HOUSE BILL NO. 846AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE(Proposed by the House Committee for Courts of Justice
on February 6, 2006)

(Patrons Prior to Substitute—Delegates Albo, Lingamfelter [HB 1155], and Hugo [HB 1252])

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 18.2-48, 18.2-61, 18.2-67.1, 18.2-67.2, and 19.2-303 of the Code of Virginia, and to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 18.2-370.3, relating to sentences for certain sex crimes; penalties.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 18.2-48, 18.2-61, 18.2-67.1, 18.2-67.2, and 19.2-303 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted, and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 18.2-370.3 as follows:

§ 18.2-48. Abduction with intent to extort money or for immoral purpose.

Abduction (i) with the intent to extort money or pecuniary benefit, (ii) of any person with intent to defile such person, or (iii) of any child under sixteen years of age for the purpose of concubinage or prostitution, shall be a Class 2 felony. If the sentence imposed for a violation of (ii) or (iii) includes a term of confinement less than life imprisonment, the judge shall impose, in addition to any active sentence, a suspended sentence of no less than 40 years. This suspended sentence shall be suspended for the remainder of the defendant's life subject to revocation by the court.

§ 18.2-61. Rape.

A. If any person has sexual intercourse with a complaining witness, whether or not his or her spouse, or causes a complaining witness, whether or not his or her spouse, to engage in sexual intercourse with any other person and such act is accomplished (i) against the complaining witness's will, by force, threat or intimidation of or against the complaining witness or another person; or (ii) through the use of the complaining witness's mental incapacity or physical helplessness; or (iii) with a child under age 13 as the victim, he or she shall be guilty of rape.

B. A violation of this section shall be punishable, in the discretion of the court or jury, by confinement in a state correctional facility for life or for any term not less than five years; the penalty for a violation of subdivision A (iii) where the offender is more than three years older than the victim, if done in the commission of, or subsequent to a violation of (i) subsection A of § 18.2-47 or § 18.2-48; (ii) § 18.2-89, 18.2-90 or 18.2-91; or (iii) § 18.2-51.2, shall include a mandatory minimum term of confinement of 25 years, and if the sentence of confinement imposed is for a term less than life imprisonment, the judge shall impose, in addition to any active sentence, a suspended sentence of no less than 40 years. This suspended sentence shall be suspended for the remainder of the defendant's life subject to revocation by the court. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that a juvenile over the age of 10 but less than 12, does not possess the physical capacity to commit a violation of this section. In any case deemed appropriate by the court, all or part of any sentence imposed for a violation under this section against a spouse may be suspended upon the defendant's completion of counseling or therapy, if not already provided, in the manner prescribed under § 19.2-218.1 if, after consideration of the views of the complaining witness and such other evidence as may be relevant, the court finds such action will promote maintenance of the family unit and will be in the best interest of the complaining witness.

C. Upon a finding of guilt under this section, when a spouse is the complaining witness in any case tried by the court without a jury, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt, upon motion of the defendant who has not previously had a proceeding against him for violation of this section dismissed pursuant to this subsection and with the consent of the complaining witness and the attorney for the Commonwealth, may defer further proceedings and place the defendant on probation pending completion of counseling or therapy, if not already provided, in the manner prescribed under § 19.2-218.1. If the defendant fails to so complete such counseling or therapy, the court may make final disposition of the case and proceed as otherwise provided. If such counseling is completed as prescribed under § 19.2-218.1, the court may discharge the defendant and dismiss the proceedings against him if, after consideration of the views of the complaining witness and such other evidence as may be relevant, the court finds such action will promote maintenance of the family unit and be in the best interest of the complaining witness.

§ 18.2-67.1. Forcible sodomy.

A. An accused shall be guilty of forcible sodomy if he or she engages in cunnilingus, fellatio, anilingus, or anal intercourse with a complaining witness whether or not his or her spouse, or causes a complaining witness, whether or not his or her spouse, to engage in such acts with any other person, and

1. The complaining witness is less than 13 years of age, or

60 2. The act is accomplished against the will of the complaining witness, by force, threat or
61 intimidation of or against the complaining witness or another person, or through the use of the
62 complaining witness's mental incapacity or physical helplessness.

