Referred to Committee on Appropriations

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 51.1-138 and 51.1-206, as they shall become effective, 51.1-207, 51.1-208, 51.1-216, 51.1-217, 51.1-811, and 51.1-1404 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 51.1-138. (Effective July 1, 2005) Benefits.

A. Employees who become members under this article and on whose behalf contributions are paid as provided in this article shall be entitled to benefits under the retirement system.

B. By resolution legally adopted and approved by the Board, the employer may elect to provide benefits equivalent to those provided under the State Police Officers' Retirement System, as set out in Chapter 2 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.) of this title except for § 51.1-209, in lieu of the benefits that would otherwise be provided hereunder for any employees who are employed in (i) law-enforcement positions comparably hazardous to that of a state police officer, including any sworn law-enforcement officer who has the duty and obligation to enforce the penal and traffic laws of this Commonwealth as directed by his superior officer, if so certified by his appointing authority, (ii) positions as full-time salaried fire fighters, or (iii) positions as regional jail superintendents and jail officers of regional jail farms, regional jails or jail authorities, as approved by the respective jail board or authority and by the participating political subdivisions of such entities. Sheriffs and deputy sheriffs of political subdivisions which participate in the retirement system shall receive benefits equivalent to those of state police officers, except for the benefits provided under § 51.1-209, regardless of whether the employer has elected to provide equivalent benefits as set out in this subsection.

C. Each employer providing the benefits of subsection B for its employees prior to July 1, 1990, may elect to provide for the early retirement of employees as set forth in this subsection in lieu of the early retirement and death before retirement provisions of the State Police Officers' Retirement System. Such election must be made to the Board in writing prior to July 1, 1990. Any member in service on or after his fifty-fifth birthday with five or more years of creditable service (i) as a member in the retirement system established by this chapter, (ii) as a member in the retirement system established by Chapter 2 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.) of this title, or (iii) as a member in the retirement system established by Chapter 2.1 (§ 51.1-211 et seq.) of this title may retire upon written notification to the Board setting forth at what time the retirement is to become effective. The effective date shall be after his last day of service but shall not be more than 90 days prior to the filing of such notice. The member shall receive an allowance that shall be determined in the same manner as for retirement at an employee's normal retirement with creditable service and average final compensation being determined as of the date of his actual retirement. If the member has less than 30 years of service at retirement, the amount of the retirement allowance shall be reduced on an actuarial equivalent basis for the period by which the actual retirement date precedes the earlier of (a) the member's normal retirement date or (b) the first date on or after the member's fifty-fifth birthday on which the member would have completed a total of 30 years of creditable service. Effective December 31, 2003, any employee in service on June 30, 2002, and July 1, 2002, who is credited with five or more years of creditable service rendered under this chapter, Chapter 2 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.), or Chapter 2.1 (§ 51.1-211 et seq.) of this title shall not be subject to the vesting requirements of this section, and §§ 51.1-205 and 51.1-216.

Members retiring under the provisions of this subsection shall be entitled to receive post-retirement supplements as provided in § 51.1-166. ~~In computing the amount of any supplement, any additional allowances being paid under the provisions of subsection B of § 51.1-206 shall be disregarded.~~ In the case of death before retirement, members whose employers elect to provide benefits in accordance with the provisions of this subsection and who have not attained the age of 50 on the date of death shall be assumed to be 50 years of age for the purposes of reducing the benefits on an actuarial equivalent basis.

D. The retirement system shall not be liable for the payment of any retirement allowances or other benefits on behalf of a member or beneficiary of a member for which reserves have not been previously 59 created from funds contributed by the employer or the members for such benefits.

60 § 51.1-206. (Effective July 1, 2005) Service retirement allowance.

61 A. A member shall receive an annual retirement allowance, payable for life, as follows:

62 1. Normal retirement. - The allowance shall equal ~~1.702.70~~ percent of his average final compensation
63 multiplied by the amount of creditable service.

64 For retirements between October 1, 1994, and December 31, 1998, any state police officer who is a
65 member or beneficiary of a retirement system administered by the Board shall receive an additional 66 retirement allowance equal to three percent of the service or disability retirement allowance payable 67 under this section. Average final compensation attributable to service as Governor, Lieutenant Governor,
68 Attorney General, or member of the General Assembly shall not be included in computing this 69 additional retirement allowance.

