64 emergency medical care for a child.

65 § 20-146.3. Application to Indian tribes.

66 A. A child custody proceeding that pertains to an Indian child as defined in the Indian Child Welfare
67 Act, 25 U.S.C. § 1901 et seq., is not subject to this Act to the extent that it is governed by the Indian 68 Child Welfare Act.

69 B. A court of this Commonwealth shall treat a tribe as if it were a state of the United States for the 70 purpose of applying this article and Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.).

71 C. A child custody determination made by a tribe under factual circumstances in substantial
72 conformity with the jurisdictional standards of this Act must be recognized and enforced under Article 3 73 (§ 20-146.22 et seq.).

74 § 20-146.4. International application.

75 A. A court of this Commonwealth shall treat a foreign country as if it were a state of the United 76 States for purposes of applying this article and Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.).

77 B. Except as otherwise provided in subsection C, a child custody determination made in a foreign 78 country under factual circumstances in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standards of this 79 Act must be recognized and enforced under Article 3 (§ 20-146.22 et seq.).

80 C. A court of this Commonwealth need not apply this Act if the child custody law of a foreign 81 country violates fundamental principles of human rights.

82 § 20-146.5. Effect of child custody determination.

83 A child custody determination made by a court of this Commonwealth that had jurisdiction under 84 this Act binds all persons who have been served in accordance with the laws of this Commonwealth or 85 notified in accordance with § 20-146.7 or who have submitted to the jurisdiction of the court, and who 86 have been given an opportunity to be heard. As to those persons, the determination is conclusive as to 87 all decided issues of law and fact except to the extent the determination is modified by a court properly 88 having jurisdiction.

89 § 20-146.6. Priority.

90 If a question of existence or exercise of jurisdiction under this Act is raised in a child custody
91 proceeding, the question, upon request of a party, must be given priority on the calendar and handled 92 expeditiously.

93 § 20-146.7. Notice to persons outside state.

94 A. Notice required for the exercise of jurisdiction when a person is outside this Commonwealth may 95 be given in a manner prescribed by the law of this Commonwealth for service of process or by the law
96 of the state in which the service is made. Notice may also be by certified or registered mail, return
97 receipt requested, addressed to the person to be served. Notice must be given in a manner reasonably 98 calculated to give actual notice but may be by publication if other means are not effective.

99 B. Proof of service may be made in the manner prescribed by the law of this Commonwealth or by 100 the law of the state in which the service is made.

101 C. Notice is not required for the exercise of jurisdiction with respect to a person who submits to the 102 jurisdiction of the court.

103 § 20-146.8. Appearance and limited immunity.

104 A. A party to a child custody proceeding, including a modification proceeding, or a petitioner or 105 respondent in a proceeding to enforce or register a child custody determination is not subject to 106 personal jurisdiction in this Commonwealth for another proceeding or purpose solely by reason of 107 having participated, or having been physically present for the purpose of participating, in the 108 proceeding.

109 B. A person who is subject to personal jurisdiction in this Commonwealth on a basis other than 110 physical presence is not immune from service of process in this Commonwealth. A party present in this 111 Commonwealth who is subject to the jurisdiction of another state is not immune from service of process
112 allowable under the laws of that state.

113 C. The immunity granted by subsection A does not extend to civil litigation based on acts unrelated
114 to the participation in a proceeding under this Act committed by an individual while present in this 115 Commonwealth.

116 § 20-146.9. Communication between courts.

117 A. Before finding and exercising jurisdiction, a court of this Commonwealth shall communicate with 118 the court appearing to have jurisdiction in any other state concerning a proceeding arising under this 119 Act.

120 B. The court may allow the parties to participate in the communication. If the parties are not able to

121 participate in the communication, they must be given the opportunity to present facts and legal 122 arguments before a decision on jurisdiction is made.

123 C. Communication between courts on schedules, calendars, court records, and similar matters may 124 occur without informing the parties. A record need not be made of the communication.

125 D. Except as otherwise provided in subsection C, a record must be made of a communication under 126 this section. The parties must be informed promptly of the communication and granted access to the 127 record.

128 E. For the purposes of this section, "record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible 129 medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

130 § 20-146.10. Taking testimony in another state.

131 A. In addition to other procedures available to a party, a party to a child custody proceeding may 132 offer testimony of witnesses who are located in another state, including testimony of the parties and the 133 child, by deposition or other means allowable in this Commonwealth for testimony taken in another
134 state. The court on its own motion may order that the testimony of a person be taken in another state 135 and may prescribe the manner in which and the terms upon which the testimony is taken.

136 B. A court of this Commonwealth may permit an individual residing in another state to be deposed 137 or to testify by telephone, audiovisual means, or other electronic means before a designated court or at 138 another location in that state. A court of this Commonwealth shall cooperate with courts of other states 139 in designating an appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

140 C. Documentary evidence transmitted from another state to a court of this Commonwealth by 141 technological means that do not produce an original writing may not be excluded from evidence on an 142 objection based on the means of transmission.

