SENATE BILL NO. 577

Offered January 15, 2004

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 16.1-247 and 16.1-249 of the Code of Virginia, relating to custody and confinement for juvenile offenses.

Patron—Colgan

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That §§ 16.1-247 and 16.1-249 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 16.1-247. Duties of person taking child into custody.

A. A person taking a child into custody pursuant to the provisions of § 16.1-246 A, during such hours as the court is open, shall, with all practicable speed, and in accordance with the provisions of this law and the orders of court pursuant thereto, bring the child to the judge or intake officer of the court and the judge, intake officer or arresting officer shall, in the most expeditious manner practicable, give notice of the action taken, together with a statement of the reasons for taking the child into custody, orally or in writing to the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis.

B. A person taking a child into custody pursuant to the provisions of subsection B, C or D of § 16.1-246, during such hours as the court is open, shall, with all practicable speed, and in accordance with the provisions of this law and the orders of court pursuant thereto:

1. Release the child to such child's parents, guardian, custodian or other suitable person able and willing to provide supervision and care for such child and issue oral counsel and warning as may be appropriate; or

2. Release the child to such child's parents, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis upon their promise to bring the child before the court when requested; or

3. If not released, bring the child to the judge or intake officer of the court and, in the most expeditious manner practicable, give notice of the action taken, together with a statement of the reasons for taking the child into custody, in writing to the judge or intake officer, and the judge, intake officer or arresting officer shall give notice of the action taken orally or in writing to the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis. Nothing herein shall prevent the child from being held for the purpose of administering a blood or breath test to determine the alcoholic content of his blood where the child has been taken into custody pursuant to § 18.2-266.

C. A person taking a child into custody pursuant to the provisions of subsections E and F of § 16.1-246, during such hours as the court is open, shall, with all practicable speed and in accordance with the provisions of this law and the orders of court pursuant thereto:

1. Release the child to the institution, facility or home from which he ran away or escaped; or

2. If not released, bring the child to the judge or intake officer of the court and, in the most expeditious manner practicable, give notice of the action taken, together with a statement of the reasons for taking the child into custody, in writing to the judge or intake officer, and the judge, intake officer or arresting officer shall give notice of the action taken orally or in writing to the institution, facility or home in which the child had been placed and orally or in writing to the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis.

D. A person taking a child into custody pursuant to the provisions of § 16.1-246 A, during such hours as the court is not open, shall with all practicable speed and in accordance with the provisions of this law and the orders of court pursuant thereto:

1. Release the child taken into custody pursuant to a warrant on bail or recognizance pursuant to Chapter 9 (§ 19.2-119 et seq.) of Title 19.2; or

2. Place the child in a detention home or in shelter care; or

3. Place the child in a jail subject to the provisions of § 16.1-249.

E. A person taking a child into custody pursuant to the provisions of subsection B, C or D of § 16.1-246 during such hours as the court is not open, shall:

1. Release the child pursuant to the provisions of subdivision B 1 or B 2 of this section; or

2. Release the child on bail or recognizance pursuant to Chapter 9 of Title 19.2; or

3. Place the child taken into custody pursuant to § 16.1-246 B in shelter care after the issuance of a detention order pursuant to § 16.1-255; or

4. Place the child taken into custody pursuant to subsection C or D of § 16.1-246 in shelter care or in a detention home after the issuance of a warrant by a magistrate; or

INTRODUCED

SB577

59 5. Place the child in a jail subject to the provisions of § 16.1-249 after the issuance of a warrant by a
60 magistrate or after the issuance of a detention order pursuant to § 16.1-255; or

61 6. In addition to any other provisions of this subsection, detain the child for a reasonably necessary
62 period of time in order to administer a breath or blood test to determine the alcohol content of his 63 blood, if such child was taken into custody pursuant to § 18.2-266.

64 F. A person taking a child into custody pursuant to the provisions of § 16.1-246 E, during such hours
65 as the court is not open, shall:

66 1. Release the child to the institution or facility from which he ran away or escaped; or

67 2. Detain the child in a detention home or in a jail subject to the provisions of § 16.1-249 after the 68 issuance of a warrant by a magistrate or after the issuance of a detention order pursuant to § 16.1-255.

69 G. A person taking a child into custody pursuant to the provisions of § 16.1-246 F, during such 70 hours as the court is not open, shall:

71 1. Release the child to the facility or home from which he ran away; or

72 2. Detain the child in shelter care after the issuance of a detention order pursuant to § 16.1-255 or 73 after the issuance of a warrant by a magistrate.

74 H. If a parent, guardian or other custodian fails, when requested, to bring the child before the court
75 as provided in subdivisions B 2 and E 1 hereof, the court may issue a detention order directing that the 76 child be taken into custody and be brought before the court.

77 I. A law-enforcement officer taking a child into custody pursuant to the provisions of § 16.1-246 G
78 shall notify the intake officer of the juvenile court of the action taken. The intake officer shall determine
79 if the child's conduct or situation is within the jurisdiction of the court and if a petition should be filed
80 on behalf of the child. If the intake officer determines that a petition should not be filed, the 81 law-enforcement officer shall as soon as practicable:

82 1. Return the child to his home;

83 2. Release the child to such child's parents, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco
84 parentis;

85 3. Place the child in shelter care for a period not longer than twenty-four hours after the issuance of 86 a detention order pursuant to § 16.1-255; or

87 4. Release the child.

