

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY -- 2002 SESSION

CHAPTER 192

An Act to amend and reenact § 10.1-512 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the factors to be considered to determine the need for a soil and water conservation district.

[H 211]

Approved March 22, 2002

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 10.1-512 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 10.1-512. Determination of need for district.

After a public hearing, if the Board determines that there is need, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, for the proposed district to function in the territory considered at the hearing, it shall record its determination, and shall define, by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions the boundaries of the district. In so doing, the Board shall consider (i) the topography of the area considered and of the Commonwealth, (ii) the composition of soils in the area, (iii) the distribution of erosion, (iv) the prevailing land-use practices, (v) the desirability and necessity of including within the boundaries the particular lands under consideration and the benefits the lands may receive from being included within such boundaries, (vi) the relation of the proposed area to existing watersheds and to other soil and water conservation districts already organized or proposed for organization, (vii) the existing political subdivisions, and (viii) other relevant physical, geographical, ~~and~~ economic, and funding factors. The territory to be included within such boundaries need not be contiguous.
