6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 20-124.2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 20-124.2. Court-ordered custody and visitation arrangements.

9 A. In any case in which custody or visitation of minor children is at issue, whether in a circuit or 10 district court, the court shall provide prompt adjudication, upon due consideration of all the facts, of 11 custody and visitation arrangements, including support and maintenance for the children, prior to other 12 considerations arising in the matter. The court may enter an order pending the suit as provided in 13 § 20-103. The procedures for determining custody and visitation arrangements shall insofar as practical,
14 and consistent with the ends of justice, preserve the dignity and resources of family members. Mediation 15 shall be used as an alternative to litigation where appropriate. When mediation is used in custody and 16 visitation matters, the goals may include development of a proposal addressing the child's residential 17 schedule and care arrangements, and how disputes between the parents will be handled in the future.

18 B. In determining custody, the court shall give primary consideration to the best interests of the 19 child. The court shall assure minor children of frequent and continuing contact with both parents, when 20 appropriate, and encourage parents to share in the responsibilities of rearing their children. As between 21 the parents, there shall be no presumption or inference of law in favor of either. The court shall give 22 due regard to the primacy of the parent-child relationship but may upon a showing by clear and 23 convincing evidence that the best interest of the child would be served thereby award custody or 24 visitation to any other person with a legitimate interest. The court may award joint custody or sole 25 custody.

26 C. The court may order that support be paid for any child of the parties. The court shall also order
27 that support will continue to be paid for any child over the age of ~~eighteen~~ 18 who is (i) a full-time 28 high school student, (ii) not self-supporting, and (iii) living in the home of the party seeking or 29 receiving child support until such child reaches the age of ~~nineteen~~ 19 or graduates from high school,
30 whichever first occurs. The court may also order the continuation of support for any child over the age 31 of ~~eighteen~~ 18 who is (i) severely and permanently mentally or physically disabled, (ii) unable to live
32 independently and support himself, and (iii) resides in the home of the parent seeking or receiving child
33 support. In addition, the court may confirm a stipulation or agreement of the parties which extends a 34 support obligation beyond when it would otherwise terminate as provided by law. The court shall have 35 no authority to decree support of children payable by the estate of a deceased party. The court may 36 make such further decree as it shall deem expedient concerning support of the minor children, including 37 an order that any party provide health care coverage.

38 D. In any case in which custody or visitation of minor children is at issue, whether in a circuit or 39 district court, the court may order an independent mental health or psychological evaluation to assist 40 the court in its determination of the best interests of the child. The court may enter such order as it
41 deems appropriate for the payment of the costs of the evaluation by the parties.

42 E. The court shall have the continuing authority and jurisdiction to make any additional orders 43 necessary to effectuate and enforce any order entered pursuant to this section or § 20-103 including the 44 authority to punish as contempt of court any willful failure of a party to comply with the provisions of 45 the order.
