Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 22.1-207.2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 22.1-207.2. Family life education; right of parents to review certain materials.

Every parent, guardian or other person in the Commonwealth having control or charge of any child who is required by § 22.1-254 A to send such child to a public school shall have the right to review ~~the~~ ~~complete~~ any family life curricula, whether such curricula are mandatory or optional, including all supplemental materials used in any family life education program. A complete copy of all printed materials and a description of all audio-visual materials shall be kept in the school library or office and made available for review to any parent or guardian during school office hours ~~before and during the school year~~. The audio-visual materials shall be made available to parents for review, upon request, on the same basis as printed materials are made available.

Each school board that offers any family life education program shall develop and, when so requested by an individual parent or guardian of a student participating in the family life education program, distribute to that parent or guardian, a summary designed to assist parents in understanding the program implemented in its school division as such program progresses and to encourage parental guidance and involvement in the instruction of the students. Such information shall reflect the curricula of the program as taught in the classroom.

2. That § 22.1-207.1 of the Code of Virginia is repealed.
