6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 33.1-132 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 33.1-132. Remedy of landowners under certain conditions.

9 Whenever the Commissioner enters upon and takes possession of property under the provisions of 10 §§ 33.1-119 through 33.1-121 and has not instituted condemnation proceedings within 180 days after the 11 recordation of a certificate as required by § 33.1-127, whether the construction of the highway project 12 has been completed or not, the property owner may, if no agreement has been made with the 13 Commissioner as to compensation and damage, if any, petition the circuit court of the county or the 14 court of the city in which such cases are tried, and in which the greater portion of the property lies for 15 the appointment of commissioners or a jury to determine just compensation for the property taken and 16 damages done, if any. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the Commissioner at least 10 days
17 before it is presented to the court, and the Commissioner shall file an answer thereto within five days
18 after the petition is so presented. If it be found by the court that a reasonable time has elapsed for the 19 completion of the construction of the highway project or that 60 days have elapsed since the completion
20 of the construction of the highway project or that more than ~~one year~~ has 180 days have elapsed since 21 the Commissioner entered upon and took possession of the property, without condemnation proceedings 22 being instituted and without an agreement having been made between the property owner and the 23 Commissioner as to compensation and damages, if any, commissioners or a jury shall be appointed to 24 ascertain the amount of compensation to be paid for the property taken and damages done, if any. The 25 proceedings shall thereafter be governed by the procedure prescribed by Chapter 2 (§ 25.1-200 et seq.)
26 of Title 25.1 insofar as the same may be applicable.
