6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 9.1-177.1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 9.1-177.1. Confidentiality of records of and reports on adult persons under investigation by or 9 placed on probation supervision with a local community-based probation program.

10 A. Any investigation report, including a presentencing investigation report, prepared by a local 11 probation officer is confidential and is exempt from the Virginia Freedom of Information Act
12 (§ 2.2-3700 et seq.). Such reports shall be filed as a part of the case record. Such reports shall be made 13 available only by court order and shall be sealed upon final order by the court; except that such reports 14 shall be available upon request to (i) any criminal justice agency, as defined in § 9.1-101, of this or any 15 other state or of the United States; (ii) any agency where the accused is referred for assessment or 16 treatment; or (iii) counsel for the person who is the subject of the report.

17 B. Any report on the progress of an offender under the supervision or of a local community-based 18 probation agency and any information relative to the identity of or inferring personal characteristics of 19 an accused, including demographic information, diagnostic summaries, records of office visits, medical, 20 substance abuse, psychiatric or psychological records or information, substance abuse screening, 21 assessment and testing information, and other sensitive information not explicitly classified as criminal 22 history record information, is exempt from the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (§ 2.2-3700 et seq.).
23 However, such information may be disseminated to criminal justice agencies as defined in § 9.1-101 in 24 the discretion of the custodian of these records.