143 § 20-146.11. Cooperation between courts; preservation of records.

144 A. A court of this Commonwealth may request the appropriate court of another state to:

- 145 1. Hold an evidentiary hearing;
- 146 2. Order a person to produce or give evidence pursuant to procedures of that state;
- 147 3. Order that an evaluation be made with respect to the custody of a child involved in a pending
148 proceeding;
- 149 4. Forward to the court of this Commonwealth a certified copy of the transcript of the record of the 150 hearing, the evidence otherwise presented, and any evaluation prepared in compliance with the request;
151 and

152 5. Order a party to a child custody proceeding or any person having physical custody of the child to 153 appear in the proceeding with or without the child.

154 B. Upon request of a court of another state, a court of this Commonwealth may hold a hearing or 155 enter an order described in subsection A.

156 C. Travel and other necessary and reasonable expenses incurred under subsections A and B may be 157 assessed against the parties according to the law of this Commonwealth .

158 D. A court of this Commonwealth shall preserve the pleadings, orders, decrees, records of hearings,
159 evaluations, and other pertinent records with respect to a child custody proceeding until the child 160 attains eighteen years of age. Upon appropriate request by a court or law-enforcement official of 161 another state, the court shall forward a certified copy of those records.

162 Article 2.
163 Jurisdiction.

164 § 20-146.12. Initial child custody jurisdiction.

165 A. Except as otherwise provided in § 20-146.15, a court of this Commonwealth has jurisdiction to 166 make an initial child custody determination only if:

167 1. This Commonwealth is the home state of the child on the date of the commencement of the 168 proceeding, or was the home state of the child within six months before the commencement of the 169 proceeding and the child is absent from this Commonwealth but a parent or person acting as a parent
170 continues to live in this Commonwealth;

171 2. A court of another state does not have jurisdiction under subdivision 1, or a court of the home
172 state of the child has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that this Commonwealth is the 173 more appropriate forum under § 20-146.18 or § 20-146.19, and (i) the child and the child's parents, or 174 the child and at least one parent or a person acting as a parent, have a significant connection with this 175 Commonwealth other than mere physical presence and (ii) substantial evidence is available in this 176 Commonwealth concerning the child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships;

177 3. All courts having jurisdiction under subdivision 1 or 2 have declined to exercise jurisdiction on 178 the ground that a court of this Commonwealth is the more appropriate forum to determine the custody 179 of the child under § 20-146.18 or § 20-146.19; or

180 4. No court of any other state would have jurisdiction under the criteria specified in subdivision 1, 2, 181 or 3.

182 B. Subsection A is the exclusive jurisdictional basis for making a child custody determination by a 183 court of this Commonwealth.

184 C. Physical presence of, or personal jurisdiction over, a party or a child is not necessary or 185 sufficient to make a child custody determination.

186 § 20-146.13. Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction.

187 A. Except as otherwise provided in § 20-146.15, a court of this Commonwealth that has made a child
188 custody determination consistent with § 20-146.12 or § 20-146.14 has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction
189 as long as the child, the child's parents, or any person acting as a parent continue to live in this
190 Commonwealth.

191 B. A court of this Commonwealth which has made a child custody determination and does not have 192 exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under this section may modify that determination only if it has 193 jurisdiction to make an initial determination under § 20-146.12.

194 § 20-146.14. Jurisdiction to modify determination.

195 Except as otherwise provided in § 20-146.15, a court of this Commonwealth may not modify a child
196 custody determination made by a court of another state unless a court of this Commonwealth has 197 jurisdiction to make an initial determination under subdivision A1 or A2 of § 20-146.12 and:

198 1. The court of the other state determines it no longer has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under 199 § 20-146.13 or that a court of this Commonwealth would be a more convenient forum under 200 § 20-146.18; or

201 2. A court of this Commonwealth or a court of the other state determines that the child, the child's 202 parents, and any person acting as a parent do not presently reside in the other state.

203 § 20-146.15. Temporary emergency jurisdiction.

204 A. A court of this Commonwealth has temporary emergency jurisdiction if the child is present in this 205 Commonwealth and the child has been abandoned or it is necessary in an emergency to protect the 206 child because the child, or a sibling or parent of the child, is subjected to or threatened with 207 mistreatment or abuse.

208 B. If there is no previous child custody determination that is entitled to be enforced under this Act 209 and a child custody proceeding has not been commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under 210 §§ 20-146.12, 20-146.13 or § 20-146.14, a child custody determination made under this section remains
211 in effect until an order is obtained from a court of a state having jurisdiction under §§ 20-146.12,
212 20-146.13 or § 20-146.14. If a child custody proceeding has not been or is not commenced in a court of 213 a state having jurisdiction under §§ 20-146.12, 20-146.13 or § 20-146.14, a child custody determination
214 made under this section becomes a final determination, if it so provides and this Commonwealth
215 becomes the home state of the child.

