7. Budget amendment necessary: No

8. Fiscal Impact:

The proposed bill requires bingo callers or managers that are paid for their services to be registered with the Department of Charitable Gaming. The registration workload can be absorbed with the present staffing and funds. Charitable Gaming has 550 organizations, but potentially only the larger organizations will opt for paid callers and/or managers. An annual fee of $75 per registration is proposed in the bill. Since it is possible to have a paid caller and manager from the same organization, but not realistic that all organizations will pay both a caller and a manager, 1.25 registrants per organization were used for the revenue calculation.

Revenue calculations:

1.25 paid caller/manager * $75 for registration * 25 % of 550 organizations = $12,890

Due to the registration requirements, FY 2006 will potentially generate only $6,445. If the caller becomes very proficient at the game, there is the potential for increased gross profit, which would benefit the charitable organizations. This cannot be calculated at this time.
