6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 10.1-530 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 10.1-530. Designation of chairman; terms of office; filling vacancies.

9 A. The district directors shall designate a chairman; from the elected members, or from the 10 Board-appointed members, of the district board and may change such designation.11 B. The term of office of each district director shall be three years, except that the appointment of the 12 first directors shall be for terms of office to provide for one appointment to be made in each year in 13 which there is no election for directors within the district. A district director shall hold office until his 14 successor has been elected or appointed and has qualified. The selection of successors to fill a full term 15 shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this article.16 C. A vacancy shall exist in the event of the death, resignation or removal of residence from the 17 district of any director or the elimination or detachment from the district of the territory in which a 18 director resides, or by the removal of a director from office by the Board. Any vacancy shall be filled 19 by an appointment made by the Board for the unexpired term. The Board may fill vacancies in elective 20 district directors' positions by appointment for the unexpired term. In the event of the creation of a new 21 district, the transfer of territory from an existing district to an existing district, or the addition of 22 territory not previously within an existing district to an existing district, the Board may appoint directors 23 to fill the vacancies of elected directors prescribed by § 10.1-515 in the newly created district or in the 24 territory added to an existing district. Such appointed directors shall serve in office until the elected 25 directors prescribed by § 10.1-515 take office after the next general election at which directors for the 26 entire district are selected.