216 C. If there is a previous child custody determination that is entitled to be enforced under this Act, or 217 a child custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a State having jurisdiction under 218 §§ 20-146.12, 20-146.13 or § 20-146.14, any order issued by a court of this Commonwealth under this 219 section must specify in the order a period that the court considers adequate to allow the person seeking 220 an order to obtain an order from the state having jurisdiction . The order issued in this Commonwealth
221 remains in effect until an order is obtained from the other state within the period specified or the period 222 expires.

223 D. A court of this Commonwealth which has been asked to make a child custody determination under 224 this section, upon being informed that a child custody proceeding has been commenced in, or a child
225 custody determination has been made by, a court of a state having jurisdiction under §§ 20-146.12,
226 20-146.13 or § 20-146.14, shall immediately communicate with the other court. A court of this 227 Commonwealth which is exercising jurisdiction pursuant to §§ 20-146.12, 20-146.13 or § 20-146.14,
228 upon being informed that a child custody proceeding has been commenced in, or a child custody
229 determination has been made by, a court of another state under a statute similar to this section shall 230 immediately communicate with the court of that state to resolve the emergency, protect the safety of the 231 parties and the child, and determine a period for the duration of the temporary order.

232 § 20-146.16. Notice; opportunity to be heard; joinder.

233 A. Before a child's custody determination is made under this Act, notice and an opportunity to be 234 heard in accordance with the standards of § 20-146.7 must be given to all persons entitled to notice
235 under the laws of this Commonwealth as in child custody proceedings between residents of this
236 Commonwealth, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated, and any person 237 having physical custody of the child.

238 B. This Act does not govern the enforceability of a child custody determination made without notice
239 or an opportunity to be heard.

240 C. The obligation to join a party and the right to intervene as a party in a child custody proceeding
241 under this Act are governed by the law of this Commonwealth as in child custody proceedings between 242 residents of this Commonwealth.

243 § 20-146.17. Simultaneous proceedings.

244 A. Except as otherwise provided in § 20-146.15, a court of this Commonwealth may not exercise its 245 jurisdiction under this article if, at the time of the commencement of the proceeding, a proceeding
 246 concerning the custody of the child has been commenced in a court of another state having jurisdiction
 247 substantially in conformity with this Act, unless the proceeding has been terminated or is stayed by the 248 court of the other state because a court of this Commonwealth is a more convenient forum under 249 § 20-146.18.

250 B. Except as otherwise provided in § 20-146.15, a court of this Commonwealth, before hearing a 251 child custody proceeding, shall examine the court documents and other information supplied by the 252 parties pursuant to § 20-146.20. If the court determines that a child custody proceeding has been 253 commenced in a court in another state having jurisdiction substantially in accordance with this Act, the 254 court of this Commonwealth shall stay its proceeding and communicate with the court of the other state.
 255 If the court of the state having jurisdiction substantially in accordance with this Act does not determine 256 that the court of this Commonwealth is a more appropriate forum, the court of this Commonwealth shall 257 dismiss the proceeding.

258 C. In a proceeding to modify a child custody determination, a court of this Commonwealth shall 259 determine whether a proceeding to enforce the determination has been commenced in another state. If a 260 proceeding to enforce a child custody determination has been commenced in another state, the court 261 may:

262 1. Stay the proceeding for modification pending the entry of an order of a court of the other state 263 enforcing, staying, denying, or dismissing the proceeding for enforcement;

264 2. Enjoin the parties from continuing with the proceeding for enforcement; or 265 3. Proceed with the modification under conditions it considers appropriate.

266 § 20-146.18. Inconvenient forum.

267 A. A court of this Commonwealth which has jurisdiction under this Act to make a child custody 268 determination may decline to exercise its jurisdiction at any time if it determines that it is an 269 inconvenient forum under the circumstances and that a court of another state is a more appropriate
 270 forum. The issue of inconvenient forum may be raised upon the motion of a party, the court's own 271 motion, or request of another court.

272 B. Before determining whether it is an inconvenient forum, a court of this Commonwealth shall 273 consider whether it is appropriate for a court of another state to exercise jurisdiction. For this purpose, 274 the court shall allow the parties to present evidence and shall consider all relevant factors, including:

275 1. Whether domestic violence has occurred and is likely to continue in the future and which state 276 could best protect the parties and the child;

277 2. The length of time the child has resided outside this Commonwealth ;

278 3. The distance between the court in this Commonwealth and the court in the state that would 279 assume jurisdiction;

280 4. The relative financial circumstances of the parties;

281 5. Any agreement of the parties as to which state should assume jurisdiction;

282 6. The nature and location of the evidence required to resolve the pending litigation, including 283 testimony of the child;

284 7. The ability of the court of each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the procedures 285 necessary to present the evidence; and

286 8. The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the pending litigation.

287 C. If a court of this Commonwealth determines that it is an inconvenient forum and that a court of 288 another state is a more appropriate forum, it shall stay the proceedings upon condition that a child 289 custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another designated state and may impose any other 290 condition the court considers just and proper.

