The Council will disseminate the information to attorneys for the Commonwealth. An attorney for the Commonwealth may request an affidavit signed by the custodian of the records that a person on the list has been identified as a member of a criminal gang and the affidavit can be admitted into evidence in any court proceeding as prima facie evidence of the individual's gang membership. The bill also specifies that law-enforcement agencies, school administrations and probation offices are included as entities that may examine certain juvenile records held by the Department of Juvenile Justice if there is a court order determining that they have a legitimate interest. The bill also says that the court order may be granted if the person, agency, or institution has a legitimate interest in the juvenile. Under current law the interest is limited to the case or in the work of the court.
