8. Fiscal implications: This bill will require one new position at the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation (DPOR) to serve as a resource to approximately 3,500 associations and their members. The Common Interest Community Management Information Fund (Fund 0259) annually collects approximately $95,000. This bill would cap DPOR's use of these funds for administering the program to 60 percent ($57,000) of annual revenues. DPOR's administrative costs, which will include the cost for one new position, will be $73,601 and $71,331 in fiscal years 2002 and 2003, respectively. The balance of the administrative costs are estimated to be borne from fees collected on behalf of the Real Estate Board and maintained in Fund 0900.

Fiscal Year	Expenditure Impact	Expenses paid from Fund 0259 (60 percent)	Expenses paid from Fund 0900 (NGF apprn needed)
2002	$73,601	$57,000	$16,601