291 D. A court of this Commonwealth may decline to exercise its jurisdiction under this Act if a child 292 custody determination is incidental to an action for divorce or another proceeding while still retaining 293 jurisdiction over the divorce or other proceeding.

294 § 20-146.19. Jurisdiction declined by reason of conduct.

295 A. Except as otherwise provided in § 20-146.15 or by other law of this Commonwealth, if a court of 296 this Commonwealth has jurisdiction under this Act because a person seeking to invoke its jurisdiction 297 has engaged in unjustifiable conduct, the court shall decline to exercise its jurisdiction unless:

298 1. The parents and all persons acting as parents have acquiesced in the exercise of jurisdiction;

299 2. A court of the state otherwise having jurisdiction under §§ 20-146.12, 20-146.13 or § 20-146.14
 300 determines that this Commonwealth is a more appropriate forum under § 20-146.18; or

301 3. No court of any other state would have jurisdiction under the criteria specified in B. If a court of 302 this Commonwealth declines to exercise its jurisdiction pursuant to subsection A, it may fashion an 303 appropriate remedy to ensure the safety of the child and prevent a repetition of the unjustifiable
 304 conduct, including staying the proceeding until a child custody proceeding is commenced in a court

305 having jurisdiction under §§ 20-146.12, 20-146.13 or § 20-146.14.

306 C. If a court dismisses a petition or stays a proceeding because it declines to exercise its jurisdiction
 307 pursuant to subsection A, it shall assess against the party seeking to invoke its jurisdiction necessary
 308 and reasonable expenses including costs, communication expenses, attorney's fees, investigative fees, 309 expenses for witnesses, travel expenses, and child care during the course of the proceedings, unless the 310 party from whom fees are sought establishes that the assessment would be clearly inappropriate. The 311 court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against this Commonwealth unless authorized by law other
 312 than this Act.

313 § 20-146.20. Information to be submitted to court.

314 A. Subject to any other law providing for the confidentiality of procedures, addresses, and other 315 identifying information, in a child custody proceeding, each party, in its first pleading or in an attached
 316 affidavit, shall give information, if reasonably ascertainable, under oath as to the child's present address
 317 or whereabouts, the places where the child has lived during the past five years, and the names and 318 present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during that period. The pleading or 319 affidavit must state whether the party:

320 1. Has participated, as a party or witness or in any other capacity, in any other proceeding
 321 concerning the custody of or visitation with the child and, if so, identify the court, the case number, and 322 the date of the child custody determination, if any;

323 2. Knows of any proceeding that could affect the current proceeding, including proceedings for 324 enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental 325 rights, and adoptions, and, if so, identify the court, the case number, and the nature of the proceeding;
 326 and

327 3. Knows the names and addresses of any person not a party to the proceeding who has physical 328 custody of the child or claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, or visitation with, the child 329 and, if so, the names and addresses of those persons.

330 B. If the information required by subsection A is not furnished, the court, upon motion of a party or 331 its own motion, may stay the proceeding until the information is furnished.

332 C. If the declaration as to any of the items described in subdivisions A 1, A 2 and A 3 is in the 333 affirmative, the declarant shall give additional information under oath as required by the court. The 334 court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished and other matters
 335 pertinent to the court's jurisdiction and the disposition of the case.

336 D. Each party has a continuing duty to inform the court of any proceeding in this or any other state 337 that could affect the current proceeding.

338 E. If a party alleges in an affidavit or a pleading under oath that the health, safety, or liberty of a 339 party or child would be jeopardized by disclosure of identifying information, the information shall be
 340 sealed and may not be disclosed to the other party or the public unless the court orders the disclosure 341 to be made after a hearing in which the court takes into consideration the health, safety, or liberty of 342 the party or child and determines that the disclosure is in the interest of justice. Such hearing and 343 determination of the issue of disclosure shall be held by the court within fifteen days of the filing of a 344 pleading.

345 § 20-146.21. Appearance of parties and child.

346 A. In a child custody proceeding in this Commonwealth, the court may order a party to the 347 proceeding who is in this Commonwealth to appear before the court in person with or without the child.
 348 The court may order any person who is in this Commonwealth and who has physical custody or control 349 of the child to appear in person with the child.

350 B. If a party to a child custody proceeding whose presence is desired by the court is outside this 351 Commonwealth, the court may direct the party to appear in person with or without the child and 352 informing the party that failure to appear may result in a decision adverse to the party.

353 C. The court may enter any orders necessary to ensure the safety of the child and of any person 354 ordered to appear under this section.

355 D. If a party to a child custody proceeding who is outside this Commonwealth is directed to appear
 356 under subsection B or desires to appear personally before the court with or without the child, the court
 357 may require another party to pay reasonable and necessary travel and other expenses of the party so 358 appearing and of the child.

