The Office shall have the power and duty to:1. Examine the role of small business in the Commonwealth's economy and the contribution that small business can make in improving competition, encouraging economic and social mobility, restraining inflation, expanding employment opportunities, increasing productivity, and stimulating innovation and entrepreneurship;2. Assess the effectiveness of existing assistance programs in the Commonwealth for small businesses;3. Measure the direct costs and other effects of government regulation on small businesses, and make legislative and nonlegislative proposals for eliminating excessive or unnecessary regulations of small businesses;4. Determine the impact of the state tax structure on small businesses and make recommendations for change;5. Determine financial resource ability and recommend methods for delivery of financial assistance to small business enterprises, including methods for securing equity capital, generating markets for goods and services, providing effective business education, and increasing management and technical assistance;6. Make such other recommendations as may be appropriate to assist the development and strengthening of small business enterprises; and7. Recommend specific measures for creating an environment in which all businesses will have the opportunity to compete effectively.C. In addition to subsection B, the Office shall perform the following duties on a continuing basis:1. Serve as a focal point for the receipt of complaints, criticisms, and suggestions concerning the policies and activities of state and local agencies that affect small businesses;2. Counsel small businesses on how to resolve questions and problems concerning the relationship of small businesses to state and local government;3. Represent the views and interests of small businesses before other state agencies; and4. Enlist the cooperation and assistance of public and private agencies, businesses, and other organizations in disseminating information about the programs and services provided by the Commonwealth that are of benefit to small businesses, and information on how small businesses can participate in or make use of such programs and services.D. Every state agency shall cooperate with and provide such assistance to the Office as the Office may request.E. The Director of the Office may from time to time prepare and publish such reports as he deems necessary.F. For purposes of this section, "small business" means a business entity, including its affiliates, that (i) is independently owned and operated and (ii) employs fewer than 250 full-time employees or has gross sales of less than $10 million per year.*
