HOUSE BILL NO. 71

Offered January 9, 2002

Prefiled December 19, 2001

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 51.1-600, 51.1-601, 51.1-602, 51.1-604, and 51.1-605 of the Code of Virginia; to amend the Code of Virginia by adding in Title 51.1 a chapter numbered 6.1, consisting of sections numbered 51.1-607 through 51.1-613; and to repeal § 51.1-606 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the Deferred Compensation Plan and the Cash Match Plan for public employees.

Patron—Putney

Referred to Committee on Appropriations

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 51.1-600, 51.1-601, 51.1-602, 51.1-604, and 51.1-605 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted, and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 51.1 a chapter numbered 6.1, consisting of sections numbered 51.1-607 through 51.1-613 as follows:

§ 51.1-600. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Act" means the Government Employees Deferred Compensation Plan Act.

"Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Retirement System.

"Deferred compensation plan" means a plan which allows an employee to elect to defer some portion of income until some stated time in the future; provides that the federal and state income tax on such income will be deferred until the actual receipt of such income; and is established pursuant to the provisions of § 457 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

"Employee" means ~~any salaried person~~, in the case of the plan described in § 51.1-602, all persons employed by a participating employer, including appointed or elected officials; ~~providing services for the Commonwealth, state agencies, counties, municipalities, or other political subdivisions. In the case of a plan adopted by a county, municipality, authority or other political subdivision pursuant to § 51.1-603, an employee shall be defined by such county, municipality, authority or other political subdivision.~~

"Participating employer" means the Commonwealth or any political subdivision that has elected pursuant to § 51.1-603.1 to participate in the deferred compensation plan established by the Board pursuant to this chapter ~~or a sponsor of a plan established pursuant to § 403 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.~~

"Qualified participant" means an employee of a participating employer with at least twelve consecutive months of service who is making continuous deferrals of at least ten dollars per pay period in the deferred compensation plan established by the Board pursuant to this chapter ~~or in a plan established pursuant to § 403 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.~~

§ 51.1-601. Contract for deferred compensation.

In accordance with a plan of deferred compensation, the Commonwealth, or any state agency, county, municipality, authority, or other political subdivision may, by contract, agree with any employee to defer all or any portion of that employee's otherwise payable compensation and, pursuant to the terms of the plan and in such proportions as may be designated or directed under the plan, place such deferred compensation in investment products selected by the Commonwealth and its agencies, county, municipality, authority, or other political subdivision. All investment products shall be offered in compliance with applicable federal and state laws and regulations by persons who are duly authorized by applicable state and federal authorities.

§ 51.1-602. Deferred compensation plan for employees of the Commonwealth; administered by the Board.

A. The Board shall establish and administer a deferred compensation plan for employees of the Commonwealth and its agencies. The Virginia Retirement System Director shall be the chief administrative officer of the plan. The Board may contract with private corporations or institutions subject to the standards set forth in § 51.1-124.30 to provide investment products as well as any other goods and services related to the administration of the deferred compensation plan. The Virginia Retirement System is hereby authorized to perform related services including, but not limited to, providing consolidated billing, individual and collective record keeping and accountings, and asset purchase, control, and safekeeping. In accordance with such plan, and upon contract or agreement with an eligible employee, deferrals of compensation may be accomplished by payroll deductions made by the appropriate officer of the Commonwealth, with such funds being thereafter held and administered in accordance with the plan. ~~Administrative fees related to the VRS program oversight that otherwise~~

59 would be charged to an employee participating in the plan shall be paid by the participating employer
60 under procedures established by the Board.

61 B. If it deems it advisable, the Board may create a trust or other special fund for the segregation of 62 the funds or assets resulting from compensation deferred at the request of employees of the 63 Commonwealth or its agencies and for the implementation of such program.

64 C. The Department of Accounts shall be responsible for the (i) accounting and reconciliations
65 associated with state employees' contributions to the plan through payroll deductions and (ii) timely
66 transfer of withheld funds to the private corporation or institution designated by the Board pursuant to 67 subsection A. However, any state agency that has decentralized its payroll function and any political 68 subdivision of the Commonwealth participating in the plan pursuant to § 51.1-603.1 shall be responsible
69 for the (i) accounting and reconciliations associated with their employees' contributions to the plan
70 through payroll deductions and (ii) timely transfer of withheld funds to the private corporation or 71 institution designated by the Board pursuant to subsection A.