359 Article 3.

428 by a court whose decision must be enforced under this Act and, if so, identify the court, the case

437 6. If the child custody determination has been registered and confirmed under § 20-146.26, the date 438 and place of registration.

439 C. Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall issue an order directing the respondent to appear in 440 person with or without the child at a hearing and may enter any order necessary to ensure the safety of 441 the parties and the child. The hearing must be held on the judicial day after service of the order unless 442 that date is impossible. In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible.
443 The court may extend the date of hearing at the request of the petitioner.

444 D. An order issued under subsection C must state the time and place of the hearing and advise the 445 respondent that at the hearing the court will order that the petitioner may take immediate physical 446 custody of the child and the payment of fees, costs, and expenses under § 20-146.33, and may schedule 447 a hearing to determine whether further relief is appropriate, unless the respondent appears and 448 establishes that:

449 1. The child custody determination has not been registered under § 20-146.26, and that:

450 a. The issuing court did not have jurisdiction under Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.);

451 b. The child custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed, or 452 modified by a court having jurisdiction to do so under Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.);

455 or

456 2. The child custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered under 457 § 20-146.26, but has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so
458 under Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.).

459 § 20-146.30. Service of petition and order.

460 Except as otherwise provided in § 20-146.32, the petition and order shall be served, by any method
461 authorized by the law of this Commonwealth, upon the respondent and any person who has physical 462 custody of the child.

463 § 20-146.31. Hearing and order.

464 A. Unless the court issues a temporary emergency order pursuant to § 20-146.15, upon a finding that 465 a petitioner is entitled to immediate physical custody of the child, the court shall order that the 466 petitioner may take immediate physical custody of the child unless the respondent establishes that:

467 1. The child custody determination has not been registered under § 20-146.26 and that:

468 a. The issuing court did not have jurisdiction under Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.);

469 b. The child custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed, or 470 modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.); or

471 c. The respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the standards 472 of § 20-146.7, in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which enforcement is sought;
473 or

474 2. The child custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered under 475 § 20-146.26, but has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so
476 under Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.).

477 B. The court shall award the fees, costs, and expenses authorized under § 20-146.33 and may grant 478 additional relief, including a request for the assistance of law-enforcement officials, and set a further 479 hearing to determine whether additional relief is appropriate.

480 C. If a party called to testify refuses to answer on the ground that the testimony may be 481 self-incriminating, the court may draw an adverse inference from the refusal.

482 D. A privilege against disclosure of communications between spouses and a defense of immunity
483 based on the relationship of husband and wife or parent and child may not be invoked in a proceeding 484 under this article.

485 § 20-146.32. Warrant to take physical custody of child.

486 A. Upon the filing of a petition seeking enforcement of a child custody determination, the petitioner 487 may file a verified application for the issuance of a warrant to take physical custody of the child if the 488 child is imminently likely to suffer serious physical harm or be removed from this Commonwealth.

489 B. If the court, upon the testimony of the petitioner or other witness, finds that the child is

490 imminently likely to suffer serious physical harm or be removed from this Commonwealth, it may issue a
 491 warrant to take physical custody of the child. The petition must be heard on the next judicial day after 492 the warrant is executed unless that date is impossible. In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on 493 the first judicial day possible. The application for the warrant shall include the statements required by 494 subsection B of § 20-146.29.

495 C. A warrant to take physical custody of a child shall:

496 1. Recite the facts upon which a conclusion of imminent serious physical harm or removal from the 497 jurisdiction is based;

498 2. Direct law-enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child immediately; and 499 3. Provide for the placement of the child pending final relief.

500 D. The respondent must be served with the petition, warrant, and order immediately after the child is 501 taken into physical custody.

502 E. A warrant to take physical custody of a child is enforceable throughout this Commonwealth. If the 503 court finds on the basis of the testimony of the petitioner or other witness that a less intrusive remedy is 504 not effective, it may authorize law-enforcement officers to enter private property to take physical custody
 505 of the child. If required by exigent circumstances of the case, the court may authorize law-enforcement 506 officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

507 F. The court may impose conditions upon placement of a child to ensure the appearance of the child 508 and the child's custodian.

509 § 20-146.33. Costs, fees, and expenses.

510 A. The court shall award the prevailing party, including a state, necessary and reasonable expenses
 511 incurred by or on behalf of the party, including costs, communication expenses, attorney's fees, 512 investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel expenses, and child care during the course of the 513 proceedings, unless the party from whom fees or expenses are sought establishes that the award would 514 be clearly inappropriate.

515 B. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against a state unless authorized by law other 516 than this Act.

517 § 20-146.34. Recognition and enforcement.

518 A court of this Commonwealth shall accord full faith and credit to an order issued by another state
 519 and consistent with this Act that enforces a child custody determination by a court of another state 520 unless the order has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court have jurisdiction to do so under 521 Article 2 (§ 20-146.12 et seq.).

522 § 20-146.35. Appeals.

