HOUSE BILL NO. 1552

Offered January 20, 2006

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 36-96.1 through 36-96.4, 36-96.6, and 55-248.47 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the Fair Housing Law; unlawful discrimination; sexual orientation.

Patron—Scott, J.M.

Referred to Committee on General Laws

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 36-96.1 through 36-96.4, 36-96.6, and 55-248.47 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 36-96.1. Declaration of policy.

A. This chapter shall be known and referred to as the Virginia Fair Housing Law.

B. It is the policy of the Commonwealth of Virginia to provide for fair housing throughout the Commonwealth, to all its citizens, regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap, and to that end to prohibit discriminatory practices with respect to residential housing by any person or group of persons, in order that the peace, health, safety, prosperity, and general welfare of all the inhabitants of the Commonwealth may be protected and insured. This law shall be deemed an exercise of the police power of the Commonwealth of Virginia for the protection of the people of the Commonwealth.

§ 36-96.1:1. Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Aggrieved person" means any person who (i) claims to have been injured by a discriminatory housing practice or (ii) believes that such person will be injured by a discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur.

"Complainant" means a person, including the Fair Housing Board, who files a complaint under § 36-96.9.

"Conciliation" means the attempted resolution of issues raised by a complainant, or by the investigation of such complaint, through informal negotiations involving the aggrieved person, the respondent, their respective authorized representatives and the Fair Housing Board.

"Conciliation agreement" means a written agreement setting forth the resolution of the issues in conciliation.

"Discriminatory housing practices" means an act that is unlawful under §§ 36-96.3, 36-96.4, 36-96.5, or § 36-96.6.

"Dwelling" means any building, structure, or portion thereof, that is occupied as, or designated or intended for occupancy as, a residence by one or more families, and any vacant land that is offered for sale or lease for the construction or location thereon of any such building, structure, or portion thereof.

"Elderliness" means an individual who has attained his fifty-fifth birthday.

"Familial status" means one or more individuals who have not attained the age of 18 years being domiciled with (i) a parent or other person having legal custody of such individual or individuals or (ii) the designee of such parent or other person having custody with the written permission of such parent or other person. The term "familial status" also includes any person who is pregnant or is in the process of securing legal custody of any individual who has not attained the age of 18 years. For purposes of this section, "in the process of securing legal custody" means having filed an appropriate petition to obtain legal custody of such minor in a court of competent jurisdiction.

"Family" includes a single individual, whether male or female.

"Handicap" means, with respect to a person, (i) a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of such person's major life activities; (ii) a record of having such an impairment; or (iii) being regarded as having such an impairment. The term does not include current, illegal use of, or addiction to a controlled substance as defined in Virginia or federal law. Neither the term "individual with handicap" nor the term "handicap" shall apply to an individual solely because that individual is a transvestite.

"Lending institution" includes any bank, savings institution, credit union, insurance company or mortgage lender.

"Person" means one or more individuals, whether male or female, corporations, partnerships, associations, labor organizations, fair housing organizations, civil rights organizations, organizations, governmental entities, legal representatives, mutual companies, joint stock companies, trusts, unincorporated organizations, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, receivers and fiduciaries.

HB1552

59 "Respondent" means any person or other entity alleged to have violated the provisions of this
60 chapter, as stated in a complaint filed under the provisions of this chapter and any other person joined 61 pursuant to the provisions of § 36-96.9.

62 "Restrictive covenant" means any specification in any instrument affecting title to real property that
63 purports to limit the use, occupancy, transfer, rental, or lease of any dwelling because of race, color,
64 religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap.

65 "To rent" means to lease, to sublease, to let, or otherwise to grant for consideration the right to
66 occupy premises not owned by the occupant.

67 § 36-96.2. Exemptions.

68 A. Except as provided in subdivision A 3 of § 36-96.3, this chapter shall not apply to any
69 single-family house sold or rented by an owner, provided that such private individual does not own
70 more than three single-family houses at any one time. In the case of the sale of any single-family house
71 by a private individual-owner not residing in the house at the time of the sale or who was not the most
72 recent resident of the house prior to sale, the exemption granted shall apply only with respect to one
73 such sale within any 24-month period; provided that such bona fide private individual owner does not
74 own any interest in, nor is there owned or reserved on his behalf, under any express or voluntary
75 agreement, title to or any right to all or a portion of the proceeds from the sale or rental of, more than 76 three such single-family houses at any one time. The sale or rental of any such single-family house shall 77 be exempt from the application of this chapter only if the house is sold or rented (i) without the use in
78 any manner of the sales or rental facilities or the sales or rental services of any real estate broker, agent,
79 salesperson, or of the facilities or the services of any person in the business of selling or renting
80 dwellings, or of any employee, independent contractor, or agent of any broker, agent, salesperson, or
81 person and (ii) without the publication, posting, or mailing, after notice, of any advertisement or written
82 notice in violation of this chapter. However, nothing herein shall prohibit the use of attorneys, escrow
83 agents, abstractors, title companies, and other professional assistance as necessary to perfect or transfer
84 the title. This exemption shall not apply to or inure to the benefit of any licensee of the Real Estate
85 Board or regulant of the Fair Housing Board, regardless of whether the licensee is acting in his personal
86 or professional capacity.

