Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 18.2-246.2 and 18.2-246.4 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted, and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 19.2-10.1 as follows:

§ 18.2-246.2. Definitions.

"Conduct" or "conducts" includes initiating, concluding, participating in, or assisting in a financial transaction.

"Financial transaction" means any purchase, sale, trade, loan, pledge, investment, gift, transfer, transmission, transportation, delivery, deposit, withdrawal, payment, transfer between accounts, exchange of currency, extension of credit, purchase or sale of monetary instruments, use of a safe-deposit box, or any other acquisition or disposition of monetary instruments by any means including the movement of funds by wire or other electronic means, which is knowingly designed in whole or in part to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership or control of the property involved in the transaction.

"Monetary instruments" means (i) coin or currency of the United States or of any other country, travelers' checks, personal checks, bank checks, cashier's checks, credit cards, debit cards, and money orders or (ii) securities or other negotiable instruments, in bearer form or otherwise.

"Person" includes any individual, partnership, association, corporation or joint venture.

"Proceeds" means property acquired or derived, directly or indirectly, from, produced through, realized through, or caused by an act or omission and includes property, real or personal, of any kind.

"Property" means anything of value, and includes any interest therein, including any benefit, privilege, claim or right with respect to anything of value, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible.

§ 18.2-246.4. Seizure of property used in connection with money laundering.

The following property shall be subject to lawful seizure by any officer charged with enforcing the provisions of this article: (i) all money, equipment, motor vehicles, and all other personal and real property of any kind or character used in substantial connection with the laundering of proceeds of some form of activity punishable as a felony under the laws of the Commonwealth, another state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the United States, and (ii) all money or other property, real or personal, traceable to the proceeds of some form of activity punishable as a felony under the laws of the Commonwealth, another state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the United States, together with any interest or profits derived from the investment of such proceeds or other property. ~~Real property shall not be subject to seizure unless the minimum prescribed punishment for the violation under this article is a term of imprisonment of not less than five years.~~ All seizures and forfeitures under this section shall be governed by Chapter 22.1 (§ 19.2-386.1 et seq.) of Title 19.2, and the procedures specified therein shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to all forfeitures under this article.

§ 19.2-10.1. Subpoena duces tecum for obtaining records concerning banking and credit cards.

A. A financial institution as defined in § 6.1-125.1 or a credit card issuer as defined in § 11-30 shall disclose a record or other information pertaining to a customer, to a law-enforcement officer pursuant to a subpoena duces tecum issued pursuant to this section.

1. In order to obtain such records, the law-enforcement official shall provide a statement of the facts documenting the reasons that the records or other information sought are relevant to a legitimate law-enforcement inquiry to the attorney for the Commonwealth. If the attorney for the Commonwealth determines that there is probable cause for the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum, the attorney for the Commonwealth shall submit to the circuit court a draft order for the release of such information. A court shall issue a subpoena duces tecum only if there is probable cause to believe the records sought or other information sought are relevant to a legitimate law-enforcement inquiry. The court may issue a subpoena duces tecum under this section regardless of whether any criminal charges have been filed.

2. A court issuing an order pursuant to this section, on a motion made promptly by the financial institution or credit card issuer, may quash or modify the subpoena duces tecum, if the information or records requested are unusually voluminous in nature or compliance with such subpoena duces tecum

59 would otherwise cause an undue burden on such provider.

60 B. No cause of action shall lie in any court against a financial institution or credit card issuer, its
61 officers, employees, agents, or other specified persons for providing information, facilities, or assistance
62 in accordance with the terms of a subpoena duces tecum under this section.

63 C. Upon issuance of a subpoena duces tecum under this section, the statement shall be temporarily
64 sealed by the court upon application of the attorney for the Commonwealth for good cause shown in an
65 ex parte proceeding. Any individual arrested and claiming to be aggrieved by the order may move the 66 court for the unsealing of the statement, and the burden of proof with respect to continued sealing shall 67 be upon the Commonwealth.

68 D. Any and all records received by law enforcement pursuant to this section shall be utilized only for 69 a legitimate law-enforcement purpose. Upon the completion of the investigation the records shall be
70 submitted to the court by the attorney for the Commonwealth along with a proposed order requiring the 71 records to be sealed. Upon entry of such order, the court shall seal the records in accordance with the 72 requirements contained in subsection C.

73 2. That the provisions of this act may result in a net increase in periods of imprisonment or 74 commitment. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4, the estimated amount of the necessary appropriation cannot 75 be determined for periods of imprisonment in state adult correctional facilities and is $0 for 76 periods of commitment to the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice.
