28. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, items of income attributable to, derived from or in any way related to (i) assets stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost by an individual who was a victim or target of Nazi persecution or (ii) damages, reparations, or other consideration received by a victim or target of Nazi persecution to compensate such individual for performing labor against his will under the threat of death, during World War II and its prelude and direct aftermath. This subtraction shall not apply to assets acquired with such items of income or with the proceeds from the sale of assets stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost to, during World War II and its prelude and direct aftermath, a victim or target of Nazi persecution. The provisions of this subdivision shall only apply to an individual who was the first recipient of such items of income and who was a victim or target of Nazi persecution, or a spouse, widow, widower, or child or stepchild of such victim.

a. If the payment is received in installment payments pursuant to 7 C.F.R. § 1412.807(a)(2), then the entire gain recognized may be subtracted.

b. If the payment is received in a single payment pursuant to 7 C.F.R. § 1412.807(a)(3), then 20 percent of the recognized gain may be subtracted. The taxpayer may then deduct an equal amount in each of the four succeeding taxable years.

30. Effective for all taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2002, but before January 1, 2005, the indemnification payments received by contract poultry growers and table egg producers from the U.S. Department of Agriculture as a result of the depopulation of poultry flocks because of low pathogenic avian influenza in 2002. In no event shall indemnification payments made to owners of poultry who contract with poultry growers qualify for this subtraction.

31. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, the military death gratuity payment made after September 11, 2001, to the survivor of deceased military personnel killed in the line of duty, pursuant to Chapter 75 of Title 10 of the United States Code; however, the subtraction amount shall be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount that the survivor may exclude from his federal gross income in accordance with § 134 of the Internal Revenue Code.

D. In computing Virginia taxable income there shall be deducted from federal adjusted gross income:

1. a. The amount allowable for itemized deductions for federal income tax purposes where the taxpayer has elected for the taxable year to itemize deductions on his federal return, but reduced by the amount of income taxes imposed by the Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction and deducted on such federal return and increased by an amount which, when added to the amount deducted under § 170 of the Internal Revenue Code for mileage, results in a mileage deduction at the state level for such purposes at a rate of 18 cents per mile; or

b. Two thousand dollars for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987, through December 31, 1987; $2,700 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1988, through December 31, 1988; and $5,000 for married persons (one-half of such amounts in the case of a married individual filing a separate return); and $3,000 for single individuals for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1989; provided that the taxpayer has not itemized deductions for the taxable year on his federal income tax return. For purposes of this section, any person who may be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's return for the taxable year may compute the deduction only with respect to earned income.

2. a. A deduction in the amount of $700 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987, through 182 December 31, 1987, ~~and~~; $800 for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1988, through 183 December 31, 2003; and $1,200 for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2004, through 184 December 31, 2004, for each personal exemption allowable to the taxpayer for federal income tax 185 purposes. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the $1,200 deduction shall be 186 indexed annually in each such taxable year by an amount equivalent to the percentage increase in the 187 Consumer Price Index for all items, all urban consumers (CPI-U) from October 1 through September 30

188 of the year immediately preceding the affected taxable year. For taxable years beginning on and after 189 January 1, 1987, each blind or aged taxpayer as defined under § 63 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code 190 shall be entitled to an additional personal exemption.

191 b. An additional deduction of $200 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987, through December 192 31, 1987, for each blind or aged taxpayer as defined under § 63 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code. The 193 additional deduction for blind or aged taxpayers allowed under this subdivision and the additional 194 personal exemption allowed to blind or aged taxpayers under subdivision 2 a of this subsection shall be 195 allowable regardless of whether the taxpayer itemizes deductions for the taxable year for federal income 196 tax purposes.

197 3. A deduction equal to the amount of employment-related expenses upon which the federal credit is 198 based under § 21 of the Internal Revenue Code for expenses for household and dependent care services 199 necessary for gainful employment.

200 4. An additional $1,000 deduction for each child residing for the entire taxable year in a home under 201 permanent foster care placement as defined in § 63.2-908, provided the taxpayer can also claim the child
202 as a personal exemption under § 151 of the Internal Revenue Code.

