

2004 SESSION

INTRODUCED
REPRINT

047882500

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 262

Offered January 21, 2004

On the death of Olga R. Trollinger.

Patrons—Scott, J.M. and Hull; Senator: Whipple

WHEREAS, Olga R. Trollinger, a longtime resident of Falls Church and a prominent member of the community, died on December 21, 2003; and

WHEREAS, a native of Massachusetts, Olga Trollinger attended the Marjorie Webster School in Washington, D.C., and later moved with her first husband, the late Richard H. Robinson, Sr., to New Mexico, where he was elected Attorney General in 1954; and

WHEREAS, Olga Trollinger returned to the Washington area in 1962 and worked in the Washington office of United States Senator Clinton P. Anderson of New Mexico; and

WHEREAS, after her marriage to Inspector James P. Trollinger of the United States Capitol Police, Olga Trollinger continued working on Capitol Hill for the Senate Appropriations Committee until her retirement in 1987; and

WHEREAS, both Olga Trollinger and her husband were heavily involved in numerous community and political activities and organizations in Falls Church; and

WHEREAS, during a life of substantial achievement, Olga Trollinger served her family, her community, and the nation with great dedication and commitment; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with sadness the passing of an exceptional Virginian, Olga R. Trollinger; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Olga R. Trollinger as an expression of the respect in which her memory is held by the members of the General Assembly.

INTRODUCED

HJ262