523 An appeal may be taken from a final order in a proceeding under this article in accordance with 524 expedited appellate procedures in other civil cases. Unless the court enters a temporary emergency
 525 order under § 20-146.15, the enforcing court may not stay an order enforcing a child custody
 526 determination pending appeal.

527 § 20-146.36. Role of attorney for the Commonwealth.

528 A. In a case arising under this Act or involving the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of 529 International Child Abduction, the attorney for the Commonwealth may take any lawful action, including 530 resort to a proceeding under this article or any other available civil proceeding, to locate a child, 531 obtain the return of a child, or enforce a child custody determination if there is:

532 1. An existing child custody determination;

533 2. A request to do so from a court in a pending child custody proceeding;

534 3. A reasonable belief that a criminal statute has been violated; or

535 4. A reasonable belief that the child has been wrongfully removed or retained in violation of the 536 Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

537 B. An attorney for the Commonwealth acting under this section acts on behalf of the court and may 538 not represent any party.

539 § 20-146.37. Role of law enforcement.

540 At the request of an attorney for the Commonwealth acting under § 20-146.36, a law-enforcement 541 officer may take any lawful action reasonably necessary to locate a child or a party and assist an 542 attorney for the commonwealth with responsibilities under § 20-146.36.

543 § 20-146.38. Costs and expenses.

544 If the respondent is not the prevailing party, the court may assess against the respondent all direct 545 expenses and costs incurred by the attorney for the Commonwealth and law-enforcement officers under 546 §§ 20-146.36 and 20-146.37.

547 Article 4.

548 Miscellaneous Provisions.

549 § 20-146.39. Application and construction.

550 In applying and construing this act, consideration shall be given to the need to promote uniformity

551 of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

552 § 20-146.40. Transitional provision.

553 A motion or other request for relief made in a child custody proceeding or to enforce a child
554 custody determination that was commenced before July 1, 2001, is governed by the law in effect at the 555 time the motion or other request was made.

556 § 20-146.41. Construction of Provisions.

557 (a) The general purposes of this Act are to:

558 (1) Avoid jurisdictional competition and conflict with courts of other states in matters of child
559 custody that have in the past resulted in the shifting of children from state to state with harmful effects 560 on their well-being;

561 (2) Promote cooperation with the courts of other states to the end that a custody decree is rendered 562 in that state that can best decide the case in the interest of the child;

563 (3) Ensure that litigation concerning the custody of a child take place ordinarily in the state with 564 which the child and his family have the closest connection and where significant evidence concerning 565 his care, protection, training, and personal relationships is most readily available, and that courts of 566 this state decline the exercise of jurisdiction when the child and his family have a closer connection with 567 another state;

568 (4) Discourage continuing controversies over child custody in the interest of greater stability of home
569 environment and of secure family relationships for the child;

570 (5) Deter abductions and other unilateral removals of children undertaken to obtain custody awards;

571 (6) Avoid re-litigation of custody decisions of other states in this state insofar as feasible;

572 (7) Facilitate the enforcement of custody decrees of other states;

573 (8) Promote and expand the exchange of information and other forms of mutual assistance between 574 the courts of this state and those of other states concerned with the same child; and 575 (9) Make uniform the law of those states that enact it.

576 (b) This Act shall be construed to promote the general purposes stated in this section.

577 § 63.1-220.3. Placement of children for adoption by parent or guardian.

578 A. The birth parent or legal guardian of a child may place his child for adoption directly with the 579 adoptive parents of his choice. Consent to the proposed adoption shall be executed upon compliance
580 with the provisions of this section before a juvenile and domestic relations district court of competent 581 jurisdiction or, if the birth parent or legal guardian does not reside in Virginia, before a court having 582 jurisdiction over child custody matters in the jurisdiction where the birth parent or legal guardian resides
583 when requested by a court of this Commonwealth, pursuant to § 20-14220-146.11. Proceedings under 584 this section shall be advanced on the docket so as to be heard by the court within ten days of filing of 585 the petition, or as soon thereafter as practicable so as to provide the earliest possible disposition.

586 B. The court shall not accept consent until it determines that:

587 1. The birth parent(s) are aware of alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, and opportunities 588 for placement with other adoptive families, and that the birth parents' consent is informed and 589 uncoerced.

590 2. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has counseled the prospective adoptive parents
591 with regard to alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, including the need to address the parental 592 rights of birth parents, the procedures for terminating such rights, and opportunities for adoption of other 593 children; that the prospective adoptive parents' decision is informed and uncoerced; and that they intend 594 to file an adoption petition and proceed toward a final order of adoption.

595 3. The birth parent(s) and adoptive parents have exchanged identifying information including but not 596 limited to full names, addresses, physical, mental, social and psychological information and any other 597 information necessary to promote the welfare of the child.

598 4. Any financial agreement or exchange of property among the parties and any fees charged or paid
599 for services related to the placement or adoption of the child have been disclosed to the court and that 600 all parties understand that no binding contract regarding placement or adoption of the child exists.