70 2. Early retirement. - The allowance shall be determined in the same manner as for normal retirement
71 with creditable service and average final compensation being determined as of the date of actual 72 retirement. If the member has less than 25 years of service at retirement, the amount of the retirement
73 allowance shall be reduced on an actuarial equivalent basis for the period by which the actual retirement
74 date precedes the earlier of (i) his normal retirement date or (ii) the first date ~~on or~~ after his fiftieth
75 birthday on which he would have completed a total of 25 years of creditable service.

76 3. 50/10 retirement. - The allowance shall be payable in a monthly stream of payments equal to the 77 greater of (i) the amount the member would receive if he had taken early retirement or (ii) the 78 actuarially calculated present value of the member's accumulated contributions, including accrued
79 interest.

80 B. In addition to the allowance payable under subsection A, a member shall receive annually from 81 the date of his retirement until his retirement age, as such term is defined under the Social Security Act
82 (42 U.S.C. § 416 et seq., as now or hereafter amended), an allowance equal to $9,264. Beginning July 1, 83 2001, and biennially thereafter, such allowance shall be reviewed and adjusted by the Board to an 84 amount recommended by the actuary of the Virginia Retirement System based upon increases in social 85 security benefits in the interim.

86 This subsection shall not apply to the following: (i) any member who qualifies for retirement under 87 subsection C of § 51.1-205 and is credited with less than 20 years' service rendered in a hazardous
88 position or (ii) any member employed initially ~~on or~~ after July 1, 1974, who is credited with less than
89 20 years' service rendered in a hazardous position. However, any service rendered as an employee, as 90 such term is defined in § 51.1-212, shall be deemed as service in a hazardous position for purposes of 91 the additional retirement allowance herein.

92 CB. If a beneficiary of a service retirement allowance under this chapter is at any time in service as 93 an employee in a position covered for retirement purposes under the provisions of this or any chapter
94 other than Chapter 7 (§ 51.1-700 et seq.) of this title, his retirement allowance shall cease while so
95 employed.

96 § 51.1-207. Death before retirement.

97 A. If a member dies before retirement, ~~and if no benefits are payable under subsection B,~~ the amount
98 of his accumulated contributions shall be paid to the designated beneficiary or to a surviving relative
99 according to the same order of precedence as set forth in subsection A of § 51.1-162. This amount shall 100 be reduced by the amount of any retirement allowance previously received by the member under this
101 chapter or the abolished system. Each member shall designate who is to receive a refund of accumulated
102 contributions credited to his account in the event of the death of the member prior to retirement. The 103 designation must be made on a form prepared by the Board, signed and acknowledged by the member
104 before a person authorized to take acknowledgments, and filed in a manner prescribed by the Board.
105 The designation may be changed by the member by the written designation of some other person,
106 signed, acknowledged, and filed in a manner prescribed by the Board.

107 If no designation has been made, or the death of the designated person occurs prior to the death of 108 the member and another designation has not been made, the proceeds shall be paid to the persons
109 surviving at the death of the member in the same order of precedence as set forth in subsection A of 110 § 51.1-162.

111 B. If a member dies in service and if no benefits are payable under subsection C, a retirement
112 allowance shall be paid to the person designated as provided in subsection A of this section if the 113 person is the member's (i) surviving spouse, (ii) minor child, or (iii) parent(s). If no designation has 114 been made, or if the death of the designated person occurs prior to the death of the member and another
115 designation has not been made, a retirement allowance shall be paid in the same order of precedence as 116 set forth in subsection B of § 51.1-162. The retirement allowance shall be continued during the lifetime
117 of the person or in the case of a minor child until the child dies or attains the age of majority,
118 whichever occurs first. The retirement allowance shall equal the decreased retirement allowance that 119 would have been payable under the joint and survivor option so that the same amount would be
120 continued to such person after the member's death. If the member dies prior to his fiftieth birthday, then, for purposes of this subsection, the member shall be presumed to be age fifty on his date of death. When determining the allowance that would have been payable to the member had the member retired on the date of his death, the provisions of subsection B of § 51.1-206 shall not apply. If the person elects in writing under seal and duly acknowledged, the amount of the member's accumulated contributions shall be paid to the person exclusively, in lieu of any other benefits under this section. This amount shall be reduced by the amount of any retirement allowance previously received by the member.

