7. Budget amendment necessary: No, the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation's appropriation may be adjusted administratively as needed.

8. Fiscal implications: This bill will require the Real Estate Board to establish the continuing education curriculum for the new requirements, and to promulgate new regulations, which is expected to involve six additional meetings of the board during FY 2008.

Operating Costs: The total cost of the board meetings, including travel and per diem for board members, is estimated to be $8,411. In addition, the board expects to send three sets of letters, information, and notification of new requirements to all licensees (currently 68,244) during FY 2008, for a total postage cost of $79,845. These are all single year costs that will not recur in future years.

Total costs are projected to be $90,956 in FY 2008, and $0 in FY 2009 and future years.

Revenue: In accordance with the provisions of § 54.1-113 (Callahan Act) of the Code of Virginia, licensing fees are established at rates adequate to cover a program's operating costs and a proportionate share of agency support costs. Since these costs will impact a single year only, the expenses will be paid from the board's cash balance, and no additional revenue will need to be collected to cover these costs.

Cost to Regulants: The board currently has sufficient cash balances to absorb the single year expenditure increase without the need to increase fees to licensees.

9. Specific agency or political subdivisions affected: Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation, Real Estate Board.

10. Technical amendment necessary: No.

11. Other comments: The second enactment clause specifies that the bill is not effective until July 1, 2007.