601 5. There has been no violation of the provisions of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement;
602 however, if it appears there has been such violation, the court shall not reject consent of the birth parent
603 to the adoption for that reason alone but shall report the alleged violation as required by subsection G of 604 this section.

605 6. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has conducted a home study of the prospective
606 adoptive home in accordance with regulations established by the State Board of Social Services and has 607 provided to the court a report of such home study, which shall contain the agency's recommendation
608 regarding the suitability of the placement. A married couple or an unmarried individual shall be eligible
609 to receive placement of a child for adoption. The home study shall make inquiry as to (i) whether the 610 prospective adoptive parents are financially able, morally suitable, and in satisfactory physical and 611 mental health to enable them to care for the child; (ii) the physical and mental condition of the child, if 612 known; (iii) the circumstances under which the child came to live, or will be living, in the home of the

613 prospective adoptive family, as applicable; (iv) what fees have been paid by the prospective adoptive 614 family or in their behalf in the placement and adoption of the child; (v) whether the requirements of 615 subdivisions 1, 2, 3 and 5 of this subsection have been met; and (vi) any other matters specified by the 616 court. In the course of the home study, the agency social worker shall meet at least once with the birth
 617 parent(s) and prospective adoptive parents simultaneously. When the child has been placed with 618 prospective adoptive parents who are related to the child as specified in subdivision 6 of subsection C of 619 this section, this meeting is not required.

620 7. The birth parent(s) have been informed of their opportunity to be represented by legal counsel.

621 C. When the court is satisfied that all requirements of subsection B of this section have been met 622 with respect to at least one birth parent and the adoptive child is at least ten days old, that birth parent
 623 or both birth parents, as the case may be, shall execute consent to the proposed adoption in compliance
 624 with the provisions of § 63.1-225 while before the court in person and in the presence of the prospective
 625 adoptive parents. The court shall accept the consent of the birth parent(s) and transfer custody of the 626 child to the prospective adoptive parents, pending notification to any nonconsenting birth parent, as 627 described hereinafter.

628 1. a. The execution of consent before the court as set forth in subsection A shall not be required of a 629 birth father who is not married to the mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth if 630 (i) the birth father consents under oath and in writing to the adoption; (ii) the birth mother swears under 631 oath and in writing that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable; (iii) the identity
 632 of the birth father is ascertainable and his whereabouts are known, he is given notice of the proceedings 633 by registered or certified mail to his last known address and he fails to object to the proceeding within 634 twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice; or (iv) the putative birth father named by the birth
 635 mother denies under oath and in writing paternity of the child. An affidavit of the birth mother that the 636 identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact,
 637 provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. The absence
 638 of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the birth father is reasonably
 639 ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the birth father is reasonably 640 ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking into 641 account the relative interests of the child, the birth mother and the birth father.

642 b. The court may accept the written consent of the birth father who is not married to the birth 643 mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth, provided that the identifying 644 information required in subdivision B 3 is filed in writing with the court of jurisdiction. Such consent 645 shall be executed after the birth of the child, shall advise the birth father of his opportunity for legal 646 representation, and shall be presented to the court for acceptance. The consent may waive further notice
 647 of the adoption proceedings and shall contain the name, address and telephone number of the birth
 648 father's legal counsel or an acknowledgment that he was informed of his opportunity to be represented 649 by legal counsel and declined such representation.

650 c. In the event that the birth mother's consent is not executed in court in accordance with subsection
 651 A, the consent of the birth father who is not married to the birth mother of the child shall be executed 652 in court.

653 d. A child born to a married birth mother shall be presumed to be the child of her husband and his 654 consent under subsection A shall be required. This presumption may be rebutted by sufficient evidence, 655 satisfactory to the court, which would establish by a preponderance of the evidence the paternity of 656 another man or the impossibility or improbability of cohabitation of the birth mother and her husband
 657 for a period of at least 300 days preceding the birth of the child, in which case the husband's consent 658 shall not be required.

659 2. A birth parent whose consent is required as set forth in § 63.1-225, whose identity is known and 660 who neither consents before the court as described above, nor executes a written consent to the adoption
 661 or a denial of paternity out of court as provided above, shall be given notice of the proceedings pending
 662 before the court and be given the opportunity to appear before the court. Such hearing may occur 663 subsequent to the proceeding wherein the consenting birth parent appeared but may not be held until 664 twenty-one days after personal service of notice on the nonconsenting birth parent, or if personal service 665 is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of publication against such 666 birth parent. The court may appoint counsel for the birth parent(s). If the court finds that consent is 667 withheld contrary to the best interests of the child, as set forth in § 63.1-225.1, or is unobtainable, it 668 may grant the petition without such consent and enter an order waiving the requirement of consent of 669 the nonconsenting birth parent and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, 670 which order shall become effective fifteen days thereafter. If the court denies the petition, the court shall 671 order that any consent given for the purpose of such placement shall be void and, if necessary, the court 672 shall determine custody of the child as between the birth parents.