87 B. Except for subdivision A 3 of § 36-96.3, this chapter shall not apply to rooms or units in
88 dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families
89 living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living
90 quarters as his residence.

91 C. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a religious organization, association or society, or any
92 nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised, or controlled by or in conjunction with a
93 religious organization, association or society, from limiting the sale, rental, or occupancy of dwellings
94 that it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from
95 giving preferences to such persons, unless membership in such religion is restricted on account of race,
96 color, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap. Nor shall anything
97 in this chapter apply to a private membership club not in fact open to the public, which as an incident
98 to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodging which it owns or operates for other than a
99 commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from 100 giving preference to its members. Nor, where matters of personal privacy are involved, shall anything in 101 this chapter be construed to prohibit any private, state-owned or state-supported educational institution,
102 hospital, nursing home, religious or correctional institution, from requiring that persons of both sexes not
103 occupy any single-family residence or room or unit of dwellings or other buildings, or restrooms in such 104 room or unit in dwellings or other buildings, which it owns or operates.

105 D. Nothing in this chapter prohibits conduct against a person because such person has been convicted
106 by any court of competent jurisdiction of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled
107 substance as defined in federal law.

108 E. It shall not be unlawful under this chapter for any owner to deny or limit the rental of housing to 109 persons who pose a clear and present threat of substantial harm to others or to the dwelling itself.

110 F. A rental application may require disclosure by the applicant of any criminal convictions and the 111 owner or managing agent may require as a condition of acceptance of the rental application that 112 applicant consent in writing to a criminal record check to verify the disclosures made by applicant in the 113 rental application. The owner or managing agent may collect from the applicant moneys to reimburse
114 the owner or managing agent for the exact amount of the out-of-pocket costs for such criminal record
115 checks. Nothing in this chapter shall require an owner or managing agent to rent a dwelling to an 116 individual who, based on a prior record of criminal convictions involving harm to persons or property,
117 would constitute a clear and present threat to the health or safety of other individuals.

118 G. Nothing in this chapter limits the applicability of any reasonable local, state or federal restriction
119 regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling. Owners or managing 120 agents of dwellings may develop and implement reasonable occupancy and safety standards based on factors such as the number and size of sleeping areas or bedrooms and overall size of a dwelling unit so long as the standards do not violate local, state or federal restrictions. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the rental application or similar document from requiring information concerning the number, ages, sex and familial relationship of the applicants and the dwelling's intended occupants.

§ 36-96.3. Unlawful discriminatory housing practices.

A. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory housing practice for any person:

1. To refuse to sell or rent after the making of a bona fide offer or to refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or otherwise make unavailable or deny, a dwelling to any person because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, sexual orientation, or familial status;

2. To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in the connection therewith to any person because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, sexual orientation, or familial status;

3. To make, print, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published any notice, statement, or advertisement, with respect to the sale or rental of a dwelling that indicates any preference, limitation, or discrimination or an intention to make any such preference, limitation or discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap. The use of words or symbols associated with a particular religion, national origin, sex, or race shall be prima facie evidence of an illegal preference under this chapter which shall not be overcome by a general disclaimer. However, reference alone to places of worship including, but not limited to, churches, synagogues, temples, or mosques in any such notice, statement or advertisement shall not be prima facie evidence of an illegal preference;

4. To represent to any person because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap that any dwelling is not available for inspection, sale, or rental when such dwelling is in fact so available;

5. To deny any person access to membership in or participation in any multiple listing service, real estate brokers' organization, or other service, organization or facility relating to the business of selling or renting dwellings, or to discriminate against such person in the terms or conditions of such access, membership, or participation because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap;

6. To include in any transfer, sale, rental, or lease of housing, any restrictive covenant that discriminates because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap or for any person to honor or exercise, or attempt to honor or exercise any such discriminatory covenant pertaining to housing;

7. To induce or attempt to induce to sell or rent any dwelling by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap;

8. To refuse to sell or rent, or refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or otherwise discriminate or make unavailable or deny a dwelling because of a handicap of (i) the buyer or renter, (ii) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it is so sold, rented or made available, or (iii) any person associated with the buyer or renter;

9. To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection therewith because of a handicap of (i) that person, (ii) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it was so sold, rented or made available, or (iii) any person associated with that buyer or renter.

