[S 288]

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 19.2-182.8 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 19.2-182.8. Revocation of conditional release.

9 If at any time the court that released an acquittee pursuant to § 19.2-182.7 finds reasonable ground to 10 believe that an acquittee on conditional release (i) has violated the conditions of his release or is no
11 longer a proper subject for conditional release based on application of the criteria for conditional release 12 and (ii) requires inpatient hospitalization, it may order an evaluation of the acquittee by a psychiatrist or 13 clinical psychologist, provided the psychiatrist or clinical psychologist is qualified by training and 14 experience to perform forensic evaluations. If the court, based on the evaluation and after hearing 15 evidence on the issue, finds by a preponderance of the evidence that an acquittee on conditional release
16 (i) has violated the conditions of his release or is no longer a proper subject for conditional release
17 based on application of the criteria for conditional release and (ii) is mentally ill or mentally retarded
18 and requires inpatient hospitalization, the court may revoke the acquittee's conditional release and order 19 him returned to the custody of the Commissioner.

20 At any hearing pursuant to this section, the acquittee shall be provided with adequate notice of the 21 hearing, of the right to be present at the hearing, the right to the assistance of counsel in preparation for 22 and during the hearing, and the right to introduce evidence and cross-examine witnesses at the hearing.
23 The hearing shall be scheduled on an expedited basis and shall be given priority over other civil 24 matters before the court. Written notice of the hearing shall be provided to the attorney for the 25 Commonwealth for the committing jurisdiction. The hearing is a civil proceeding.