673 3. Except as provided in subdivision 4 of this subsection, if consent cannot be obtained from at least

674 one birth parent, the court shall deny the petition and determine custody of the child pursuant to 675 § 16.1-278.2.

676 4. If the child was placed by the birth parent(s) with the prospective adoptive parents and if both 677 birth parents have failed, without good cause, to appear at a hearing to execute consent under this 678 section for which they were given proper notice pursuant to § 16.1-264, the court may grant the petition 679 without the consent of either birth parent and enter an order waiving consent and transferring custody of 680 the child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall become effective fifteen days thereafter.
681 Prior to the entry of such an order, the court may appoint legal counsel for the birth parents and shall 682 find by clear and convincing evidence (i) that the birth parents were given proper notice of the 683 hearing(s) to execute consent and of the hearing to proceed without their consent, (ii) that the birth
684 parents failed to show good cause for their failure to appear at such hearing(s) and (iii) that pursuant to 685 § 63.1-225.1 the consent of the birth parents is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child or is 686 unobtainable.

687 5. If both birth parents are deceased, the court, after hearing evidence to that effect, may grant the 688 petition without the filing of any consent.

689 6. When a child has been placed by the birth parent(s) with prospective adoptive parents who are the 690 child's grandparents, adult brother or sister, adult uncle or aunt or adult great uncle or great aunt,
691 consent does not have to be executed in court in the presence of the prospective adoptive parents. The 692 court may accept written consent that has been signed and acknowledged before an officer authorized by 693 law to take acknowledgments. No hearing shall be required for the court's acceptance of such consent.

694 When such child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent(s) continuously for three 695 or more years, this section shall not apply, and consent shall be executed in accordance with subsection
696 E of § 63.1-225.

697 7. No consent shall be required from the birth father of a child placed pursuant to this section when 698 such father is convicted of a violation of subsection A of § 18.2-61, § 18.2-63 or subsection B of 699 § 18.2-366, and the child was conceived as a result of such violation, nor shall the birth father be 700 entitled to notice of any of the proceedings under this section.

701 8. Upon a finding by the court that all of the requirements of this section have been met, and upon 702 entry of such orders as may be appropriate, including the transfer of custody of the child to the 703 prospective adoptive parents, the prospective adoptive parent(s) may file a petition for adoption of the 704 child pursuant to § 63.1-221. The court shall review each order entered under this section at least 705 annually until such time as the final order of adoption is entered.

706 D. Consent shall be revocable as follows:

707 1. By either consenting birth parent for any reason for up to fifteen days from its execution.

708 a. Such revocation shall be in writing, signed by the revoking party or counsel of record for the 709 revoking party and shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the petition was filed during the 710 business day of the court, within the time period specified in this section. If the revocation period 711 expires on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday or any day on which the clerk's office is closed as 712 authorized by statute, the revocation period shall be extended to the next day that is not a Saturday,
713 Sunday, legal holiday or other day on which the clerk's office is closed as authorized by statute.

714 b. Upon the filing of a valid revocation within the time period set out in this section, the court shall 715 order that any consent given for the purpose of such placement is void and, if necessary, the court shall 716 determine custody of the child as between the birth parents.

717 2. By any party prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress or (ii) after 718 placement of the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and 719 prospective adoptive parents.

720 E. The court shall not accept the consent if the requirements of subsection B of this section have not 721 been met. In such cases, it shall refer the birth parent to a licensed or duly authorized child-placing 722 agency for investigation and recommendation in accordance with subsection B above. If the court 723 determines that any of the parties is financially unable to obtain the required services, it shall refer the 724 matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare.

725 F. If the court determines from the information provided to it that placement in the prospective 726 adoptive home will be contrary to the best interests of the child, it shall so inform the birth parents. If 727 the birth parents choose not to retain custody of the child nor to designate other prospective adoptive
728 parents, or if the birth parents' whereabouts are not reasonably ascertainable, the court shall determine 729 custody of the child.

730 G. If the court or any participating licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency suspects that 731 there has been a violation of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement, it shall report such findings
732 to the Commissioner of Social Services for investigation and appropriate action. If the Commissioner 733 suspects that a person has violated § 63.1-220.4, he shall report his findings to the appropriate attorney
734 for the Commonwealth. If the Commissioner believes that such violation has occurred in the course of 735 the practice of a profession or occupation licensed or regulated pursuant to Title 54.1, he shall also

736 report such findings to the appropriate regulatory authority for investigation and appropriate disciplinary 737 action.

738 H. The Department of Social Services shall develop and disseminate information to the public 739 regarding the provisions of this law, including the desirability of initiating the procedures required by 740 subsection B of this section as early in the placement and adoption process as possible to ensure that 741 birth parents are aware of the provisions of this law and begin required procedures in a timely manner.

742 2. That Chapter 7 (§§ 20-125 through 20-146) of Title 20 of the Code of Virginia is repealed.