B. For the purposes of this section, discrimination includes: (i) a refusal to permit, at the expense of the handicapped person, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by any person if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full enjoyment of the premises; except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the renter's agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted; (ii) a refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, practices, policies, or services when such accommodations may be necessary to afford such person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; or (iii) in connection with the design and construction of covered multi-family dwellings for first occupancy after March 13, 1991, a failure to design and construct dwellings in such a manner that:

1. The public use and common use areas of the dwellings are readily accessible to and usable by handicapped persons;

2. All the doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises are sufficiently wide to allow passage by handicapped persons in wheelchairs; and

3. All premises within covered multi-family dwelling units contain an accessible route into and through the dwelling; light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental controls are in accessible locations; there are reinforcements in the bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars; and there are usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver about the space. As used in this subdivision the term "covered multi-family dwellings" means buildings consisting of four or more units if such buildings have one or more elevators and ground floor units in other buildings consisting of four or more units.

C. Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the American National Standards for Building and Facilities (commonly cited as "ANSI A117.1") or with any other standards adopted as part of regulations promulgated by HUD providing accessibility and usability for physically handicapped people shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of subdivision B 3.

D. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to invalidate or limit any Virginia law or regulation which requires dwellings to be designed and constructed in a manner that affords handicapped persons greater access than is required by this chapter.

§ 36-96.4. Discrimination in residential real estate-related transactions; unlawful practices by lenders, insurers, appraisers, etc.; deposit of state funds in such institutions.

A. It shall be unlawful for any person or other entity, including any lending institution, whose business includes engaging in residential real estate-related transactions, to discriminate against any person in making available such a transaction, or in the terms or conditions of such a transaction, or in the manner of providing such a transaction, because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap. It shall not be unlawful, however, for any person or other entity whose business includes engaging in residential real estate transactions to require any applicant to qualify financially for the loan or loans for which such person is making application.

B. As used in this section, the term "residential real estate-related transaction" means any of the following:

1. The making or purchasing of loans or providing other financial assistance (i) for purchasing, constructing, improving, repairing, or maintaining a dwelling or (ii) secured by residential real estate; or

2. The selling, brokering, insuring or appraising of residential real property. However, nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a person engaged in the business of furnishing appraisals of real property to take into consideration factors other than race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap.

C. It shall be unlawful for any state, county, city, or municipal treasurer or governmental official whose responsibility it is to account for, to invest, or manage public funds to deposit or cause to be deposited any public funds in any lending institution provided for herein which is found to be committing discriminatory practices, where such findings were upheld by any court of competent jurisdiction. Upon such a court's judicial enforcement of any order to restrain a practice of such lending institution or for said institution to cease or desist in a discriminatory practice, the appropriate fiscal officer or treasurer of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof which has funds deposited in any lending institution which is practicing discrimination, as set forth herein, shall take immediate steps to have the said funds withdrawn and redeposited in another lending institution. If for reasons of sound economic management, this action will result in a financial loss to the Commonwealth or any of its political subdivisions, the action may be deferred for a period not longer than one year. If the lending institution in question has corrected its discriminatory practices, any prohibition set forth in this section shall not apply.

§ 36-96.6. Certain restrictive covenants void; instruments containing such covenants.

A. Any restrictive covenant and any related reversionary interest, purporting to restrict occupancy or ownership of property on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap, whether heretofore or hereafter included in an instrument affecting the title to real or leasehold property, are declared to be void and contrary to the public policy of this Commonwealth.

B. Any person who is asked to accept a document affecting title to real or leasehold property may decline to accept the same if it includes such a covenant or reversionary interest until the covenant or reversionary interest has been removed from the document. Refusal to accept delivery of an instrument for this reason shall not be deemed a breach of a contract to purchase, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with such property.

C. No person shall solicit or accept compensation of any kind for the release or removal of any covenant or reversionary interest described in subsection A. Any person violating this subsection shall be liable to any person injured thereby in an amount equal to the greater of three times the compensation solicited or received, or $500, plus reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred.

D. A family care home, foster home, or group home in which physically handicapped, mentally ill, mentally retarded, or developmentally disabled persons reside, with one or more resident counselors or other staff persons, shall be considered for all purposes residential occupancy by a single family when construing any restrictive covenant which purports to restrict occupancy or ownership of real or leasehold property to members of a single family or to residential use or structure.

§ 55-248.47. Sale or lease of manufactured home by owner.

244 The landlord shall not unreasonably refuse or restrict the sale or rental of a manufactured home
245 located in his manufactured home park by a tenant. The landlord shall not prohibit the manufactured
246 home owner from placing a "for sale" sign on or in his home except that the size, placement, and 247 character of all signs are subject to the rules and regulations of the park. Prior to selling or leasing the
248 manufactured home the tenant shall give notice to the landlord, including, but not limited to, the name
249 of the prospective vendee or lessee if the prospective vendee or lessee intends to occupy the 250 manufactured home in that manufactured home park. The landlord shall have the burden of proving that 251 his refusal or restriction regarding the sale or rental of a manufactured home was reasonable. The refusal
252 or restriction of the sale or rental of a manufactured home based exclusively or predominantly on the 253 age of the home shall be considered unreasonable. Any refusal or restriction because of race, color,
254 religion, national origin, familial status, elderliness, handicap, sexual orientation, or sex shall be
255 conclusively presumed to be unreasonable.
