ENROLLED

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 222

On the death of Lieutenant Colonel Canfield D. Boone.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 14, 2002
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 18, 2002

WHEREAS, on September 11, 2001, terrorists launched an inexcusable attack on the United States, causing great destruction and horrible human suffering in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, the attack had a devastating effect in Virginia, home of the Pentagon and of many of the personnel, military and civilian, who served there; and

WHEREAS, among the victims of the Pentagon attack was Lieutenant Colonel Canfield D. Boone of Clifton, who worked in the Army personnel office and had been assigned to the Pentagon for more than a decade; and

WHEREAS, a native of Indiana, Lieutenant Colonel Boone earned his degree in history and political science from Butler University; and

WHEREAS, following service in the National Guard, Lieutenant Colonel Boone went on active service with the Army in 1986 and taught in the ROTC program at Eastern Illinois University for five years; and

WHEREAS, known for his patriotism and his love for the Army, Lieutenant Colonel Boone was married and the father of three sons; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of Lieutenant Colonel Canfield D. Boone, a victim of the September 11 terrorist attacks on the United States; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Lieutenant Colonel Canfield D. Boone as an expression of the heartfelt condolences of the General Assembly of Virginia.
