Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any candidate or treasurer required to file a report pursuant to this chapter shall be entitled to a 72-hour extension of the filing deadline if his spouse, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, or sibling died within the 72 hours before the deadline. The State Board or the local electoral board shall be authorized to grant an extension of the filing deadline for a period not to exceed five days for good cause shown by the filer and found by the Board or board sufficient to justify the granting of the extension.

C. The Secretary of the State Board shall have additional authority to extend a deadline established in this chapter for filing reports in emergency situations that interfere with the timely filing of reports. The extension shall be limited in scope to the areas and times affected by the emergency. E. The State Board shall have authority to extend any deadline applicable to reports required to be filed by computer or electronic means in the event of a failure of the computer or electronic filing system that prevents timely filing. A candidate campaign committee file shall not be closed if the candidate has filed a report with the Board or board for any campaign for any office within the prior five years. A political committee file shall not be closed if the committee has filed a report within the prior five years.

B. Once the committee's file has been closed, no more reports will be due and no additional penalties for failure to file will accrue. However, if the whereabouts of the candidate or his campaign treasurer, or in the case of any political committee, the treasurer or custodian of the books of the committee, later becomes known to the Board or board, it may reopen the file and send notice to the candidate, or in the case of any political committee, the treasurer or custodian of the books of the committee, requesting that he file the appropriate reports and pay any penalties that were levied before the file was closed by it.

For the purposes of this section, the candidate shall be presumed to have complied with the candidate disclosure reporting requirements unless (i) the State Board or local electoral board, whichever is appropriate, has notified the candidate, at least 60 days prior to the applicable deadline for him to file his written statement of qualification set out in § 24.2-503, that he has failed to file a required report or reports and (ii) the candidate fails to file the specified report or reports by the applicable deadline for filing his written statement of qualification.

A. A final report shall be filed by every campaign committee which sets forth (i) all receipts and disbursements not previously reported, (ii) an accounting of the retirement of all debts, and (iii) the disposition of all surplus funds as provided in subsection D. The final report shall include a termination statement, signed by the candidate, that all reporting for the campaign committee is complete and final. Once a campaign committee's final report has been filed, no further report relating to that election shall be required.

B. A final report shall be required when (i) a candidate no longer seeks election to the same office in a successive election, (ii) a candidate seeks election to a different office, or (iii) the candidate is deceased.

C. If the candidate is deceased, the final report shall be filed and signed by the treasurer. If the candidate was serving as his own treasurer, his executor shall file and sign the final report. Any excess contributed funds shall be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of subsection D.

D. Amounts received by a candidate or his campaign committee as contributions that are in excess of the amount necessary to defray his campaign expenditures may be disposed of only by one or any combination of the following: (i) transferring the excess for use in a succeeding election or to retire the deficit in a preceding election; (ii) returning the excess to a contributor in an amount not to exceed the contributor's original contribution; (iii) donating the excess to any organization described in § 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code; (iv) contributing the excess to one or more candidates or to any political committee that has filed a statement of organization pursuant to this chapter; (v) contributing the excess to any political party committee; and (vi) defraying any ordinary, nonreimbursed expense related to his elective office. 1557 office have the same surname, the political action committee shall include the first name, or other initial 1558 or nickname, and the last name of the candidate, in the name of the political action committee so as to 1559 identify which candidate is associated with the political action committee; and either the written

1634 in which the filer has no activity to report.

1635 G. It is the responsibility of the treasurer that the report for the political action committee be filed 1636 and that the report be in full and accurate detail.

1650 any single contribution or loan of $10,000 or more received at any time during the calendar year within 1651 three business days of receipt of the contribution or loan.

1652 1. The report shall be filed on a "large dollar contribution report" form prescribed by the State
1653 Board and shall be filed in writing or electronically in the same manner as the political action
1654 committee files its quarterly disclosure reports.

1655 2. Any contribution or loan reported pursuant to this section shall also be reported on the next
1656 subsequent report required under § 24.2-949.6 following receipt of the contribution or loan.

1657 3. For the purposes of this section, political action committees shall report as one contribution
1658 multiple contributions from a single source that have been subdivided into smaller amounts or given
1659 through different bank accounts for the purpose of evading the $10,000 threshold. A political action

1668 file its reports with the State Board by computer or electronic means in accordance with the standards
1669 approved by the State Board until such time as the political action committee files a final report. Any 1670 political action committee that has been filing electronically, but does not anticipate accepting
1671 contributions or making expenditures in excess of $10,000 in the upcoming calendar year, may sign a
1672 waiver, on a form prescribed by the State Board, to exempt the committee from the electronic filing
1673 requirement for the calendar year. Such waiver form shall be submitted and received no later than the 1674 date the first report is due covering activity for that calendar year.

1675 C. For political action committees that are not subject to the provisions of subsection B, any report
1676 required to be filed with the State Board shall be deemed to be filed by the deadline for the report if it
1677 is mailed and postmarked not later than the deadline for filing the report.

1678 § 24.2-949.9. Final report requirement; disbursement of surplus funds.

A. The procedures to enforce the provisions of this article are found in § 24.2-946.3.

B. Either the failure to file any statement or report or the late filing of any statement or report required by this chapter shall constitute a violation of this chapter subject to the penalties provided in this article.

C. Any person who violates, or aids, abets, or participates in the violation of, this chapter shall be 2248 subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $100, unless a greater penalty is imposed by this article.