88 During the period of detention authorized by this subsection no child shall be confined in any 89 detention home, jail or other facility for the detention of adults.

90 J. If a child is taken into custody pursuant to the provisions of subsection B, F or G of § 16.1-246
91 by a law-enforcement officer during such hours as the court is not in session and the child is not
92 released or transferred to a facility or institution in accordance with subsection E, G, or I of this section,
93 the child shall be held in custody only so long as is reasonably necessary to complete identification,
94 investigation and processing. The child shall be held under visual supervision in a nonlocked,
95 multipurpose area which is not designated for residential use. The child shall not be handcuffed or 96 otherwise secured to a stationary object.

97 § 16.1-249. Places of confinement for juveniles.

98 A. If it is ordered that a juvenile remain in detention or shelter care pursuant to § 16.1-248.1, such 99 juvenile may be detained, pending a court hearing, in the following places:

100 1. An approved foster home or a home otherwise authorized by law to provide such care;

101 2. A facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;

102 3. If a juvenile is alleged to be delinquent, in a detention home or group home approved by the 103 Department;

104 4. Any other suitable place designated by the court and approved by the Department;

105 5. To the extent permitted by federal law, a separate juvenile detention facility located upon the site
106 of an adult regional jail facility established by any county, city or any combination thereof constructed
107 after 1994, approved by the Department of Juvenile Justice and certified by the Board of Juvenile 108 Justice for the holding and detention of juveniles.

109 B. No juvenile shall be detained or confined in any jail or other facility for the detention of adult
110 offenders or persons charged with crime except as provided in subsection D, E, F or G of this section.

111 C. The official in charge of a jail or other facility for the detention of adult offenders or persons
112 charged with crime shall inform the court immediately when a juvenile who is or appears to be under 113 the age of ~~eighteen~~ 18 years is received at the facility, and shall deliver him to the court upon request,
114 or transfer him to a detention facility designated by the court.

115 D. When a case is transferred to the circuit court in accordance with the provisions of subsection A
116 of § 16.1-269.1 and an order is entered by the circuit court in accordance with § 16.1-269.6, or in
117 accordance with the provisions of § 16.1-270 where the juvenile has waived the jurisdiction of the 118 district court, or when the district court has certified a charge to the grand jury pursuant to subsection B
119 or C of § 16.1-269.1, the juvenile, if in confinement, may be transferred to a jail or other facility for the 120 detention of adults and need no longer be entirely separate and removed from adults.

121 E. If, in the judgment of the custodian, a juvenile has demonstrated that he is a threat to the security
122 or safety of the other juveniles detained or the staff of the home or facility, the judge shall determine
123 whether such juvenile should be transferred to another juvenile facility or, if the child is ~~fourteen~~ 14
124 years of age or older, a jail or other facility for the detention of adults; provided, that (i) the detention is 125 in a room or ward entirely separate and removed from adults, (ii) adequate supervision is provided, and 126 (iii) the facility is approved by the State Board of Corrections for detention of juveniles.

127 F. If, in the judgment of the custodian, it has been demonstrated that the presence of a juvenile in a
128 facility creates a threat to the security or safety of the other juveniles detained or the staff of the home
129 or facility, the custodian may transfer the juvenile to another juvenile facility, or, if the child is ~~fourteen~~
130 14 years of age or older, a jail or other facility for the detention of adults pursuant to the limitations of 131 clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of subsection E for a period not to exceed six hours prior to a court hearing and 132 an additional six hours after the court hearing unless a longer period is ordered pursuant to subsection E.

133 G. If a juvenile ~~fourteen~~ 14 years of age or older is charged with an offense which, if committed by 134 an adult, would be a felony or Class 1 misdemeanor, and the judge or intake officer determines that 135 secure detention is needed for the safety of the juvenile or the community, such juvenile may be 136 detained for a period not to exceed six hours prior to a court hearing and six hours after the court
137 hearing in a temporary lock-up room or ward for juveniles while arrangements are completed to transfer
138 the juvenile to a juvenile facility. Such room or ward may be located in a building which also contains 139 a jail or other facility for the detention of adults, provided (i) such room or ward is totally separate and 140 removed from adults or juveniles transferred to the circuit court pursuant to Article 7 (§ 16.1-269.1 et 141 seq.) of this chapter, (ii) constant supervision is provided, and (iii) the facility is approved by the State
142 Board of Corrections for the detention of juveniles. The State Board of Corrections is authorized and 143 directed to prescribe minimum standards for temporary lock-up rooms and wards based on the 144 requirements set out in this subsection.

145 G1. Any juvenile who has been ordered detained in a secure detention facility pursuant to 146 § 16.1-248.1 may be held incident to a court hearing (i) in a court holding cell for a period not to 147 exceed six hours provided the juvenile is entirely separate and removed from detained adults or (ii) in a
148 nonsecure area provided constant supervision is provided.

149 H. If a judge, intake officer or magistrate orders the predispositional detention of persons ~~eighteen~~
150 18 years of age or older, such detention shall be in an adult facility; however, if the predispositional
151 detention is ordered for a violation of the terms and conditions of release from a juvenile correctional 152 center, the judge, intake officer or magistrate may order such detention be in a juvenile facility.

153 I. The Departments of Corrections, Juvenile Justice and Criminal Justice Services shall assist the 154 localities or combinations thereof in implementing this section and ensuring compliance herewith.
