18	Section 6. Exempt property.
19	(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, the following property and no other shall be
20	exempt from taxation, State and local, including inheritance taxes:
21	(1) Property owned directly or indirectly by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof,
22 23	and obligations of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof exempt by law. (2) Real estate and personal property owned and exclusively occupied or used by churches or
23 24	religious bodies for religious worship or for the residences of their ministers.
25	(3) Private or public burying grounds or cemeteries, provided the same are not operated for profit.
26	(4) Property owned by public libraries or by institutions of learning not conducted for profit, so long
27	as such property is primarily used for literary, scientific, or educational purposes or purposes incidental
28	thereto. This provision may also apply to leasehold interests in such property as may be provided by
29 30	general law. (5) Intangible personal property, or any class or classes thereof, as may be exempted in whole or in
30 31	part by general law.
32	(6) Property used by its owner for religious, charitable, patriotic, historical, benevolent, cultural, or
33	public park and playground purposes, as may be provided by classification or designation by an
34	ordinance adopted by the local governing body and subject to such restrictions and conditions as
35	provided by general law.
36 37	(7) Land subject to a perpetual easement permitting inundation by water as may be exempted in whole or in part by general law.
38	(b) The General Assembly may by general law authorize the governing body of any county, city, town, or regional government to provide for the exemption from local property taxation, or a portion
40	thereof, within such restrictions and upon such conditions as may be prescribed, of real estate and
41	personal property designed for continuous habitation owned by, and occupied as the sole dwelling of,
42	persons not less than sixty-five years of age or persons permanently and totally disabled as established
43 44	by general law who are deemed by the General Assembly to be bearing an extraordinary tax burden on said property in relation to their income and financial worth.
45	(c) Except as to property of the Commonwealth, the General Assembly by general law may restrict
46	or condition, in whole or in part, but not extend, any or all of the above exemptions.
47	(d) The General Assembly may define as a separate subject of taxation any property, including real
48	or personal property, equipment, facilities, or devices, used primarily for the purpose of abating or
49	preventing pollution of the atmosphere or waters of the Commonwealth or for the purpose of
50 51	transferring or storing solar energy, and by general law may allow the governing body of any county, city town or regional government to exempt or partially exempt such property from taxation or by
51 52	city, town, or regional government to exempt or partially exempt such property from taxation, or by general law may directly exempt or partially exempt such property from taxation.
5 2 5 3	(e) The General Assembly may define as a separate subject of taxation household goods, personal
54	effects and tangible farm property and products, and by general law may allow the governing body of
55	any county, city, town, or regional government to exempt or partially exempt such property from
56	taxation, or by general law may directly exempt or partially exempt such property from taxation.
57 58	(f) Exemptions of property from taxation as established or authorized hereby shall be strictly construed; provided however, that all property exempt from taxation on the effective data of this section.