72 D. The Commonwealth, the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Retirement System, the employees of 73 the System, and the Investment Advisory Committee of the System shall not incur any liability for any 74 losses suffered by a deferred compensation plan established or administered under the authority of this
75 chapter.

76 § 51.1-604. Standards for deferred compensation plans.

77 No deferred compensation plan shall become effective until the Board, county, municipality,
78 authority or other political subdivision of the Commonwealth is satisfied, by opinion of its respective 79 counsel, such federal agency or agencies as may be deemed necessary, or otherwise, that the 80 compensation deferred thereunder and/or the investment products purchased pursuant to the plan (i) will
81 not be included in the employee's taxable income under federal or state law until it is actually received
82 by the employee under the terms of the plan and (ii) that such compensation will nonetheless be deemed 83 compensation at the time of deferral for the purposes of social security coverage, for the purposes of the 84 Virginia Retirement System, and for any other retirement, pension, or benefit program established by 85 law.

86 § 51.1-605. Other retirement, pension, etc., systems not affected; annual report.

87 Any deferred compensation program established by this chapter, and any plan adopted hereunder,
88 shall exist and serve in addition to any other retirement, pension, or benefit system established by the
89 Commonwealth, its agencies, counties, municipalities, authorities, or other political subdivisions, and
90 shall not supersede, make inoperative, or reduce any benefits provided by the Virginia Retirement
91 System or by any other retirement, pension, or benefit program established by law.

92 The Virginia Retirement System shall submit an annual report to the Governor and the General
93 Assembly advising them of the condition of the Commonwealth's fund and all operational costs
94 associated with the such fund.

95 The Board shall have the authority to establish a plan pursuant to § 401 (a) or § 403 (b) of the
96 Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, for the purpose of implementation of this section.

97 CHAPTER 6.1.

98 CASH MATCH PLAN.

99 § 51.1-607. Definitions.

100 As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

101 "Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Retirement System.

102 "Cash match plan" means a plan established pursuant to the provisions of § 401 (a) of the Internal 103 Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, to which a participating employer contributes based on 104 contributions made by an employee to a deferred compensation plan or to a plan established pursuant 105 to § 403 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Alternatively, if the Board determines
106 that it is appropriate, such plan may be established pursuant to § 403 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code
107 of 1986, as amended.

108 "Deferred compensation plan" means a plan described in Chapter 6 (§ 51.1-600 et seq.) of this title.

109 "Employee" means, in the case of the plan described in § 51.1-608, any salaried person, including
110 appointed or elected officials, providing services for a participating employer. In the case of a plan
111 adopted by a county, municipality, authority or other political subdivision pursuant to § 51.1-610, an 112 employee shall be defined by such county, municipality, authority or other political subdivision.

113 "Participating employer" means the Commonwealth or any political subdivision that has elected
114 pursuant to § 51.1-603.1 to participate in the deferred compensation plan established by the Board
115 pursuant to Chapter 6 (§ 51.1-600 et seq.) of this title or a sponsor of a plan established pursuant to 116 § 403 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

117 "Qualified participant" means, in the case of a plan established pursuant to § 51.1-608, an employee
118 of a participating employer who is making continuous deferrals of at least ten dollars per pay period to 119 the deferred compensation plan established by the Board pursuant to Chapter 6 (§ 51.1-600 et seq.) of 120 this title or to a plan established pursuant to § 403 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The determination of whether an employee is making continuous deferrals shall be made by the Board. In the case of a plan established pursuant to subsection E of § 51.1-608 or § 51.1-610, qualified participant means an employee described by the governing body establishing such plan in the documents setting forth the details of such plan.

§ 51.1-608. Cash match plan for employees of the Commonwealth; administered by the Board.

A. The Board shall establish and administer a cash match plan for employees of the Commonwealth and its agencies. The Virginia Retirement System Director shall be the chief administrative officer of the plan. The Board may contract with private corporations or institutions subject to the standards set forth in § 51.1-124.30 to provide investment products as well as any other goods and services related to the administration of the deferred compensation plan. The Virginia Retirement System is hereby authorized to perform related services including, but not limited to, providing consolidated billing, individual and collective recordkeeping and accountings, and asset purchase, control, and safekeeping.

