

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY — CHAPTER

An Act to amend and reenact § 40.1-29 of the Code of Virginia, relating to payment of wages or salaries; deposit to account.

[H 472]

Approved

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 40.1-29 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 40.1-29. Time and medium of payment; withholding wages; written statement of earnings; agreement for forfeiture of wages; penalty for violation of section; proceedings to enforce compliance.

A. 1. All employers operating a business shall establish regular pay periods and rates of pay for employees except executive personnel. All such employers shall pay salaried employees at least once each month and employees paid on an hourly rate at least once every two weeks or twice in each month, except that (i) a student who is currently enrolled in a work-study program or its equivalent administered by any secondary school, institution of higher education or trade school, and (ii) employees whose weekly wages total more than 150 percent of the average weekly wage of the Commonwealth as defined in § 65.2-500, upon agreement by each affected employee, may be paid once each month if the institution or employer so chooses. Upon termination of employment an employee shall be paid all wages or salaries due him for work performed prior thereto; such payment shall be made on or before the date on which he would have been paid for such work had his employment not been terminated.

2. Any such employer who knowingly fails to make payment of wages in accordance with subsection A of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 for each violation. The Commissioner shall notify any employer who he alleges has violated any provision of this section by certified mail. Such notice shall contain a description of the alleged violation. Within 15 days of receipt of notice of the alleged violation, the employer may request an informal conference regarding such violation with the Commissioner. In determining the amount of any penalty to be imposed, the Commissioner shall consider the size of the business of the employer charged and the gravity of the violation. The decision of the Commissioner shall be final.

B. Payment of wages or salaries shall be (i) in lawful money of the United States, (ii) by check payable at face value upon demand in lawful money of the United States or (iii) by electronic automated fund transfer in lawful money of the United States into an account in the name of the employee at a financial institution designated by the employee, or ~~in a trust account on which the employee is a named beneficiary~~ by credit to a prepaid debit card or card account from which the employee is able to withdraw or transfer funds with full disclosure by the employer of any applicable fees and affirmative consent thereto by the employee.

Failure of the employee to designate a financial institution or consent to payment ~~into a trust account by credit to a prepaid debit card or card account~~ under clause (iii), ~~above~~ shall require payment of wages and salaries to be made in accordance with (i) or (ii) of this subsection.

C. No employer shall withhold any part of the wages or salaries of any employee except for payroll, wage or withholding taxes or in accordance with law, without the written and signed authorization of the employee. An employer, upon request of his employee, shall furnish the latter a written statement of the gross wages earned by the employee during any pay period and the amount and purpose of any deductions therefrom.

D. No employer shall require any employee, except executive personnel, to sign any contract or agreement which provides for the forfeiture of the employee's wages for time worked as a condition of employment or the continuance therein, except as otherwise provided by law.

E. An employer who willfully and with intent to defraud violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

F. The Commissioner may require a written complaint of the violation of this section and, with the written and signed consent of an employee, may institute proceedings on behalf of an employee to enforce compliance with this section, and to collect any moneys unlawfully withheld from such employee which shall be paid to the employee entitled thereto. In addition, following the issuance of a final order by the Commissioner or a court, the Commissioner may engage private counsel, approved by the Attorney General, to collect any moneys owed to the employee or the Commonwealth. Upon entry of a final order of the Commissioner, or upon entry of a judgment, against the employer, the Commissioner or the court shall assess attorney's fees of one-third of the amount set forth in the final order or judgment.

57 G. In addition to being subject to any other penalty provided by the provisions of this section, any 58 employer who fails to make payment of wages in accordance with subsection A of this section shall be 59 liable for the payment of all wages due, plus interest at an annual rate of eight percent accruing from 60 the date the wages were due.

61 H. Civil penalties owed under this section shall be paid to the Commissioner for deposit into the 62 general fund of the State Treasurer. The Commissioner shall prescribe procedures for the payment of 63 proposed assessments of penalties which are not contested by employers. Such procedures shall include
64 provisions for an employer to consent to abatement of the alleged violation and pay a proposed penalty
65 or a negotiated sum in lieu of such penalty without admission of any civil liability arising from such 66 alleged violation.

67 Final orders of the Commissioner, the general district courts or the circuit courts may be recorded,
68 enforced and satisfied as orders or decrees of a circuit court upon certification of such orders by the 69 Commissioner or the court as appropriate.
