HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 377

Offered February 13, 2004

Expressing appreciation for the hospitality extended by the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation and The College of William and Mary in Virginia.

Patron—Griffith

WHEREAS, on February seventh, two thousand and four, the General Assembly met in the Reconstructed Capitol at Williamsburg as guests of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation; and

WHEREAS, during this Twenty-third Commemorative Session, the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation presented to the members of the General Assembly participating in the Commemorative Session a copy of Gordon S. Wood's The American Revolution: A History; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this body express its appreciation for the generous hospitality extended by the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation and The College of William and Mary in Virginia, which jointly hosted a luncheon; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that this body also express its appreciation for the reception, dinner, and breakfast hosted by the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation; and

WHEREAS, it was additionally the observance of Charter Day for The College of William and Mary in Virginia; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby record its appreciation of the many courtesies extended this body, its members, and guests by the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation upon the occasion of the holding of the Session of the General Assembly of Virginia in the Reconstructed Capitol at Williamsburg on February seventh, two thousand and four; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the General Assembly hereby record its appreciation of the many courtesies extended this body, its members, and guests by The College of William and Mary in Virginia; and, be it

RESOLVED FINALLY, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare copies of this resolution for presentation to the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation and to The College of William and Mary in Virginia as a token of the appreciation of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