63 B. Forcible sodomy is a felony punishable by confinement in a state correctional facility for life or 64 for any term not less than five years. The penalty for a violation of subdivision A 1 where the offender
65 is more than three years older than the victim, if done in the commission of, or subsequent to a
66 violation of (i) subsection A of § 18.2-47 or § 18.2-48; (ii) § 18.2-89, 18.2-90, or 18.2-91; or (iii)
67 § 18.2-51.2, shall include a mandatory minimum term of confinement of 25 years, and if the sentence of 68 confinement imposed is for a term less than life imprisonment, the judge shall impose, in addition to any 69 active sentence, a suspended sentence of no less than 40 years. This suspended sentence shall be
70 suspended for the remainder of the defendant's life subject to revocation by the court. In any case
71 deemed appropriate by the court, all or part of any sentence imposed for a violation under this section
72 against a spouse may be suspended upon the defendant's completion of counseling or therapy, if not 73 already provided, in the manner prescribed under § 19.2-218.1 if, after consideration of the views of the
74 complaining witness and such other evidence as may be relevant, the court finds such action will
75 promote maintenance of the family unit and will be in the best interest of the complaining witness.

76 C. Upon a finding of guilt under this section, when a spouse is the complaining witness in any case
77 tried by the court without a jury, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt, upon motion of the
78 defendant who has not previously had a proceeding against him for violation of this section dismissed
79 pursuant to this subsection and with the consent of the complaining witness and the attorney for the
80 Commonwealth, may defer further proceedings and place the defendant on probation pending completion
81 of counseling or therapy, if not already provided, in the manner prescribed under § 19.2-218.1. If the
82 defendant fails to so complete such counseling or therapy, the court may make final disposition of the
83 case and proceed as otherwise provided. If such counseling is completed as prescribed under
84 § 19.2-218.1, the court may discharge the defendant and dismiss the proceedings against him if, after
85 consideration of the views of the complaining witness and such other evidence as may be relevant, the
86 court finds such action will promote maintenance of the family unit and be in the best interest of the 87 complaining witness.

88 § 18.2-67.2. Object sexual penetration; penalty.

89 A. An accused shall be guilty of inanimate or animate object sexual penetration if he or she 90 penetrates the labia majora or anus of a complaining witness, whether or not his or her spouse, other
91 than for a bona fide medical purpose, or causes such complaining witness to so penetrate his or her own
92 body with an object or causes a complaining witness, whether or not his or her spouse, to engage in 93 such acts with any other person or to penetrate, or to be penetrated by, an animal, and

94 1. The complaining witness is less than 13 years of age, or

95 2. The act is accomplished against the will of the complaining witness, by force, threat or
96 intimidation of or against the complaining witness or another person, or through the use of the
97 complaining witness's mental incapacity or physical helplessness.

98 B. Inanimate or animate object sexual penetration is a felony punishable by confinement in the state
99 correctional facility for life or for any term not less than five years. The penalty for a violation of 100 subdivision A 1 where the offender is more than three years older than the victim, if done in the
101 commission of, or subsequent to a violation of (i) subsection A of § 18.2-47 or § 18.2-48; (ii) § 18.2-89,
102 18.2-90, or 18.2-91; or (iii) § 18.2-51.2, shall include a mandatory minimum term of confinement of 25
103 years, and if the sentence of confinement imposed is for a term less than life imprisonment, the judge
104 shall impose, in addition to any active sentence, a suspended sentence of no less than 40 years. This
105 suspended sentence shall be suspended for the remainder of the defendant's life subject to revocation by 106 the court. In any case deemed appropriate by the court, all or part of any sentence imposed for a 107 violation under this section against a spouse may be suspended upon the defendant's completion of 108 counseling or therapy, if not already provided, in the manner prescribed under § 19.2-218.1 if, after
109 consideration of the views of the complaining witness and such other evidence as may be relevant, the 110 court finds such action will promote maintenance of the family unit and will be in the best interest of 111 the complaining witness.

