6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 24.2-687 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 24.2-687. Authorization for distribution of information on referendum elections.

9 A. The governing body of any county or city may provide for the preparation and printing of an 10 explanation for each referendum question to be submitted to the voters of the county or city to be
11 distributed at the polling places on the day of the referendum election. The explanation shall be made
12 available at registration sites prior to the referendum, if practicable, and be posted at the polling places
13 on the day of the election. The governing body may have the explanation published by paid
14 advertisement in a newspaper with general circulation in the county or city ~~once preceding the final day~~
15 ~~for registration, if practicable, and once during the week one or more times~~ preceding the referendum.

16 The explanation shall contain the ballot question and a statement of not more than 500 words on the 17 proposed question. The explanation shall be presented in plain English, shall be limited to a neutral
18 explanation, and shall not present arguments by either proponents or opponents of the proposal. The 19 attorney for the county or city or, if there is no county or city attorney, the attorney for the 20 Commonwealth shall prepare the explanation. "Plain English" means written in nontechnical, readily
21 understandable language using words of common everyday usage and avoiding legal terms and phrases
22 or other terms and words of art whose usage or special meaning primarily is limited to a particular field
23 or profession.

24 B. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit a county or city from disseminating other
25 neutral materials or advertisements concerning issues of public concern that are the subject of a
26 referendum; however, the materials or advertisements shall not advocate the passage or defeat of the 27 referendum question.

28 C. This section shall not be applicable to statewide referenda.

29 D. Any failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not affect the validity of the 30 referendum.
