VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY — CHAPTER

An Act to provide for the sale of surplus property from the Virginia Capitol restoration and expansion project and to transfer all net proceeds from the sale to the Virginia Capitol Preservation Foundation.

[S 905]

Approved

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

- 1. § 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Department of General Services shall conduct public sales or auctions of the surplus property from the Virginia Capitol restoration and expansion project. In addition, the Department shall provide for the sale of the chairs used in the chambers of the houses to current and former members of the General Assembly in accordance with guidelines established by the Clerk of the House of Delegates and the Clerk of the Senate. For purposes of this section, "surplus property" means any personal property including, but not limited to, any fixture, furnishing, material, supply, equipment, and recyclable item, that is determined to be salvageable surplus property as agreed to by the Clerk of the House of Delegates, the Clerk of the Senate, and the Secretary of Administration. There shall be appropriated to the Virginia Capitol Preservation Foundation a sum sufficient appropriation equal to all of the net proceeds, less actual direct costs, of the sales to support the restoration and ongoing preservation of Virginia's Capitol and Capitol Square.*
- 2. That an emergency exists and this act is in force from its passage.
