Department of Taxation

10. Technical amendment necessary: No.

11. Other comments:

Th audiovisual works exemption was enacted by the 1995 General Assembly. The exemption applies to the lease, rental, license, sale, other transfer, or use of any audio or video tape, film or other audiovisual work when acquired for the purpose of licensing, distributing, broadcasting, commercially exhibiting or reproducing the work or using or incorporating the work into another such work. The exemption also applies to the provision of production services or fabrication related to the production of any portion of a qualifying audiovisual work. The exempt production services include scriptwriting, photography, sound, musical composition, special effects, animation, adaptation, dubbing, mixing, editing, cutting and provision of production facilities or equipment. The transfer of certain tangible personal property related to production services is exempt, as is equipment and related parts and accessories for use in the production of exempt audiovisual works.

The sunset date of the audiovisual works exemption was previously extended from June 30, 1997, to June 30, 2002 by the 1997 General Assembly.
