B. If the injury arises from the transmission of unsolicited bulk electronic mail, the injured person, other than an electronic mail service provider, may also recover attorneys' fees and costs, and may elect, in lieu of actual damages, to recover the lesser of ten dollars $10 for each and every unsolicited bulk electronic mail message transmitted in violation of this article, or $25,000 per day. The injured person shall not have a cause of action against the electronic mail service provider ~~which~~ that merely transmits the unsolicited bulk electronic mail over its computer network.

C. If the injury arises from the transmission of unsolicited bulk electronic mail, an injured electronic mail service provider may also recover attorneys' fees and costs, and may elect, in lieu of actual damages, to recover the greater of ten dollars $1 for each and every intended recipient of an unsolicited bulk electronic mail message transmitted in violation of this article, or $25,000 per day where the intended recipient is an end user of the EMSP or $25,000 for each day an attempt is made to transmit an unsolicited bulk electronic mail message to an end user of the EMSP. In calculating the statutory damages under this provision, the court may adjust the amount awarded as necessary, but in doing so shall take into account the number of complaints to the EMSP generated by the defendant's messages, the defendant's degree of culpability, the defendant's prior history of such conduct, and the extent of economic gain resulting from the conduct.

D. At the request of any party to an action brought pursuant to this section, the court may, in its 182 discretion, conduct all legal proceedings in such a way as to protect the secrecy and security of the 183 computer, computer network, computer data, computer program and computer software involved in order 184 to prevent possible recurrence of the same or a similar act by another person and to protect any trade 185 secrets of any party and in such a way as to protect the privacy of nonparties who complain about 186 violations of this section.

187 E. The provisions of this article shall not be construed to limit any person's right to pursue any 188 additional civil remedy otherwise allowed by law.

189 F. A civil action under this section must be commenced before expiration of the time period
190 prescribed in § 8.01-40.1. In actions alleging injury arising from the transmission of unsolicited bulk 191 electronic mail, personal jurisdiction may be exercised pursuant to § 8.01-328.1.

192 § 18.2-152.16. Forfeitures for violation of this chapter.

193 All moneys and other income, including all proceeds earned but not yet received by a defendant from 194 a third party as a result of the defendant's violations of this chapter, all computer equipment, all 195 computer software, and all personal property used in connection with any violation of this chapter shall 196 be subject to lawful seizure by a law-enforcement officer and forfeiture by the Commonwealth in 197 accordance with the procedures set forth in Chapter 22.1 (§ 19.2-386.1 et seq.) of Title 19.2, applied
198 mutatis mutandis.

199 § 18.2-376.1. Enhanced penalties for using a computer in certain violations.

200 Any person who uses a computer in connection with a violation of §§ 18.2-374, 18.2-375, or 201 § 18.2-376 is guilty of a separate and distinct Class 5 felony that shall be imposed in addition to any 202 punishment otherwise prescribed for a violation of any of those sections.

203 2. That the provisions of this act may result in a net increase in periods of imprisonment or 204 commitment. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4, the estimated amount of the necessary appropriation cannot 205 be determined for periods of imprisonment in state adult correctional facilities and cannot be