112 C. Upon a finding of guilt under this section, when a spouse is the complaining witness in any case
113 tried by the court without a jury, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt, upon motion of the
114 defendant who has not previously had a proceeding against him for violation of this section dismissed
115 pursuant to this subsection and with the consent of the complaining witness and the attorney for the
116 Commonwealth, may defer further proceedings and place the defendant on probation pending completion
117 of counseling or therapy, if not already provided, in the manner prescribed under § 19.2-218.1. If the
118 defendant fails to so complete such counseling or therapy, the court may make final disposition of the
119 case and proceed as otherwise provided. If such counseling is completed as prescribed under
120 § 19.2-218.1, the court may discharge the defendant and dismiss the proceedings against him if, after
121 consideration of the views of the complaining witness and such other evidence as may be relevant, the

court finds such action will promote maintenance of the family unit and be in the best interest of the complaining witness.

§ 18.2-370.3. Sex offenses prohibiting working on school property; penalty.

A. Every adult who has been convicted of an offense of (i) clause (iii) of subsection A of § 18.2-61, (ii) subdivision A 1 of § 18.2-67.1, or (iii) subdivision A 1 of § 18.2-67.2, shall be forever prohibited from performing any type of volunteer activities on property he knows or has reason to know is public or private elementary or secondary school or child day center property. A violation of this section is a Class 6 felony.

B. Every adult who has been convicted of an offense occurring on or after July 1, 2006, of (i) clause (iii) of subsection A of § 18.2-61, (ii) subdivision A 1 of § 18.2-67.1, or (iii) subdivision A 1 of § 18.2-67.2, shall be forever prohibited from working on property he knows or has reason to know is public or private elementary or secondary school or child day center property. A violation of this section is punishable as a Class 6 felony.

C. Any employer of a person who violated this statute in the course of such person's employment, and the school or child day center where the violation of this section occurred, are immune from civil liability unless they had actual knowledge that such person had been convicted of an offense listed in subsection A § 19.2-303. Suspension or modification of sentence; probation; taking of fingerprints as condition of probation.

After conviction, whether with or without jury, the court may suspend imposition of sentence or suspend the sentence in whole or part and in addition may place the ~~accused~~ defendant on probation under such conditions as the court shall determine or may, as a condition of a suspended sentence, require the ~~accused~~ defendant to make at least partial restitution to the aggrieved party or parties for damages or loss caused by the offense for which convicted, or to perform community service, or both, under terms and conditions which shall be entered in writing by the court. The judge, after convicting the ~~accused~~ defendant of a felony, shall determine whether a copy of the ~~accused's~~ defendant's fingerprints are on file at the Central Criminal Records Exchange. In any case where fingerprints are not on file, the judge shall require that fingerprints be taken as a condition of probation. Such fingerprints shall be submitted to the Central Criminal Records Exchange under the provisions of subsection D of § 19.2-390.

In any case where a defendant is convicted of a violation of § 18.2-48, 18.2-61, 18.2-63, 18.2-67.1, 18.2-67.2, 18.2-67.3, 18.2-370, or 18.2-370.1, committed on or after July 1, 2006, and some portion of the sentence is suspended, the judge shall order that the period of suspension shall be for a length of time at least equal to the statutory maximum period for which the defendant might originally have been sentenced to be imprisoned, and the defendant shall be placed on probation for that period of suspension subject to revocation by the court. The conditions of probation may include such conditions as the court shall determine, including active supervision. Where the conviction is for a violation of clause (iii) of subsection A of § 18.2-61, subdivision A 1 of § 18.2-67.1, or subdivision A 1 of § 18.2-67.2, the court shall order that at least three years of the probation include active supervision of the defendant under a postrelease supervision program operated by the Department of Corrections, and for at least three years of such active supervision, the defendant shall be subject to electronic monitoring by means of a GPS (Global Positioning System) tracking device, or other similar device.

If a person is sentenced to jail upon conviction of a misdemeanor or a felony, the court may, at any time before the sentence has been completely served, suspend the unserved portion of any such sentence, place the person on probation for such time as the court shall determine, or otherwise modify the sentence imposed.

If a person has been sentenced for a felony to the Department of Corrections but has not actually been transferred to a receiving unit of the Department, the court which heard the case, if it appears compatible with the public interest and there are circumstances in mitigation of the offense, may, at any time before the person is transferred to the Department, suspend or otherwise modify the unserved portion of such a sentence. The court may place the person on probation for such time as the court shall determine.

2. That the provisions of this act may result in a net increase in periods of imprisonment or commitment. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4, the estimated amount of the necessary appropriation cannot be determined for periods of imprisonment in state adult correctional facilities and is $0 for periods of commitment to the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice.
