemptions set out in subdivision 2 of § 58.1-609.6; the governmental exclusions set out in subdivision 4 of § 58.1-609.1; the agricultural exclusions set forth in subdivision 1 of § 58.1-609.2; or the exclusion for baptistries set forth in subdivision A. 2. of § 58.1-609.8.

2520 C. Any person who contracts orally, in writing, or by purchase order to perform any service in the 2521 nature of equipment rental, and the principal part of that service is the furnishing of equipment or 2522 machinery which will not be under the exclusive control of the contractor, shall be liable for the sales or 2523 use tax on the gross proceeds from such contract to the same extent as the lessor of tangible personal 2524 property.

2525 D. Tangible personal property incorporated in real property construction which loses its identity as 2526 tangible personal property shall be deemed to be tangible personal property used or consumed within the 2527 meaning of this section. Any person selling fences, venetian blinds, window shades, awnings, storm 2528 windows and doors, locks and locking devices, floor coverings (as distinguished from the floors 2529 themselves), cabinets, kitchen equipment, window air conditioning units or other like or comparable 2530 items, shall be deemed to be a retailer of such items and not a using or consuming contractor with 2531 respect to them, whether he sells to and installs such items for contractors or other customers and 2532 whether or not such retailer fabricates such items.

2533 E. Nothing in this section shall be construed to (i) affect or limit the resale exclusion provided for in 2534 this chapter, or the industrial materials and other industrial exclusions set out in § 58.1-609.3, the 2535 exclusion for baptistries set out in subdivision A. 2. of § 58.1-609.8, or the partial exclusion for the sale
2536 of modular buildings as set out in § 58.1-610.1, or (ii) impose any sales or use tax with respect to the 2537 use in the performance of contracts with the United States, this Commonwealth, or any political 2538 subdivision thereof, of tangible personal property owned by a governmental body which actually is not 2539 used or consumed in the performance thereof.

2540 F. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, any person engaged in the business of 2541 furnishing and installing locks and locking devices shall be deemed a retailer of such items and not a 2542 using or consuming contractor with respect to them.

2543 § 58.1-622.1. Refund of certain sales and use taxes.

2544 An entity with a limited exemption eligible for a refund of tax on certain sales, as provided in 2545 subsection B of §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9, or 58.1-609.10, may apply for such 2546 refund on forms prescribed by the Tax Commissioner within three years from the last day of the 2547 calendar year in which the sale is made. If the amount that may be refunded to an entity as provided in 2548 this section is at least five thousand dollars, such entity (i) may apply for such refund on or after April
2549 1 of the current calendar year and (ii) may also apply for a refund on or after April 1 of the current 2550 calendar year for any other sales made to the entity during the current calendar year for which the 2551 entity is eligible for a refund; in all other cases, such entity may apply for a refund as provided in this 2552 section in the calendar year following the calendar year in which such sale is made to the entity. An 2553 amount equal to ninety-seven percent of the tax paid on such sales shall be refunded, provided that such 2554 entity has furnished all necessary and reasonable information on such sales as requested by the 2555 Department. Such amount shall be issued by warrant of the Comptroller drawn on the Treasurer of 2556 Virginia not later than ninety days after such completed form has been filed with the Department. Such 2557 amount refunded shall not include interest.

2558 The amount of such refund attributable to the tax authorized under §§ 58.1-605 or 58.1-606 shall be
2559 deducted from the respective locality's share of the net revenue distributable pursuant to subsection C
2560 § 58.1-638. Such deduction from a locality's share of the net revenue distributable shall occur in the 2561 month following the month in which such refund has been issued.

2562 § 58.1-629. Sale of business.

2563 If any dealer liable for any tax, penalty, or interest levied hereunder sells out his business or stock of 2564 goods or quits the business, he shall make a final return and payment within fifteen days after the date
2565 of selling or quitting the business. His successors or assigns, if any, shall withhold sufficient of the 2566 purchase money to cover the amount of such taxes, penalties, and interest due and unpaid until such 2567 former owner produces a receipt from the Tax Commissioner showing that they have been paid or a
2568 certificate stating that no taxes, penalties, or interest is due. If the purchaser of a business or stock of 2569 goods fails to withhold the purchase money as above provided, he shall be personally liable for the 2570 payment of the taxes, penalties, and interest due and unpaid on account of the operation of the business
2571 by any former owner. Nothing herein shall be deemed to qualify or limit the exemption as to such a 2572 sale as is covered by subdivision A. 2. of § 58.1-609.10.

2573 § 58.1-3510.1. Daily rental property tax.

2574 A. The governing body of any county, city or town may levy a tax in an amount not to exceed one
2575 percent, in addition to the tax levied pursuant to § 58.1-605, on the gross proceeds of any person
2576 engaged in the short-term rental business as defined in § 58.1-3510. "Gross proceeds" means the total
2577 amount charged to each person for the rental of daily rental property, excluding any state and local sales
2578 tax paid under the provisions of Chapter 6 (§ 58.1-600 et seq.) of this title.

2579 B. Any person engaged in the short-term rental business as defined in § 58.1-3510 shall collect the 2580 rental tax from the lessee of the daily rental property at the time of the rental. The lessor of the daily 2581 rental property shall transmit a quarterly return to the commissioner of the revenue of the county, city or town wherein the tax is collected, indicating the gross proceeds derived from the short-term rental business. The commissioner of the revenue shall assess the tax due, and the treasurer or director of finance shall collect the daily rental property tax.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection B of this section, no tax shall be collected or assessed on (i) rentals by the Commonwealth, any political subdivision of the Commonwealth or the United States or (ii) any rental of durable medical equipment as defined in subdivision A. 2. of § 58.1-609.7.

§ 58.1-3818. Admissions tax in certain counties.

A. Fairfax, Arlington, Dinwiddie, Prince George and Brunswick Counties are hereby authorized to levy a tax on admissions charged for attendance at any event. The tax shall not exceed ten percent of the amount of charge for admission to any such event. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the governing bodies of such counties shall prescribe by ordinance the terms, conditions and amount of such tax and may classify between events conducted for charitable and those conducted for noncharitable purposes.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection A of this section, any county with a population of at least 27,500 but not more than 28,250 is hereby authorized to levy a tax on admissions charged for attendance at any event as set forth in subsection A.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection A of this section, any county with a population of at least 12,450 but not more than 12,850 is hereby authorized to levy a tax on admissions charged for attendance at any spectator event; however, a tax shall not be levied on admissions charged to participants in order to participate in any event. The tax shall not exceed ten percent of the amount of charge for admission to any event. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the governing body of such county shall prescribe by ordinance the terms, conditions and amount of such tax and may classify between the events as set forth in § 58.1-3817.

D. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections A, B and C of this section, any county in which a major league baseball stadium, as defined in § 15.2-5800, is located is hereby authorized to levy (i) a tax on admissions charged at any event at such stadium and (ii) a surcharge on admissions charged for attendance at any event at such stadium if it has a seating capacity of at least 40,000 seats. The tax on admissions shall not exceed ten percent. Such surcharge shall not exceed two percent of the charge for admissions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the governing bodies of such counties shall prescribe by ordinance the terms, conditions and amounts of such tax and surcharge and may classify between events conducted for charitable and those conducted for noncharitable purposes.

E. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections A, B, C and D of this section, localities may, by ordinance, elect not to levy an admissions tax on admission to an event, provided that the purpose of the event is solely to raise money for charitable purposes and that the net proceeds derived from the event will be transferred to an entity or entities that are exempt from or eligible for a refund of retail sales and use tax pursuant to §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9, and 58.1-609.10.
