Offered January 10, 2001

Prefiled January 5, 2001

A BILL to amend and reenact § 58.1-609.8 of the Code of Virginia, relating to sales and use tax exemption; civic and community service.

 Patron—Mims

 Referred to Committee on Finance

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 58.1-609.8 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 58.1-609.8. Nonprofit civic and community service exemptions.

The tax imposed by this chapter or pursuant to the authority granted in §§ 58.1-605 and 58.1-606 shall not apply to the following:

1. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use or consumption by or sold by a volunteer fire department or volunteer rescue squad, an auxiliary or junior organization of such department or squad not conducted for profit, a nonprofit association of which the regular membership is composed of such volunteer fire departments or volunteer rescue squads, and construction materials to be incorporated into realty when sold to and used by such organization, rather than a contractor, in construction, maintenance, or repair of any property of such organization.

2. Tangible personal property, except property used in any form for recording and reproducing services, purchased by nonprofit churches which are exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or whose real property is exempt from local taxation pursuant to the provisions of § 58.1-3606, for use (i) in religious worship services by a congregation or church membership while meeting together in a single location and (ii) in the libraries, offices, meeting or counseling rooms or other rooms in the public church buildings used in carrying out the work of the church and its related ministries, including kindergarten, elementary and secondary schools. The exemption for such churches shall also include baptistries; bulletins, programs, newspapers and newsletters which do not contain paid advertising and are used in carrying out the work of the church; gifts including food for distribution outside the public church building; and food, disposable serving items, cleaning supplies and teaching materials used in the operation of camps or conference centers by the church or an organization composed of churches that are exempt under this subdivision and which are used in carrying out the work of the church or churches.

3. a. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property sold or leased for use in nonprofit nutrition programs for the elderly qualifying under 42 U.S.C. § 3030e through 42 U.S.C. § 3030g, as amended, as administered by the Virginia Department for the Aging, and the food and food products sold under such programs to elderly persons and the food and food products sold by such program participants to disabled or handicapped persons under the age of sixty.

b. From July 1, 1997, through June 30, 2001, all other tangible personal property purchased by the area agencies on aging through programs administered by the Virginia Department for the Aging.

4. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property bought, sold or used by Virginia Federation of Humane Societies or any chartered, nonprofit organization incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth and organized for the purpose of preventing cruelty to animals and promoting humane care of animals, when such property is used for the operation of such organizations or the construction or maintenance of animal shelters.

5. Tangible personal property withdrawn from inventory and donated to (i) an organization exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) the Commonwealth, any political subdivision of the Commonwealth, or any school, agency or instrumentality thereof.

6. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased by an organization which is exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and which is organized primarily to distribute, during the Christmas season, food, toys, and clothing to persons in financial need, provided such tangible personal property is distributed at no cost to financially needy persons.

7. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property, including food and food products, purchased for use or consumption by a residential youth shelter organization exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, provided such organization is organized exclusively for maintaining and operating group homes for the shelter and care of abused and neglected children in the Commonwealth on a long-term or short-term basis.

8. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use or consumption by an

59 organization exempt from taxation under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and organized
60 exclusively for the purpose of providing education, training, services, and assistance in independent
61 living to foster care children and youth without families.

62 9. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property for use or consumption by, sold by or donated
63 to a food bank or organization exempt from taxation pursuant to § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue
64 Code and organized exclusively for the distribution of foods to infants, the ill, or the needy; the 65 exemptions shall apply to each transaction in the chain of commerce from manufacture to final
66 disposition, provided that such food bank or organization is not conducted for profit.

67 10. Through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property for use or consumption by a licensed
68 nonprofit assisted living facility as defined in § 63.1-172 or a licensed nonprofit adult day-care center as 69 defined in § 63.1-194.1.

70 11. a. From July 1, 1989, through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use or 71 consumption by or sold by a nonstock, nonprofit charitable organization, exempt from taxation under
72 § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and from local real estate taxation, which is organized
73 exclusively to foster, sponsor and promote physical education, athletic programs and contests for youths
74 in the Commonwealth.

75 b. From July 1, 1997, through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use or
76 consumption by a nonstock, nonprofit charitable organization, exempt from taxation pursuant to § 501
77 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and which is organized exclusively to foster, sponsor and promote
78 physical education, athletic programs and contests for youths in the Fifth Planning District or Eleventh
79 Planning District, established pursuant to § 15.2-4203.

80 12. From July 1, 1989, through June 30, 2001, tangible personal property purchased for use or
81 consumption by a shelter for homeless individuals operated by an organization exempt from taxation