2249 D. In the case of a willful violation, the violator shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. There
2250 shall be a rebuttable presumption that the violation of this chapter was willful if the violation is based
2251 on a person's failure to file a report required by this chapter and his failure to file continues for more
2252 than 60 days following his actual receipt of written notice of his failure to file sent to him by certified
2253 mail, return receipt requested, by the State Board or an electoral board. Such notice shall be sent to the 2254 most recent mailing address provided by the candidate or committee.

2255 E. In the case of a failure to file a required statement or report by the specified deadline, the length
2256 of the delinquency shall be a factor in determining the amount of the civil penalty assessed.

2257 F. The statute of limitations applicable to a violation of this chapter is stated in § 19.2-8.

2258 § 24.2-953.1. Failure to file the required reports.

2262 committee shall be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed $500. In the case of a second or any
2263 subsequent such violation pertaining to one election cycle, the candidate campaign committee or
2264 political committee shall be assessed a civil penalty of $1,000 for each such failure to file.

2265 C. In the case of a failure to file the report of any large pre-election contribution required by 2266 § 24.2-947.9 or a large contribution report required by § 24.2-948, there shall be a rebuttable
2267 presumption that the violation was willful.

2268 § 24.2-953.2. Late filing of required reports.

2269 A. In the case of the late filing of the statement of organization required by this chapter for a
2270 candidate campaign committee or political committee, there shall be a civil penalty not to exceed $500.

2271 B. In the case of a late filing of a required report, the candidate campaign committee or political 2272 committee shall be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed $500. In the case of a second or any
2273 subsequent such violation pertaining to one election cycle, the candidate campaign committee or 2274 political committee shall be assessed a civil penalty of $1,000 for each such late filing.

2275 § 24.2-953.3. Incomplete reports.

2276 A. In the case of a violation of this chapter that relates to the filing of an incomplete report due
2277 within the 120 days before or the 35 days after a November general election date, there shall be a civil 2278 penalty not to exceed $500.

2279 B. The additional periods for filing specified in subsections C and D shall apply only to the 2280 completion of a timely filed report and not to any case of a failure to file or the late filing of a required
2281 report by the deadline specified in this chapter. The provisions of subsections C and D shall not apply
2282 to reports required by § 24.2-947.9, 24.2-948, 24.2-949.7, 24.2-950.7, 24.2-951.7, or 24.2-952.5.

2283 C. Prior to assessing a penalty pursuant to this article for the filing of an incomplete report, the
2284 Secretary of the State Board or the general registrar or secretary of the local electoral board, as
2285 appropriate, shall notify within 14 days of the deadline for the required report, in writing, the candidate
2286 and treasurer, or person or political committee required to file a report with that board, that a filed
2287 report has not been completed, citing the omissions from the report. No penalty shall be assessed if the 2288 information required to complete the report is filed within 10 days of the date of mailing the written 2289 notice.

2290 D. If the information required to complete the report is not filed within the 10-day period, the
2291 Secretary of the State Board or the general registrar or secretary of the local electoral board, as
2292 appropriate, shall then assess against the candidate and treasurer, who shall be jointly and severally
2293 liable, or person or political committee required to file a report, a civil penalty not to exceed $500. The
2294 Secretary of the State Board or the general registrar or secretary of the local electoral board may grant
2295 an additional period for compliance, not to exceed two weeks, to permit the completion of a filed report
2296 for good cause shown and in response to a request filed within the 10-day period. However, no
2297 additional period shall be granted thereafter for compliance.

2298 § 24.2-953.4. Additional civil penalties for late and incomplete filings for statewide campaigns.

2299 A. In addition to the penalties provided in §§ 24.2-953.1, 24.2-953.2 and 24.2-953.3, any candidate
2300 for statewide office, and his campaign treasurer, who fails to file any report required in Article 3 in a
2301 timely manner or files an incomplete report may be assessed a civil penalty by the Secretary of the State
2302 Board pursuant to this section.

2303 B. Prior to assessing a penalty pursuant to this section, the Secretary shall notify, within 14 days of 2304 the deadline for the required report, the candidate and treasurer in writing that a report has not been 2305 filed or that a filed report has not been completed, citing the omissions from the report. No penalty
2306 shall be assessed pursuant to this section if the report or information required to complete the report is 2307 filed within seven days of the date of mailing the written notice.

2308 C. If the report or information required to complete the report is not filed within the seven-day
2309 period, the Secretary shall assess against the candidate and treasurer, who shall be jointly and severally liable, a civil penalty of $500 for each day that the violation continues on and after the eighth day following the date of mailing the written notice. The Secretary may grant an additional period for compliance, not to exceed two weeks, for good cause shown and in response to a request filed within the seven-day period. However, no additional period shall be granted for compliance with the requirement under subdivision 8 of § 24.2-947.6 to file a report not later than the eighth day before the election. The State Board shall notify the public through the Internet of the violation and identity of the violator.

D. If requested by the Secretary, the attorney for the Commonwealth of the City of Richmond shall assist the Secretary in collecting the civil penalty.

E. Any candidate or treasurer aggrieved by the assessment pursuant to this section shall have a right to the direct review of the assessment by a court of competent jurisdiction as provided in the Administrative Process Act (§ 2.2-4000 et seq.). The provisions of the Act shall not apply, however, to the assessment of civil penalties by the Secretary pursuant to this section.

F. Civil penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be payable to the State Treasurer for deposit to the general fund.