C. If a member dies in service from a cause compensable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act (§ 65.2-100 et seq.), a retirement allowance shall be paid to the member's surviving spouse. If no compensation is finally awarded under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act due to legal proceedings or otherwise resulting in settlement from the persons causing such death, the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission shall determine whether the member's death was from a cause compensable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act. If the member leaves no surviving spouse or the surviving spouse dies, any minor children of the deceased member shall be paid an allowance until the children die or attain the age of majority, whichever occurs first. If more than one minor child survives the deceased member, the allowance shall be divided in a manner determined by the Board. If the deceased member leaves neither surviving spouse nor minor child, the allowance, divided in a manner determined by the Board, shall be paid to the member's parents during their lives.

The retirement allowance, payable hereunder to a qualifying survivor, shall be the annual amount which when added to the compensation payable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act for the death of the member, shall equal fifty percent of the member's average final compensation if the survivor does not qualify for death benefits under the provisions of the Social Security Act in effect on the date of the death of the member. If the survivor qualifies for death benefits under the provisions of the Social Security Act in effect on the date of the death of the member, the allowance payable from the retirement system when added to the compensation payable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act shall equal thirty-three and one-third percent of the member's average final compensation.

Any beneficiary entitled to the entire amount of a retirement allowance under the provisions of this subsection as a result of the death of a member shall be entitled to waive his rights to the allowance by written notification to the Board within ninety days after the death of the member in order to make available a retirement allowance under the provisions of subsection B of this section.

§ 51.1-208. Post-retirement supplements.

In computing the amount of any post-retirement supplements, any additional allowances being paid under the provisions of subsection B of § 51.1-206 shall be disregarded. Any recipient of an allowance which initially commenced on or prior to January 1, 1990, shall be entitled to post-retirement supplements effective July 1, 1991.

This amount shall be reduced by the amount of any retirement allowance previously received by the member under this chapter or the abolished system. Each member shall designate who is to receive a refund of accumulated contributions credited to his account in the event of the death of the member prior to retirement. The designation must be made on a form prepared by the Board, signed and acknowledged by the member before a person authorized to take acknowledgments, and filed with the Board. The designation may be changed by the member by the written designation of some other person, signed, acknowledged, and filed with the Board.

If no designation has been made, or the death of the designated person occurs prior to the death of the member and another designation has not been made, the proceeds shall be paid to the persons surviving at the death of the member in the same order of precedence as set forth in subsection A of § 51.1-162.

The retirement allowance shall be continued during the lifetime of the person or in the case of a minor child until the child dies or attains the age of majority, whichever occurs first. The retirement allowance shall equal the decreased retirement allowance that would have been payable under the joint and survivor option so that the same amount would be

305 continued to such person after the member's death. If the member dies prior to his fiftieth birthday, then,
306 for purposes of this subsection, the member shall be presumed to be age fifty on his date of death.
307 ~~When determining the allowance that would have been payable to the member had the member retired~~

311 This amount shall be reduced by the amount of any retirement allowance previously received by the 312 member.

313 C. If a member dies in service from a cause compensable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation
314 Act (§ 65.2-100 et seq.), a retirement allowance shall be paid to the member's surviving spouse. If no

316 or otherwise resulting in settlement from the persons causing such death, the Virginia Workers'
317 Compensation Commission shall determine whether the member's death was from a cause compensable
318 under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act. If the member leaves no surviving spouse or the 319 surviving spouse dies, any minor children of the deceased member shall be paid an allowance until the 320 children die or attain the age of majority, whichever occurs first. If more than one minor child survives
321 the deceased member, the allowance shall be divided in a manner determined by the Board. If the 322 deceased member leaves neither surviving spouse nor minor child, the allowance shall be paid to the 323 member's parents, divided in a manner determined by the Board, during the lives of the parents.

324 The retirement allowance, payable hereunder to a qualifying survivor, shall be the annual amount
325 which, when added to the compensation payable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act for the 326 death of the member, shall equal fifty percent of the member's average final compensation if the
