HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 802

Offered January 22, 2003

Commending Bryan E. Kornblau.

Patrons—Janis, Reid, Marrs, McDougale, Nixon, O'Bannon and Ware

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth Transportation Board is made up of 17 Virginia citizens, appointed by the Governor, who collectively make decisions that affect the daily lives of Virginians across the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, the Board, which meets monthly, is primarily responsible for locating the routes of Virginia's highways, approving construction contracts, creating traffic regulations, naming highways, and administering and allocating the Transportation Trust Fund; and

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth Transportation Board also solicits and considers public comment on the matters before it; and

WHEREAS, from July 1, 1999, until the summer of 2002, Bryan E. Kornblau of Richmond served on the Commonwealth Transportation Board, representing the Richmond District; and

WHEREAS, for three years, Bryan E. Kornblau met the extraordinary demands and challenges of service on the Commonwealth Transportation Board and rendered honorable service to the citizens of Virginia; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Bryan E. Kornblau for his exemplary service on the Commonwealth Transportation Board; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Bryan E. Kornblau as an expression of the appreciation and gratitude of the General Assembly.