203 5. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, a deduction in the amount of 204 $12,000 for taxpayers age 65 or older, or $6,000 for taxpayers age 62 through 64.

205 6. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997, the amount an individual pays as a fee
206 for an initial screening to become a possible bone marrow donor, if (i) the individual is not reimbursed 207 for such fee or (ii) the individual has not claimed a deduction for the payment of such fee on his federal 208 income tax return.

209 7. a. A deduction shall be allowed to the purchaser or contributor for the amount paid or contributed 210 during the taxable year for a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account entered into with the 211 Virginia College Savings Plan, pursuant to Chapter 4.9 (§ 23-38.75 et seq.) of Title 23. Except as 212 provided in subdivision 7 c, the amount deducted on any individual income tax return in any taxable 213 year shall be limited to $2,000 per prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account. No deduction shall 214 be allowed pursuant to this section if such payments or contributions are deducted on the purchaser's or 215 contributor's federal income tax return. If the purchase price or annual contribution to a savings trust
216 account exceeds $2,000, the remainder may be carried forward and subtracted in future taxable years 217 until the purchase price or savings trust contribution has been fully deducted; however, except as 218 provided in subdivision 7 c, in no event shall the amount deducted in any taxable year exceed $2,000
219 per contract or savings trust account. Notwithstanding the statute of limitations on assessments contained 220 in § 58.1-312, any deduction taken hereunder shall be subject to recapture in the taxable year or years in 221 which distributions or refunds are made for any reason other than (i) to pay qualified higher education
222 expenses, as defined in § 529 of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) the beneficiary's death, disability, or 223 receipt of a scholarship. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "purchaser" or "contributor"
224 means the person shown as such on the records of the Virginia College Savings Plan as of December 31
225 of the taxable year. In the case of a transfer of ownership of a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust 226 account, the transferee shall succeed to the transferor's tax attributes associated with a prepaid tuition 227 contract or savings trust account, including, but not limited to, carryover and recapture of deductions.

228 b. The amount paid for a prepaid tuition contract during taxable years beginning on or after January
229 1, 1996, but before January 1, 1998, shall be deducted in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 230 1998, and shall be subject to the limitations set out in subdivision 7 a.

231 c. A purchaser of a prepaid tuition contract or contributor to a savings trust account who has attained 232 age 70 shall not be subject to the limitation that the amount of the deduction not exceed $2,000 per 233 prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account in any taxable year. Such taxpayer shall be allowed a 234 deduction for the full amount paid for the contract or contributed to a savings trust account, less any 235 amounts previously deducted. If a prepaid tuition contract was purchased by such taxpayer during 236 taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, but before January 1, 1998, such taxpayer may take 237 the deduction for the full amount paid during such years, less any amounts previously deducted with 238 respect to such payments, in taxable year 1999 or by filing an amended return for taxable year 1998.

239 8. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, the total amount an individual actually 240 contributed in funds to the Virginia Public School Construction Grants Program and Fund, established in 242 such amount on his federal income tax return.

243 9. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1999, an amount equal to 20 percent of the

244 tuition costs incurred by an individual employed as a primary or secondary school teacher licensed
245 pursuant to Chapter 15 (§ 22.1-289.1 et seq.) of Title 22.1 to attend continuing teacher education courses 246 that are required as a condition of employment; however, the deduction provided by this subsection shall 247 be available only if (i) the individual is not reimbursed for such tuition costs and (ii) the individual has 248 not claimed a deduction for the payment of such tuition costs on his federal income tax return.

249 10. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, the amount an individual pays 250 annually in premiums for long-term health care insurance, provided the individual has not claimed a 251 deduction for federal income tax purposes.

252 E. There shall be added to or subtracted from federal adjusted gross income, as the case may be, the 253 individual's share, as beneficiary of an estate or trust, of the Virginia fiduciary adjustment determined 254 under § 58.1-361.

255 F. There shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the amounts provided in § 58.1-315 as 256 transitional modifications.
