SENATE BILL NO. 1221

Offered January 10, 2001

Prefiled January 10, 2001

A BILL to amend and reenact § 17.03 as amended and §§ 17.05 and 17.09 of Chapter 323 of the Acts of Assembly of 1950, which provided a charter for the City of Falls Church, relating to duties of the planning commission.

Patron—Whipple

Referred to Committee on Local Government

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 17.03 as amended and §§ 17.05 and 17.09 of Chapter 323 of the Acts of Assembly of 1950 are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 17.03. City planning commission - Officers; meetings; records; employees; expenditures.

The commission shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from among the citizen members appointed by the council for a term of one year, who shall be eligible for reelection, and appoint a secretary. The commission shall hold at least one regular meeting each month, and shall adopt rules for the transaction of its business. The commission shall keep a record of its resolutions, transactions, findings and determinations showing the vote of each member on each question or, if absent, or failing to vote, indicating such fact which record shall be filed in the office of the commission and shall be a public record. The commission shall appoint such employees as it may deem necessary for its work and may contract with city planners, engineers, architects and other consultants for services it may require. All expenditures, exclusive of gifts to the commission, shall not exceed the sums appropriated by the council therefor.

§ 17.05. City planning commission - Monuments and other works of art.

It shall be the further duty and function of the commission to make recommendations to the city council to provide for the preservation of historical landmarks; and to control, the design and location of statuary and other works of art which are or may become the property of the city; and the removal, relocation and alteration of any such work; and to consider and suggest the design of bridges, viaducts, airports, stadia, arenas, and swimming pools, street fixtures and other public structures and appurtenances.

§ 17.09. City planning commission - Further planning powers and duties.

The commission shall have power to promote public interest in and understanding of the plan, and to that end may publish and distribute copies of the plan or any report relating thereto, and may employ such other means of publicity and education as it may determine. The commission shall consult and advise with public officials and agencies, public utility companies, civic, educational, professional or other organizations, and with citizens, with relation to the protection or carrying out of the plan. All public officials shall, upon request, furnish to the commission within a reasonable time, such available information as it may require for its work. The commission, its members, officers and employees in the performance of their duties, may enter upon any land in the city and make examinations and surveys, and place and maintain necessary monuments and markers thereon. In general, the commission shall have such powers as may be necessary to enable it to fulfill its function, promote planning and carry out the purposes of this charter. The commission shall make an annual report to the council concerning its activities.