B. If it deems it advisable, the Board may create a trust or other special fund for the segregation of the funds or assets resulting from contributions made on behalf of qualified participants.

C. The Department of Accounts shall be responsible for the timely transfer of the matching contributions to the private corporation or institution designated by the Board pursuant to subsection A. However, any state agency that has decentralized its payroll function and any political subdivision of the Commonwealth participating in the plan pursuant to § 51.1-611 shall be responsible for the timely transfer of matching contributions to the private corporation or institution designated by the Board pursuant to subsection A.

D. The Commonwealth, the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Retirement System, the employees of the System, and the Investment Advisory Committee of the System shall not incur any liability for any losses suffered by a cash match plan established or administered under the authority of this chapter.

E. Alternatively, agencies of the Commonwealth that sponsor or maintain programs described in § 403 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, may establish separate cash match plans with the consent of the Board in lieu of participation in the plan established pursuant to this section.

§ 51.1-609. Contributions on behalf of qualified participants.

A. A participating employer or, on behalf of the Commonwealth, the Department of Accounts or any agency of the Commonwealth not covered under the central payroll system, shall transfer funds from its appropriations to the private corporation or institution designated to hold investments under the plan or plans adopted or established by the participating employer pursuant to § 401 (a) or § 403 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The funds shall be held, administered and invested as provided for in the applicable document adopted for the administration of such contributions.

B. The amount credited pursuant to this section on behalf of a qualified participant who is an employee of the Commonwealth shall be a discretionary amount determined by the General Assembly from time to time as part of the appropriations process. The amount credited pursuant to this section on behalf of a qualified participant who is an employee of a participating employer other than the Commonwealth shall be a discretionary amount determined by the participating employer's governing body from time to time.

§ 51.1-610. Local cash match plans.

A. Any county, municipality, authority, or other political subdivision of the Commonwealth may by ordinance or resolution adopt and establish for itself and its employees a cash match plan. Any such cash match plan may include constitutional officers and their employees. The ordinance or resolution adopting or establishing such plan shall create or designate an appropriate board or officer to administer the plan, and shall confer upon such board or officer the authority to do all things by way of supervision, administration, and implementation of the plan, including the power to contract with private corporations or institutions for services in connection therewith.

B. If it deems it advisable, any county, municipality, authority, or other political subdivision of the Commonwealth, which by ordinance or resolution adopts and establishes for itself and its employees a cash match plan, may create a trust or other special fund for the segregation of the funds or assets resulting from contributions.

§ 51.1-611. Participation by employees of political subdivisions in cash match plan of Virginia Retirement System.

The Virginia Retirement System may enter into an agreement with any political subdivision of the Commonwealth to permit participation by the political subdivision's employees in the cash match plan established and administered by the Board pursuant to § 51.1-607.

§ 51.1-612. Standards for cash match plans.

No cash match plan shall become effective until the Board, county, municipality, authority or other political subdivision of the Commonwealth is satisfied, by opinion of its respective counsel, such federal agency or agencies as may be deemed necessary, or otherwise, that the contribution thereunder or the investment products purchased pursuant to the plan (i) will not be included in the employee's taxable

182 income under federal or state law until it is actually received by the employee under the terms of the
183 plan and (ii) that such contribution will not be deemed compensation at the time of the contribution for
184 the purposes of social security coverage, for the purposes of the Virginia Retirement System, and for 185 any other retirement, pension, or benefit program established by law.

186 § 51.1-613. Other retirement, pension, etc., systems not affected; annual report.

187 Any cash match program established by this chapter, and any plan adopted hereunder, shall exist
188 and serve in addition to any other retirement, pension, or benefit system established by the 189 Commonwealth, its agencies, counties, municipalities, authority, or other political subdivisions, and shall
190 not supersede, make inoperative, or reduce any benefits provided by the Virginia Retirement System or 191 by any other retirement, pension, or benefit program established by law.

192 The Virginia Retirement System shall submit an annual report to the Governor and the General
193 Assembly advising them of the condition of the fund administered by the Virginia Retirement System and 194 all operational costs associated with such fund.

195 2. That § 51.1-606 of the Code of Virginia is repealed.
