§ 2. Any such conveyance of the above-described real property to Caroline County, or such other entity, local government or governments as may be deemed appropriate, shall be subject to approval by the Commonwealth Transportation Board, and shall be made in a form approved by the Attorney General. Caroline County shall pay all costs and expenses incurred in the transfer and shall be responsible for the abatement, and related costs, of any currently existing environmental contamination on the property to the extent required by applicable law. The appropriate officials of the Commonwealth are hereby authorized to prepare, execute, and deliver such deed and other documents as may be necessary to accomplish the conveyance.

The deeds of conveyance to and from Caroline County shall provide that in the event the Rappahannock Community Services Board ceases to utilize the property primarily as an adult day care facility or for the provision of mental health, substance abuse and other related services, or Caroline County does not use the property for other governmental purposes, the Commonwealth shall give written notice thereof to Caroline County and or Rappahannock Community Services Board, which shall thereafter have ninety (90) days to comply with the aforesaid requirements. If compliance shall not be achieved within such time period, upon written demand by the Commonwealth, Caroline County or Rappahannock Community Services Board, whichever may be in title, shall immediately convey the property to the Commonwealth, free of any liens or encumbrances except those existing as of the date of conveyance from the Commonwealth. If Caroline County or the Rappahannock Community Services Board fails to immediately comply with the terms hereof, the Commonwealth may petition any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the reverter herein provided.
